

4439

Asansol

10th Aug. 191

My dear Pippa

The usual monotonous has been varied this week ~~has been~~ by my getting a slight attack of fever which has laid me low for two days, but I am now recovering and expect to be at large again tomorrow.

I am ashamed of

Account

10th July 1911

writing such wretched letters but I hope you will forgive me this week

Yours lovingly

Ralph