THE TRIBUNE

Head Office
23 - 29 Bouverie St.
Fleet St. London E.C.

Feb. 7th 1906.

Madame,

The Proprietors of the "Tribune are anxious to further the cause of Women's Suffrage , whether it is expedient at the "present moment to urge it" upon the Government as a Governmental measure" is a matter that is engaging their serious consideration.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) J.A. Nicklin
