Dearest Mama,

I arrived here at about 6:45. P.M. after a three hour's journey. There was a very short wait at Culborough, but at Ghorsham we had nearly an hour.

At half past seven I had supper, and then I did a few verses, helped by Mr Chalmers. On Thursday I was told to do Greek Prose. I did for three hours in the morning. I was asked if I wanted to join the choir, I said I did, and was told to go at two. At 2 P.M. we had a practice of singing.

From 3 to 5 I continued Greek Exercises. And in the evening for 'home-work' I did two hours more. On Friday after luncheon I went to Rose's. I did Greek all the morning and after-noon, but was allowed to do verses in the evening.
There is no work on Satur-days. But I had to do.

gymnastics from 10 to 10.45.

Then I went with Louis Paul (in his bath-chair) to the Earl's Court Exhibition where we saw Africans cooking their dinner. In the afternoon

I went again and went out with Rose to tea with some friends of hers. To-day I went to church and ~~the~~ spent the afternoon and had tea with Rose.

2
I have a half-holiday on Monday: viz. I do no work in the afternoon, but have to do some athletic exercise.

I am very glad that Captain Dreyfus is free, though ~~it~~ it is abominably impertinent to "pardon" him.

Have you found Arnold's Greek Book? I have been

Lent one for the time.

With love to all,

Good bye
your loving son
James.
