My very dear friend,

Your letter, which I loved to receive, has been lying unanswered for days.
I did, however, write to Miss Forsyth accepting her invitation to make one of your associates and I and I. I hope to be able

London, S.W.
NINE ELMS,
2, CURRIE STREET,
to throw some work into it

Yes: everything promises well; and we had a glorious day yesterday.
I think it must be evident to even the rank-est unbelievers now that the women mean business we had a fine meeting at

Hensington Town. Hale and I believe the results will be good for our League. We must go on, even if this little Bill is passed, not of course, as militant it is my dream, when the first step is won to make our League

International - for Women's Freedom everywhere
and the lifting up of the oppressed, through her.

My dear love to you -
I hope we shall meet again soon
Yours always - the Great Hope

C. DeFart
