Miss Alice Park,
611 Gilman St.,
Palo Alto, California.

Dear Miss Park,

Thank you so very much for your account of the Women Voters' Convention. I hope you will have been pleased to see that your last article on the Panama Exposition appeared practically in full with only the deletion of some proper names in our October number. I am indeed grateful to you for these American notes. The National American Woman's Suffrage Association send me nothing and all I have to rely upon are the Empire State Bureau's cuttings which you will agree with me represent inadequately the great American Movement. I do hope you are going to have great success. It will be a tremendous encouragement all over the world if New York State can be carried. There certainly never was a campaign like it; the echo of it reaches even the war zone.

It is a great joy to get your letters and contributions, and to know that you do not forget the International Alliance.

Yours most sincerely,

M. Sheepshanks
