Dec. 11th. 1912.

To A. E. W. Marshall Esq.,
Solicitor,
48 Mark Lane,
London. E.C.

My dear Sir,

I am much obliged by your loan of the Shorthand notes of Judge Smyly's Judgment in Taylor. v. Kemsley ? Bristowe. I do not know whether the Defendants are appealing; if they are it is hardly likely that the Plaintiff will want to enter a cross appeal, though there are inconsistencies, forgetfulness and Statements to his prejudice in the judgment.

Yours very truly.

Arthur Powell.
