Dearest Amy,

So very many thanks for three things, remembering my birthday, your delightful letter & charming present. I am rejoicing in them all. I think you have a gift for nice presents. They are always things L. is treasured and enjoyed.

We are very interested to hear that Jack is to go to Cambridge and to take a course in Agriculture. I believe that is particularly good at Cambridge. What a delight and blessing that you have him safely at home & that he has done such good service during the war and also that he has thrown himself enthusiastically into the life & work of Bedales on his return. He will help L. "build Jerusalem in England green & pleasant land".

I am just beginning to write a continuation of my little history of W. S. I wrote this in 1911 and I want to write an account of the developments between that date &
Feb 6. 1918! With ever so much love from us both Yours ever lovingly M. G. Fawcett

Ellen came to see us yesterday. She had been spending her week-end in her country with Mr & Mrs Herbert-Baker and was looking very well.

LOVE...
