

4866.

ALLENSWOOD,

WIMBLEDON PARK,

LONDON.

Oct 28th 1891

My dear Pippa

I hope you are quite well. Did you get home all right on Sunday without losing Papa's umbrella? On Monday evening Miss Corry recited "Papa's letter"; when she first got up I felt that she was going to recite that one poem of all others that I abhor. She also did "Aunt-hair" sticking out all Pullet's Best Bonnet all round his head like in one continuous drone. St Struelpeter. We had was very trying. yesterday very good places in the Miss Boyce took some of balcony. I did not see us to Paderewski's con. any friends; of course cert. He plays beautifully; I only looked in the have you heard him? stalls. Is anything wrong Really I think you should with Dorothy? I thought go & hear him. He played she looked rather knocked the Bee's wedding sweetly up on Tuesday. Give berry was encored ^{3 times}. He is a love. Berthe tells me to very curious looking indi tell you you are a vidual with bright red quaint sight & also sends you her love. I wrote to Oliver on Sunday but of course ~~they~~ he hasn't answered yet, I am drawing St Cecilia. We have finished the first act of Wallenstein's Tod.

We spent at least an hour last night over two lines How jolly that the execution is so close.

your loving
Pen.