

AL/2264

CALDENE,
3, BRACKEN ROAD,
BOURNEMOUTH.

Aug 29th

My dear Fairy.

I hope you are every enjoying your little stay. I think your mother is going on all right. This is to send love to her both & to say I leave here on Sept. 3rd & going to my old quarters at - for a bit X. temporary til I find some corner in London & I intend to be no longer an exile. Tom old Jerry has been very bad indeed from the effects of having all her teeth out. She remains here with her (sister) who is devoted to her.

My address will be the place

Elmleigh

St. Comm

for a bit X

Yours.

I hope to see you before long either at - or maybe later

BORNE MOUTH
3 BRACKEN ROAD
CALDEN

or here. I am going to try & find rooms or something in Holly Hill Gate - near Mr Henderson, but it will take time. I must go now, but shall write.
I am sure determined to end my exile wherever
I appear. I am delighted by the prospect.

Yours truly,

John Galsworthy

J. H.

FAWCETT LIBRARY
27 WILFRED STREET
LONDON, S.W.1.

8348