Dear Miss Newcome

The banner was sent off on Monday, but the shop was remiss in letting me know, so it may have reached you before this comes as it should to give you due notice. Sorry.

I can only add my thanks to you for so readily consenting to take charge of

of it till place can be found for it in the Suffragette Museum -

We had not heard of Lady Petchick Lawrence's accident.

Except for Mrs's remembrance we hear from them rarely.

With grateful thanks

Yours sincerely

Clemence Housman
