Dear Mrs Ramelson,

We have just received with enormous pleasure your book, THE PETTICOAT REBELLION. Thank you so much for arranging with the publishers for us to be given a copy. Perhaps one day when you are here, you will sign it for us. You know I am sure how grateful we are when authors present us with their books.

It is delightful, after being interested in the book for so long, to see it in the flesh. The illustrations have come out extremely well. I am looking forward tremendously to reading it.

We have arranged with the publishers to display leaflets about the book at the Conference organised by the Fawcett Society on April 29th. They are sending us 100.

I expect now that the book is out, you would quite like to get rid of the six volumes of "The Vote", Mary Gawthorpe's UPHILL TO HOLLOWAY, and the two pamphlets, Lydia Becker's POLITICAL DISABILITIES OF WOMEN and Mrs J.S. Mill's ENFRANCHISEMENT OF WOMEN, which you still have from our Library !

Wishing the book every success - and yourself better health,

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Ramelson
