THE MOUNT SCHOOL,
YORK.

My own dear Dick

Dear little Babs has just been to see me & so I have been hindered He is such a dear little Chap & is so friendly. He can take two or three steps alone. It is just lovely having old Bog & he is as nice as ever. It is just the same. I love him just awfully, don't you?

I was so glad the Election was over before he came.

I came home on Sat. evening & I had a telephone message at 11.30 to say that the Liberal was defeated by 1135 votes tho we were pleased. We have turned a great many votes & I think the Liberals will wake up in time to realize that people won't vote for them unless they give women the vote. The town was in an awful state on Sat. & we all shut up & boarded the shop up by 6 o'clock in the evening.

Isn't it dreadful! On Thursday my pen & the four lovely pens of the pencil were stolen out of my water proof pocket.
I do feel so grieved for I did like it so much & I hated losing what you had given me. That dear old Boy has bought me another fountain pen & while I was arranging to have a coat & skirt made at Mosedells, he would have me have an extra good cloth & he said he would pay the extra guinea. He has brought me home some beautiful lace & silk for a blouse or dress you will have to see the things he has brought, but he will tell you about it on Saturday tho would it be lovely to see you both & you us. I drove about the town on Sat. in a waggette

Selling the Suffragettes we went up & down the streets all over Reading. In the fortnight we sold 1300 Suffragettes & that in a place like Reading is wonderfully good. There has come up suddenly such a heavy storm of wind & rain that we have had to give up going to the Roansea. I am so glad you did so well with your Chemistry it was fine heaps of love my own dear girlie from your own loving Mother.

Write for Annie's address as soon as possible, but she has moved & I don't know yet where she lives.
