Dear Mrs Roberts

September 6th
[1913]

Your letter is most interesting, and I quite agree with what you say. But ^{it} is an ideal which will have to be dealt with very carefully, it would be quite as possible to alienate Churchpeople, men and women by urging such an ideal in a proud unchristian spirit as it is now by ignoring woman's spiritual equality with man. I can answer (a) and (b) in the affirmative, and I should like to attend a conference if it was possible; but I feel quite unable to read a paper on anything of that kind. If I come across any Churchwomen likely to be interested I will let you know.

yours faithfully
Erene Batty
