Lord Rosbery presents
his compliments to myself Faithful and well Endeavour to introduce such an allusion as the issues of it fall within the scope of the few remarks which he has
to make this evening.
With regard to the matter
he has to lay down

very strict rules as to matters of this kind,
in consequence of the enormous number of applications he receives and he regrets that he is unable to open the door to many similar proposals by giving his name to the performance at Manchester.
