My dearest Amy,

I have just got home from 23 meetings in 43 days and am starting again 1 day.
So please forgive a very hurried line. I am almost as fast an enthusiast for Northumberland as you are.

It is a most beautiful country. I long to go back there. I have only just seen enough to make me wish for more. Your books were invaluable. Let us know if ever you want to borrow them either for yourself or any of your friends. I have not heard from Ellen very lately. I hope she is beginning to pick up strength. The journey to Hidenburgh evidently revealed to her how very weak she was: but I suppose that was to be expected.

You have had a busy time.

Much love from us all

Ever your loving

M. J. Sawrath
