

4874

Alleswood
Wimbledon
S.W.

3rd April 1892

My dearest Pippa

I hope you ~~have~~ recovered from your dissipations of last Thursday.
Did you enjoy yourself? Was Davis there? If he was, I hope you didn't snub him quite so hopelessly as last time.
The bell has rung ages ago but I am resolved to write a letter to you because I have been reading Jean de la Roche all day instead of writing my letters. Could you delicately hint to someone that I have not got a son and that expenses accumulate at the end of the term. I know I am very wicked but as I am also very penitent I hope my sins will be forgiven me.

I will write again on

Wednesday

Farewell.

Pernie.