

Dearest Everybody Recd 10 IV 174051

I am getting on fairly. Have no head aches now. I'd like want you to tell me all the outside news you can. We simply pined for it. Mr. Parkhurst has gone so no one had a newspaper & it is only through one or two that have visitors - & those very few that we hear a word. When the lady who is allowed to receive from here with the ordinary prisoners has gone we shall be grubbed off from the world - at least as far as the Hospital is concerned. There are a good many going out soon. Mrs Gatty, Mrs. Seagrave is in the new bed room. There is an article from Barnett very interesting & we have had a series. I have got my ketchy - I don't know if you receive my letters. It is inordinately why the Spas place the to. You are not father's grates but they have an office, always with us with duty of it to report all we say & do Anything of importance to report to the Government. All of us say we shall be in again soon & that as a protest against 2 months for 3/- damage. We will have a row for our money.

at two years if necessary. All the remarks which are reported from prison will make the fr. know if they did not know before that they had not done well.
The Dr. came yesterday & said you know you are spending the best part of the year in prison. I am quite content I am in a good cause. The great world will justify me. What they must begin to realize if they never did before. Most of are face to face with a stone wall.
Every woman makes the same kind of remarks. & you can see all the are put up to see me if we don't think that will be the end.

I am so thankful to things of the dear children as well and happy. - my mind is quite calm about outside things. & the weeks will soon pass With love to Tom the dear children I am, Sir, your friend & all my dear friends
Yours truly
John Dells

London
14th Nov 1844
D. Dells

(337)