

AL/625

Oct. 4./09.

32 ADDISON ROAD,
KENSINGTON, W.

Dear Mrs Fawcett.

Here is Ethel Arnold's private answer. A touch of the weight of the elder sister in it! But, it is alright & 'handsome'. It was rather absurd to write with so little information as she had. I see we are accorded big print. I have just forwarded to the Times a letter f. Lady Betty. like her sister Lady C., she has not quite the touch of public life, & I have some misgivings whether it will not be thought to be too "militant". The Conservatives are her suffrage leaders.

Still, she makes some good points. Aunt returns me this letter till I have seen it in the Times, & then I do. We glad to have a word of comment. Mrs Crackanthorpe writes me a very ^{anti} militant letter. I begin to understand what Parnell fell when his followers mandered down Frederick!

Yrs affly
Francis Baffin

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

6847