Dear Miss Ward,

I am sorry not to be able to come to the Special Meeting on Monday, as though my Mother is astonishing her doctors by her good recovery, I do not like to be far from home whilst she is in our care, I venture therefore to make a few suggestions by writing.

R. Smith
My husband's friend Mr. J. Barratt is the Hon. Treasurer of the ^{New} Chesterton Girls Club, Hornerton (Miss C. Black runs the Club) there are about 100 members, most at present working over time, but if we could tell them their fare would be paid & seats reserved for them all together, I think we might possibly get twenty there.

I should think the fare would be about 4^d - or 6^d - each. If you would kindly let me know about this I will speak to some of the members of the committee.

Then about the Post-Office. I think we might see little bands of 10 or 12^(possibly more) from three or four of the Departments if they could have reserved seats together, but I do not quite see that they could be called "Industrial" working women, so could seats be kept for them in the Grand Circle?

Mrs. Holyoake Marsh, 3 Brambledown Crown Hill, N. is in close touch with the Co-operative Movement, She is the daughter of G. J. Holywell, who was practically the founder of it, & if you could interest her possibly she could help a good deal; I think she would do anything that Miss Clementina Black asked her.

Q. S. Miss Boileau, 33 Regent's Park Rd N.W. formerly a member of our Committee now W. S. L. used to be in ^{touch} with a Girls' Club might help.

R. S. Miss Margaret Seekings, one of our present Committee, Hon. Sec. to a Girls Club I have written to ask her if possible to attend on Monday, should she not do so you might care to write direct to her at 6 Brookfield

West Hill
Highgate N.

Am so sorry not to be able to help personally in this, but when my Mother is well enough to leave us, I shall probably go abroad for a month for rest & change, so shall not be of any use till July.

Mr. Rand is sorry she is engaged on Monday, but will keep interest the G.P.O. lady-clerks, my Co. Sec. Miss J. ~~Thomas~~ Wallace hopes to attend the meeting.

Very truly yours

Augusta P. Harrington

Please forgive this very untidy letter,
I have had to write so hurriedly.
