Dear Madam

My sister, Miss Verrall is away from Brighton until this evening. but I was writing in her stead as I know that she will not be able to attend the meeting at Newcastle & you will probably be to know this already.

We are just heating up our house here - & we going abroad for 6 months so that my sister will not I am sorry to say - he ought to do anything for that home - I am sure he would put me to check the Executive Committee for

The invitation to be one of

The Representatives - she would

I know have been very glad to do whatever she could had it been possible

Yours truly

Marian E. Kendall

Re: Central Ex. Women's Suffrage my note will not either be able to speak at Eastbourne & I am sure she will be very not to help in this emergency -
