My dearest Philippina,

Many thanks for your letter which I received with many blessings. Yesterday was the concert; ~~and~~ I played a dead one worse in the most awful way; Miss Boyce has not yet got over it and has not spoken to me since.
In fact she has had to fly home to recover from the effects.

I am afraid this letter is going to be a honte like the last. Margorie played the Bells Rondo at the little concert leading off in grand style.

Good night

yr loving

Pen
