My dear Pip.

Many happy returns of the day. I hope you won't mind the mistake at the top of the page Lytton bought a ship called The May Flower; we sailed her in a little pond and she sailed beautifully. Lytton also Oliver and Pemie is going to make some - are going. On Thursday flags for her and we James and I went to bought some string - tea with Amabelle for the rigging. Lytton Ward, a little girl of and I are going to give but very tall for a Picnic this afternoon her age. But now I must say

Goodbye
your loving Marjorie

P.S. Lytton sends much Love to Lady B.! and writes this letter.
