The Government Statistical Service

A service of statistical information and advice is provided to the Government by specialist staffs employed in the statistics division of individual Departments. Statistics are made generally available through their publications and further information and advice on them can be obtained from the Departments concerned.

Enquiries about statistics in this publication should be made to the Business Statistics Office, Cardiff Road, Newport, Gwent, NPT 1XG

SUMMARY TABLES

NOTES

1 This Business Monitor presents summary detail of the Census of Production for 1973, at establishment and enterprise level. Comparative data for 1970–1972 is given in establishment tables 1, 2 and 5. Where revised figures have become available since the publication of the separate industry Monitors for 1973, the opportunity has been taken to include them in these summary tables. The Census of Production for 1973 is the fourth of the annual series, which forms part of a system of industrial statistics which was mainly brought into operation between 1970 and 1973. The rest of the system comprises selected monthly inquiries into manufacturers' sales, orders and production, quarterly inquiries into the product sales of manufacturing industries and less frequent inquiries into additional subjects including details of purchases of goods and services by industry. The complete system replaces the series of Censuses of Production conducted at roughly five year intervals and a much less comprehensive system of short-period inquiries operated by several different government departments. These notes give the main information needed for interpreting the figures: more detailed information about the census is given in a separate Business Monitor - PA1001 (Introductory Notes), Report on the Census of Production 1973.

2 Suppression of information relating to individual undertakings

The summary tables have been prepared in conformity with the disclosure provisions of the Statistics of Trade Act, 1947. In order to avoid disclosing information about individual undertakings it has in some cases not been possible to publish information in the full detail in which it was collected.

3 Symbols used

The following symbols are used throughout the PA series of Business Monitors:

.. not available

— nil or less than half the final digit shown

* figures cannot be shown owing to the risk of disclosing information about individual enterprises

R revised

4 Rounding of figures

Figures in the tables have, where necessary, been rounded to the nearest final digit. There may, therefore, be an apparent slight discrepancy between a sum of constituent items and a total shown.

5 Order and higher aggregation

Where no footnote is given against an Order or higher aggregation the reader should nevertheless refer to and take into account any notes given against the industries which constitute that Order or Orders which constitute a higher aggregation.

6 Industrial Classification

The United Kingdom SIC was first issued in 1948 and revised in 1958 and 1968. It exists to promote uniformity and comparability in the official statistics of the United Kingdom. The general principles followed are those of the International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities of the United Nations Statistical Office but the United Kingdom SIC, reflects the organisation and structure of industry and trade as it exists in the United Kingdom. The SIC is a classification by activity and is not a commodity classification. However, an index of all commodity headings for which sales data are provided in the Quarterly Business Monitors is published as PQ1000 in the Business Monitor series.

7 Statistical Units

The statistical unit for the purpose of a census is the establishment defined in the SIC as the smallest unit which can provide the information normally required for an economic census, for example, employment, expenses, turnover, capital formation. Sometimes activities which are conducted as a single business are carried on at a number of addresses. Where this is so, businesses are asked to provide the full range of separate information in respect of each address, whether or not the activities are different. Their activities may, however, be integrated to such an extent that they constitute a single establishment. In that case the establishment is defined to cover the combined activities at these addresses (termed local units). Separate figures are obtained, however, of employment and net capital expenditure at each unit. For certain purposes in the annual censuses of production, such as the enterprise analyses in this Business Monitor, related establishments are combined. For these purposes an enterprise group is defined as a business consisting of either a single establishment, or of two or more establishments under common ownership or control. The bringing together of establishments into enterprise groups is also necessary for the purpose of ensuring that there will be no disclosure of the activities of any one enterprise group.

8 Coverage

The censuses for 1970 to 1973 covered United Kingdom establishments engaged in manufacturing, mining and quarrying, electricity, gas and water supply (Orders II–XIX and XXI of the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968)(SIC)). A return was required in the 1973 census from each establishment with 20 or more employees.

TERMS USED IN THE CENSUS REPORT

9 Average number employed

Establishments were required to state the number of persons on the payroll on the average during the year of return, whether full-time or part-time employees. Separate figures were required for:

- a. Administrative, technical and clerical employees
- b. All other employees (operatives)

Averages could be calculated from the figures relating to the last week of each calendar month. Establishments were also required to state the number of working proprietors where appropriate and these are included in total employment figures. Outworkers (i.e. persons employed by establishments who worked in their own homes, etc. on materials supplied by the establishment) are excluded. The figures include persons engaged on merchanting or factoring and canteen workers where particulars in respect of these activities could not be excluded from the return.

10 Working proprietors

These include all persons regarded as "self employed" for national insurance purposes and members of their families who worked in the business without receiving a wage or salary; but such persons who worked less than half the normal number of working hours are excluded. Directors working in the business but not in receipt of a definite wage, salary or commission are included under this heading: directors paid by fee only are not included.

11 Employees

Administrative, technical and clerical employees include directors in receipt of a definite wage, salary or commission, managers, superintendents and works foremen; research, design employees (other than operatives); draughtsmen, editorial staff, advertising staff, travellers and all office employees.

Operatives include all other classes of employees, that is, broadly speaking, all manual wage earners. They include operatives employed in power stations, transport (including roundsmen) warehouses, stores, shops and canteens, inspectors, maintenance workers and cleaners. Operatives engaged in outside work of erecting, fitting, etc. are also included, but outworkers are excluded.

12 Capital expenditure

Capital expenditure during the year in respect of manufacturing units where production had not started before the end of the year is included in the figures for 1970 to 1973. Establishments were asked not to deduct from the value of capital expenditure amounts received or expected to be received in grants or allowances from the government or any statutory body or local authority. From 1973 onwards establishments with 100 or more employees were also asked to include a total net capital expenditure figure for each calendar year.

a. New building work.

This represents the cost incurred during the year of new building and other constructional work to be used in connection with the business covered by the return. The value is that charged to capital account during the year of return; it includes expenditure on new buildings and on the extension or reconstruction of old buildings, the value of works of a capital nature carried out by the establishment's own staff and the cost of any newly constructed buildings purchased. Figures shown include any legal charges, stamp duties, agents commissions, etc.

b. Land and existing buildings

The items shown are the capital cost of freeholds purchased and the capital cost or premium payable for leaseholds acquired (excluding the value of any assets acquired in taking over an existing business), and the amounts receivable for any freeholds or leaseholds disposed of. The value is that charged to capital account during the year of return.

c. Plant, machinery and vehicles

The items shown are the value of plant and machinery and of vehicles acquired, both new and second-hand, and the amount received for items disposed of during the year. The value of plant and machinery acquired includes plant, etc., which firms produced for their own use in connection with the business covered by the return. The value of plant, etc. acquired is the expenditure charged to capital account during the year of return less any discounts received, but including the cost of transport and installation. Deductible value added tax is excluded but non-deductible value added tax on motor cars acquired is included. No deduction is made for depreciation, amortization or obsolescence. The proceeds of items disposed of during the year exclude amounts written off for items scrapped.

13 Cost of industrial services

Includes amounts payable to other firms for work done on materials, supplied by the establishment, payment for repairs and maintenance (including those in respect of rented buildings) and amounts paid to other firms for contracts which have been sublet. Payments to outworkers are excluded.

14 Cost of non-industrial services

Includes rent of industrial buildings and capital equipment, commercial insurance premiums, bank charges and amounts paid for professional services, postal etc. services, transport, advertising etc. Amounts payable on royalties for the right to use patents, trademarks, copyrights, etc., manufacturing and quarrying rights and technical "know-how" are also included. Rents of buildings, etc., commercial insurance premiums and bank charges were collected for 1973 onwards only.

15 Gross output

In the calculation of gross output the value of total sales and work done is increased by the rise (or reduced by the fall) during the year in the value of work in progress and goods on hand for sale.

16 Net output

Net output, a customary census measure, is calculated by deducting from gross output the cost of purchases (reduced by the rise, or increased by the fall, during the year of stocks of materials etc.) and the cost of industrial services received, and where applicable, duties, etc.

17 Net output per head

The figures of net output per head are derived by dividing the net output by the average number of persons employed (full and part-time) on all activities covered by the returns, including operatives, administrative, technical and clerical employees and working proprietors, but excluding outworkers.

18 Gross value added at factor cost

Gross value added at factor cost is calculated by deducting from net output the cost of non-industrial services (e.g. rent of buildings and capital equipment, commercial insurance premiums, bank charges and amounts paid for professional services, post office services, transport and advertising), rates (excluding water rates) and the cost of licensing motor vehicles. This estimate of gross value added approaches more closely than census net output to the definition of net output or value added in national accounts statistics.

19 Gross value added at factor cost per head

The figures of gross value added at factor cost per head are derived by dividing the gross value added by the average number of persons employed (full and part-time) on all activities covered by the returns, including operatives, administrative, technical and clerical employees and working proprietors, but excluding outworkers.

20 Purchases

Purchases include the cost of raw materials, components, semi-manufactured goods and workshop materials; of replacement parts and consumable tools not charged to capital account; of packaging materials of all types; of stationery and printed matter; of fuel, electricity and water; of materials to be used by the establishment or given out to other establishments for the production of machinery or other capital items for the establishment's own use; of materials for use by the establishment when working on goods supplied by customers; and of food, etc. for any canteen covered by the establishment's return. Transfers of goods to the establishment from another department of the same firm not covered by the establishment's return are included at a cost corresponding to the estimated selling value recorded by the other department. Amounts payable to transport firms or credited to the firm's own transport department for delivery of materials are excluded, as are all purchases of machinery and plant charged to capital account. Purchases of goods for merchanting or factoring have been collected separately for 1973. The values shown exclude VAT. They include, in addition to the actual purchase price, the value of packaging material charged to the establishment. The value of returned goods or packaging material returned to suppliers and any trade discounts are excluded. Materials purchased duty paid are included at their duty-paid value, less any drawback, rebate, etc. The cost of transport is included only if it is included with the purchase price in the firm's accounts. Imported goods are included at their full delivered cost. If in the firm's accounts the transport from docks or airport is not included in the cost of goods purchased, the cost is entered at c.i.f. plus duty (if applicable). Leasing, renting and hire-purchase charges are excluded.

21 Sales of goods produced, work done and industrial services rendered

Sales for the purposes of the annual censuses mean deliveries on sale of goods made by establishments in the United Kingdom covered by the inquiry. Sales of goods made for these establishments by outworkers or by other establishments from materials given out to them are included; as are also sales of waste products. Any new building work and machinery or other capital items produced by establishments for their own use, for hiring out or leasing are regarded as sales, the value in the return being that adopted in the establishment's capital assets accounts. Forward sales and canteen takings are excluded. All sales in the period of the inquiry are included irrespective of when the goods were manufactured. Goods produced in one establishment and transferred either to ancillary departments not engaged in production and for which there are separate accounts, or to another establishment of the same firm not covered by the return, are treated as sales by the producing establishment and valued as far as possible as if they had been sold to an independent purchaser. Goods transferred to wholesale or retail selling organisations, for which separate accounts are kept, are valued on the same basis. The value shown for sales is the "net selling value", defined as the amount (excluding value added tax) charged to customers whether on an ex-works or delivered basis, after any trade discounts and agents' commissions have been deducted. The cost of packing materials less allowance for returnable cases is included. In industries where products attract Excise Duty the value stated is usually inclusive of duty if sold duty-paid and exclusive of duty if sold in bond or exported. Figures for work done represent the amount charged for work carried out on materials supplied by a customer and include repair work. Within certain industries this heading covers a wide variety of activities. For example, within the food sector - butter packed on commission; within the textile industries - making up of garments, fur dressing and textile finishing; within printing and publishing - preparatory work on type-setting, block making and binding. Work done is also significant in the electrical machinery and heavy engineering industries, covering erection, installation and repair and jobbing work. Other activities within this heading include exploration work, research and development, glass cutting and dressing and planing of timber. Industrial services rendered includes repairs and maintenance, installation work and technical research and studies rendered to other organisations.

22 Non-industrial services rendered

Includes rents received for commercial and industrial buildings, amounts charged for hiring out plant, machinery and other goods and amounts charged to other organisations for the provision of transport. Also includes amounts received for the right to use patents, trademarks, copyrights, etc., manufacturing and quarrying rights and technical "know-how", revenue from such staff facilities as canteens is also included.

23 Goods merchanted or factored

Merchanted goods are those (excluding canteen sales) sold without having been subjected to any manufacturing process by the seller.

24. Stocks and work in progress

Values are given of stocks of goods on hand for sale and of materials, stores and fuel at the end of the year of return and of the change during the year, including any stocks of goods held for merchanding or factoring.

Work in progress is defined as materials which have been partially processed by the establishment but which are not usually sold or transferred to another establishment without further processing. The values include the cost of materials consumed and labour used, together with a margin for overhead costs and profits. Progress payments made to sub-contractors are excluded and progress payments received from other organisations are not deducted.

25 Wages and salaries

These are amounts paid during the year to operatives and to administrative, technical and clerical employees. Payments to working proprietors, whether called salaries or not, are excluded. The values shown include all overtime payments, bonuses and commissions, whether paid regularly or not, and no deduction is made for income tax, insurances, contributory pensions, etc. The value of redundancy payments, less any amounts reimbursed from government sources, is included. The value of any payments in kind, travelling expenses, etc. is excluded.

26 Remuneration paid to outworkers

The remuneration paid to outworkers (i.e. persons employed by the establishment who do their work in their own homes) is generally on a piece-work basis. Only amounts paid to outworkers whose names appear on the establishment's payroll are included. Amounts paid to outworkers by sub-contractors are excluded.

27 Employers' national insurance contributions

This item includes employers' contributions to national insurance and graduated pensions (and/or earnings related basic contributions under the Social Security Act, 1973), as well as commercial insurance premiums to provide pensions, superannuation or other retirement benefits, sickness benefits, personal accident benefits, disability or death benefits for employees or former employees or their dependents. Contributions to the running costs of canteens, social centres, children's holiday homes, etc. for employees, former employees and their dependents are also included.

28 Assisted Areas

Assisted Areas are areas of high labour supply for which government grants and other help is available. They comprise Special Development Areas, Development Areas, Intermediate Areas and Derelict Land Clearance Areas.

- (a) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.
- (b) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list heading (MLH) and, if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.
- (c) The term enterprise is used in this Report to mean one or more establishments under common ownership or control.
- (d) Number of enterprises engaged in each industry. The sum of these figures is greater than the total number of enterprises since some enterprises are engaged in more than one industry.
- (e) The figures for 1970-1972 do not include receipts for repairs and maintenance.
- (f) The figures for 1970-1972 do not include revenue from rents for industrial buildings.
- (g) The figures for 1970-1972 exclude the amounts payable for repairs and maintenance.
- (h) Including persons engaged in merchanting or factoring (where particulars in respect of these activities could not be excluded from the returns) and working proprietors, but excluding outworkers.
- (j) Not collected for 1970-1972 except for amounts payable to other organisations for transport of goods within the United Kingdom.
- (k) Not available for 1970-1972.
- (l) Excluding MLH 104 — Petroleum and natural gas.
- (m) Great Britain only.
- (n) Particulars of opencast production, farms, etc. are excluded.
- (o) The following non-manufacturing industries give information, not for establishments, but for statistical units described as undertakings:-
Coal mining (the number of colliery units for administrative and accounting purposes exclusive of any mines not in active production. In some cases these undertakings comprise more than one mine).

- (p) Excluding the value of all colliery consumption of coal.
- (q) Figures relate to the cost of materials and fuel used and exclude the value of all colliery consumption of coal.
- (r) Sales of products are valued at ex-quarry (ex-mine) or ex-works prices.
- (s) Including cost of outward transport on goods sold.
- (t) Figures for merchant goods are included in sales of goods produced and work done.
- (u) Sales are generally valued at open market prices f.o.b. in the Gulf of Mexico plus current rates of freight and insurance to the United Kingdom, and purchases of feedstock are valued at open market prices f.o.b. at the port of origin plus current rates of freight and insurance to the United Kingdom. The size of net output is largely determined by methods of valuation.
- (v) Casual employees (jobbers) have been excluded from the employment data used in calculating net output per head and gross value added per head.
- (w) Excluding gas undertakings.
- (x) Including sales of gas and other products, charges for work done, meter rents received and work of new construction.
- (y) Including sales of electricity, by-products and waste products, charges for work done and meter rents received.
- (z) Value of water supplied, work done for which a direct charge was made and work of new construction.

Footnotes to Table 1a

- (a) The definition of net output was changed for 1973 and later censuses. For earlier years, amounts payable to other organisations for transport of goods within the United Kingdom were deducted in the calculation of net output: also figures for 1970-72 did not reflect revenue from rents for industrial buildings or amounts payable for repairs and maintenance.
- (b) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.
- (c) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list heading (MLH) and, if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.
- (d) Including persons engaged in merchandising or factoring and canteen workers (where particulars in respect of these activities could not be excluded from the returns) and working proprietors, but excluding outworkers.
- (e) Excluding MLH 104 — Petroleum and natural gas.
- (f) Great Britain only.
- (g) Casual employees (jobbers) have been excluded from the employment data used in calculating net output per head.

(a) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.

(b) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list heading (MLH) and, if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.

(c) Average number employed (full and part-time) during the year (including working proprietors) by the establishment.

(d) Administrative, technical and clerical employees.

(e) Includes employers' national insurance contributions, graduated pensions, contributions to other pensions and welfare schemes and the running costs of canteens. Figures are not available for 1970 - 1972.

(f) Excluding MLH 104 - Petroleum and natural gas.

(g) Great Britain only.

- (a) The index of specialisation for an industry is the ratio of total sales of principal products by the industry to total sales of goods produced and work done.
- (b) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list heading (MLH) and, if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.
- (c) The indices for 1963 and 1968 are not directly comparable with 1973 owing to changes in the method of industrial classification.
- (d) The index for 1973 excludes establishments classified to MLH 341 (3) — Process plant engineering contractors.

- (a) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.
- (b) Capital expenditure in respect of establishments where production had not commenced before the end of the year, is included.
- (c) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list heading (MLH) and, if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.
- (d) New building work plus acquisitions less disposals of land and existing buildings, vehicles and plant and machinery.
- (e) Excluding MLH 104 – Petroleum and natural gas.
- (f) Great Britain only.
- (g) New building work plus acquisitions less disposals of land and existing buildings.

- (a) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.
- (b) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968).
- (c) Average number employed (full and part-time) during the year (including working proprietors) by the establishment.
- (d) New building work plus acquisitions less disposals of land and existing buildings, vehicles and plant and machinery. Capital expenditure in respect of establishments where production had not commenced before the end of the year, is included.

- (e) Where a census return covered addresses in two or more regions an estimate was made of the net output attributable to the region only where more than 80 per cent of the establishment's employees were located in the region. The estimate was made by assuming that net output at each address covered by a return was proportionate to employment at the address. Residual net output which could not be allocated under the above-mentioned-rule, has been distributed between regions in proportion to the number of employees in each region whose net output has been included in the residual.

- (a) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.
- (b) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list heading (MLH) and if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.
- (c) Average number employed (full and part-time) during the year (including working proprietors) by the establishment.
- (d) New building work plus acquisitions less disposals of land and existing buildings, vehicles and plant and machinery. Capital expenditure in respect of establishments where production had not commenced before the end of the year, is included.

Net capital expenditure (d)

Net output and employment in Scotland of establishments with more than 80 per cent of their employment in Scotland (e)

- (e) Where a census return covered addresses in two or more regions an estimate was made of the net output attributable to Scotland only where more than 80 per cent of the establishment's employees were located in Scotland. The estimate was made by assuming that net output at each address covered by a return was proportionate to employment at the address. Estimates of net output for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for small establishments are not distributed among Scottish figures.
- (f) Excluding MLH 104 — Petroleum and natural gas.

- (a) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.
- (b) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list heading (MLH) and if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.
- (c) Average number employed (full and part-time) during the year (including working proprietors) by the establishment.
- (d) New building work plus acquisitions less disposals of land and existing buildings, vehicles and plant and machinery. Capital expenditure in respect of establishments where production had not commenced before the end of the year, is included.

- (e) Where a census return covered addresses in two or more regions an estimate was made of the net output attributable to Wales only where more than 80 per cent of the establishment's employees were located in Wales. The estimate was made by assuming that net output at each address covered by a return was proportionate to employment at the address. Estimates of net output for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for small establishments are not distributed among Welsh figures.
- (f) Excluding MLH 104 — Petroleum and natural gas.

- (a) The term enterprise is used in this Report to mean one or more establishments under common ownership or control.
- (b) Including estimates for establishments not making satisfactory returns and for establishments exempted by virtue of size.
- (c) References to Orders are to those in the Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968). Industry code numbers indicate the minimum list headings (MLH) and, if appropriate, a sub-division of a minimum list heading. For industries covering two or more sub-divisions, the sub-divisions are given in brackets.
- (d) Some enterprises control establishments in more than one industry: an enterprise can, therefore, appear in different size groups according to the level of analysis.
- (e) Average number employed (full and part-time) during the year (including working proprietors) by the establishment.
- (f) Administrative, technical and clerical employees.
- (g) Including sales of goods merchanted or factored, and services rendered.
- (h) Gross value added data for size group 1-99 is included in the following size group.
- (j) New building work plus acquisitions less disposals of land and existing buildings, vehicles and plant and machinery. Capital expenditure in respect of establishments where production had not commenced before the end of the year, is included.
- (k) Excluding MLH 104 - Petroleum and natural gas.
- (l) Great Britain only.

- (m) Particulars of opencast coal production, farms, canteens etc. are excluded.
- (n) The following non-manufacturing industries give information, not for establishments, but for statistical units described as undertakings:-
- Coal mining (the number of colliery units for administrative and account purposes exclusive of any mines not in active production. In some cases these undertakings comprise more than one mine).
- Gas
- Electricity
- Water supply
- (o) The value shown for stocks at the end of the year relates only to goods on hand for sale.
- (p) It has been necessary to show information for other than the five largest enterprises in order to avoid the possibility of disclosure of information relating to individual enterprises.
- (q) Casual employees (jobbers) have been excluded from the employment data used in calculating net output per head and gross value added per head.
- (r) Excluding gas undertakings.
- (s) Value of water supplied, work done for which a direct charge was made, and work of new construction.

- (e) Where a census return covered addresses in two or more regions an estimate was made of the net output attributable to the region only where more than 80 per cent of the establishment's employees were located in the region. The estimate was made by assuming that net output at each address covered by a return was proportionate to the employment at the address. The establishment's residual net output is shown as unallocated net output.

Regional Classification

The list below gives definitions of the countries of the United Kingdom and of the regions of England.

Area coding of establishments in the Census of Production, 1973 was based on areas defined by the Department of Employment. These conform to the standard regions for statistical purposes as defined by the Central Statistical Office in agreement with other Government Departments. Regions coincide with those used for economic planning, before 1 April 1974.

The boundaries of the Economic Planning Regions in England were adjusted on 1 April 1974 to take account of local government re-organisation under the Local Government Act, 1972. It has been decided that the standard regions for statistical purposes will coincide with the revised Economic Planning Regions.

As this summary volume contains data only for a year prior to the re-organisation, classification is in accord with the boundaries which existed before 1 April 1974.

Areas

North

Cumberland, Durham, Northumberland, Westmorland, and the North Riding of Yorkshire.

Yorkshire and Humberside

The East and West Ridings of Yorkshire (including City of York) and Lincolnshire (Parts of Lindsey excluding Lincoln C.B.)

East Midlands

Derbyshire (except the High Peak District, which is included in the North West Region), Leicestershire, Lincolnshire (Parts of Holland, Parts Kesteven and Lincoln C.B.), Northamptonshire (excluding the Soke of Peterborough, which is included in the East Anglia Region), Nottinghamshire and Rutland.

East Anglia

Cambridgeshire and the Isle of Ely, Huntingdonshire, Norfolk, the Soke of Peterborough and Suffolk.

South East

Bedfordshire, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Essex, Hampshire (including the Isle of Wight), Hertfordshire, Kent, London (Greater London Council Area), Oxfordshire, Surrey, Sussex and the Borough of Poole.

South West

Cornwall (including the Isles of Scilly), Devon, Dorset (excluding the Borough of Poole, which is included in the South East Region), Gloucestershire, Somerset and Wiltshire.

West Midlands

Herefordshire, Shropshire, Staffordshire, Warwickshire and Worcestershire.

North West

Cheshire, Lancashire and the High Peak District of Derbyshire (the Boroughs of Buxton and Glossop, the Urban Districts of New Mills and Whaley Bridge, and the Rural District of Chapel-en-le-Frith).

Wales

The whole of Wales.

Scotland

The whole of Scotland.

Northern Ireland

Antrim, Down, Armagh, Fermanagh, Tyrone, Londonderry, Belfast C.B., Londonderry C.B.
