Dear Miss Strachey,

I am writing to you as I do not know the name of the present Principal of Newnham and as I am up here I am afraid I can't get it easily.

When I last saw you at Newnham I told you that I would like to do a tapestry in petit point for the College.

The war came and everything stopped, but the tapestry is ready and is suitably framed. The subject is The faithless shepherd. - The Shepherdess has inveigled him from the sheep: and a wolf has carried off a lamb.

There is some pleasant scenery, trees a stream and flowering shrubs. It has been exhibited by the Embroiders' Guild. It would give me much pleasure if Newnham would accept it and I should feel honoured if it could be hung in dear Newnham.

I wish I could see you again. I have pleasant memories and the last time I saw you and of your kindness when I was last up in Cambridge.

I have not been well and have come here for the winter.

I was up and in Clough Hall from 1888 - 1891.

With kindest remembrances and my love,
Yours sincerely,

(Signed) ELIZABETH BAINES
Elizabeth Graham.

P.S. I will send the measurements - or my daughter Mrs. E.J.Boome will do so.
