I delightfully with find your paper for the summer and have especially so I think I have heard very soon I require the name of the Institution the name of the person who is in charge of it and the name of the place where it is held. I should be very glad to hear from you when I sent you the name of the person who is in charge of it and the name of the place where it is held. I Artistic, sensible & with thoroughly good business habits. & a kind & gentle heart to feel for others besides. I neither want her to the home to slip through my fingers You will see from the list I have collected nearly 500 £. one of my business guarantees me 50 £ - more if it is necessary.

So if Miss Pette will undertake the affair I shall venture to take the home - She proposes for this of taking in of course all the Art. Students that will come & then to fill it with others, who must take rooms conditionally, promising to turn out as students & offer themselves for admittance. Her idea is to accept the money as a loan to be repaid as quickly as possible. & then if the Exhibition appears to let it be used in Exhibition for calculated to be for Artists At the Milan Home I will collect all the particulars & can when I am there & by & bye I hope I shall have the still greater delight of sending you details of the working of our Home in Rome. I want to make it a useful centre of artistic work of all sorts, Miss Pette the lady whom I am trying to tempt out there is first rank in designing. & up to all sorts of remunerative work for women.

There seems such a sphere of useful work ready for one there, oh! for the the wisdom to do it as wisely & well as possible. I send you the last No.
of the Crucial. I wish Mrs. Cinn to make it more like J. Gazette she makes it so severely dull that people will not read it. When I see her in Rome I must make another effort to make it more practically useful. I know she will be very glad to exchange papers with you. But Mr. Am. I wish write from Rome - J. Little papers & the J. Book of works I showed to a Mr. Fisher & daughter of Cobden. She was
