Dear Mrs Russell

As I am writing to you let me send you a cheque for £5 ; this squares us up about the cottage, doesn't it? I am tempted to take it on for a year, for we have been very happy there. If I could dump it down on the top of a solitary hill I know I should yield to the temptation. But seriously, we couldn't get to Fernhurst at all during the winter months, so I'm afraid it's no use. I may ask you what its fate has been next summer. I hope we have been satisfactory tenants.

Very sincerely yours

Granville Barker
