LUCKNOW HOUSE,

TIDWORTH.

Sunday

My dear Pippa

I enclose cheque for Ellen's wages from 7th Jan^y to 7th Feb^y, as shown on your slip attached.

If she has already been paid this by Mamma please return me the cheque & I will add the amount to the rest of the charges paid out of her money, the total of which will be passed first of Probate.

If, however, Ellen has not had the money already, please stick a penny stamp on the slip & get her to ~~ret~~ sign on it as received & then return it to me.

Have you been able to find out whether there are any more bills chargeable against the estate, & whether the builder man's is correct? Fane, Foster say it will take some time to make their's out, so will I send them the statement of account without it, & they will put that in when ready. Of course I won't complete the affair ^{finding out} without ~~seeing~~ first that their account is correct.

How is Mamma?

I shall probably come up to town for Tuesday & Wednesday nights the 14th & 15th. If so can I be taken in at Stampstead?

No particular news here, except that the wind is very cold.

Yours affec^{te} brother

Dick

P.S. Enclosed letter from Harry may be destroyed when read.
