

And Can't 230
TELEPHONE, 1856 VICTORIA.

Platform
Textiles

12, WILLIAM STREET,
LOWNDES SQUARE.

June 23<sup>d</sup>

AL/2773

Dear Miss Strachey

I have just got your letter forwarded from Manchester - one of the Lancashire & Cheshire Representation Comtee are in London and it seems

~~not~~

I am sorry to say that we could ~~hardly~~ hardly arrange at such short notice to bring 2 delegates from their work in Lancashire

Just for the sake of being present at the meeting. If however you & Society would care to have a short speech from the

in distant point of view I would telegraph at once to Miss Reddish on my own responsibility and ask her to come and do it, As this arrangement has often been made in the past I trust it would meet the wishes of my Committee who are always discussing to bring forward the freedom business their own members suffer from

in industry through being disfranchised. If there is the last chance of this arrangement - sitting on Committee, would you perhaps ring me up on the telephone so that I may wire to Miss Reddish?
Yours truly
W. A. Goultsorth

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

74