

April 19.
1914.

RAIL. KNEBORTH. G.N.R.
TELEGRAMS, KNEBORTH.

AL/3631

HOMWOOD,

KNEBORTH,

HERTS.

Dear Miss Robbins,

First I must say what probably you already know, that Kitty Marion is free at last, her 4 months - or very nearly that - of feeding by force is over. Tho' her health be broken for life. I don't know if you were able to do anything or not - in any case I thank you for your intention. And now

I must thank you - tho' I don't know how - for what you wrote in Votes for Women on my book. It is most wonderfully said and will make many people feel the life
force of the women's movement
as I in my book could not.

But my job in going to prison was a very small thing.

Tho', like our other women, I gave my all. Jane Warton did good, was of use, for a very little time, and then the whole thing was done
again on the top of political lying and pledge-breaking and it has been more in extent.
Jane Warton counted the hours & wandered each time how she would

19. 4-14

This is to be written. It is splendidly

our always most sincerely and affectionately to our friends

5 days

I have had a little longer or would not have left you so long without would bear it again. Her share of trial & suffering was always infinitesimal. Now Kitty Marion has borne it for 4 months!

I, by sacrificing my name, risked that it would make a tremendous difference in the way they treated me. The others - 35 in my day probably 100 or more by now - knew they would have the worst treatment from the first.

I would explain all this very clearly to you again, but I must also thank you very deeply in the name of all those who have experienced