Dear Mrs Sudd Brown

I write to ask you to do a great service and that is to give the very biggest subscription that you can afford at the Albert Hall next Thursday.

Mr. Sheer is very anxious for political reasons that the collection shall be a record on and she has asked me to look after it.

We are just now in a position of very strong advantage. The Government are very near the end of their resources as their introduction of the cut & moss Bill shows.

The actual militants have done wonders at a great cost to themselves.

The subscribers can not come in and pursue the advantage.

The militants will break the cut & moss Bill & withdraw it to themselves, but their task will be much easier if the Govt really let them have a financial backing which is stronger than in the past.

Subscribers are already telling us of the very generous gifts they have in store. Miss James Allan is going to give £1,200, <sup>more than</sup> a seventh of her income. Another member who has seven hundred a year is going to give £100.

These as Mr. Safford will tell you are going to give 10 times more than they have ever given in the past.

I know that you will consider what is the largest sum you can afford & will give it on Thursday. With good wishes Very sincerely yours
Whitaker Paulkner
