I open to Day of 1939 on a note kept in.

I have thought of a new work, that would be the last work could be presented <sup>in one life time</sup> ~~in one life time~~. The Decay of Capitalist Civilization, a small book ~~of 100 pages~~ that we gave to L.

Debrau Souf - 1920. <sup>200 pages</sup> ~~with~~ to report to resume possession, then to 71

It had sold a first edition <sup>(1000 copies)</sup> ~~(1000 copies)~~ is now out of print. Why not make these 1000 copies the centerpiece of a new volume, into a prologue & an epilogue.

- the prologue describing the policy of the National Movement of Civilized life - a policy we developed & pushed fr. 1892-1912 culminating in the movement of L.H.C. - & the Epilogue summarizing the new civilization in the USSR. ~~the work~~

~~was to be a part of a series of books on the decay of civilization.~~

I submit to the suggestion of Sidney & he agrees. An additional reason for this new departure is that our income from books has <sup>very</sup> ~~declined~~ <sup>decreased</sup> ~~declined~~; the Soviet Communism has been ~~selling~~ <sup>selling</sup> ~~books~~ <sup>books</sup> (to USSR <sup>very</sup> ~~very~~ out of the way) which our expenses, owing to Sidney's illness, have considerably increased. Any way I might have a try at it?

It would be Our Testament: our conclusions about man's rebellion to man - it's just a word - on my heart about man's rebellion to Universe. "Why waste <sup>words</sup> on the Unmovable" Sidney says.

We listened on Wednesday evening to the World Forum broadcast President Roosevelt addressing all the nations of the world as to what is Right & what is Wrong in public affairs at home & abroad. Religion, Democracy, <sup>the acceptance of</sup> ~~international~~ Law are the three fundamental principles to good life.

By which terms he meant <sup>the</sup> Christian religion as distinguished from the Shintoism of Japan, the atheism of USSR

Orator, <sup>in voice & manner</sup>, he is self convinced of the rightness of his cause & the essential superiority of the American civilization over all other civilizations. His foreign policy was received with enthusiastic approval by <sup>the</sup> masses at Washington
- an approval which <sup>was</sup> ~~was~~ ~~not~~ ~~shared~~ ~~by~~ ~~the~~ ~~British~~ ~~Empire~~ ~~and~~ ~~the~~ ~~French~~ ~~Empire~~ ~~and~~ ~~the~~ ~~European~~ ~~States~~ possibility of future world state is not so constructed as his own shape of things to come. The Times Lettering Literary Supplement, sums it up as Imperial Latin-Fascist?

He repudiates liberalism & democracy & seems to indicate the one party system & a planned mental control. To the extent he agrees with Soviet regarding. But he gives no place to Multiform Democracy & completely ignores the need for popular participation, whether by political or trade union democracy, or by voluntary organizations for sport music art & science. As in his world-state there is no place for differences of language, culture, religion - there is only the Dictator into a group which he has selected. The final evil is the suspicion poisoning of this one Dictator by a halcyon spirit scientist, the ~~Dictator~~ <sup>the man</sup> has become a public nuisance: he has lost his head, & is ordered all his citizens to be shot.

She works & despises Soviet Communism & which is no less. The Hoag study of human complexity. I suppose by accident & interest

As chance would have it, I bumped into H. S. Wells yesterday in his lecture & listening pit in home in Harvard Library Reading Room.
 He had sat me to look at the story book & begged me to come & see him - he wants to know whether or not I intend to turn

The Ministry called here yesterday - they had driven out into the country to get some rest from the turmoil - just before they left to see the Ambassador he was called out by a friend, Cameron's friend - & informed of the Italian invasion of Albania (I had heard it was violated 12.2.8')

He shrugged his shoulders, when I asked him what he thought of it he said "What does Chamberlain expect? How do you people get into his head?" he asked me himself: "he has been proved to be disastrously wrong" "Why does the Conservative party continue to trust him?" He intimated that Mussolini did not trust him - if any doubt remained they would join a pact if he remained Premier. The British & French governments seem to him to be sliding down to slope into a war with Germany - Italy & Japan <sup>under</sup> to worst-possible terms. He dismissed the idea of a republic: ~~whether they were the cause of our disaster~~ ~~yielding up~~ they would have to support the general ~~point~~ when we came to work for nothing out of it for the workers. Even in the British, there would be revolution ~~and~~ if Germany were beaten she would go Communist - & Scandinavia would follow in a peaceful manner. If ~~Germany~~ <sup>France</sup> were victorious she would dictate to the rest of Europe. But <sup>eventually</sup> ~~eventually~~ she would be beaten & the world would be divided as living

~~There is a story...~~ There is <sup>very</sup> memory - of learned Country as all he stood for - of his deeds & life - Jean Pierre that. He was a very different man - one could not
 - he had an opposite set of values in all things a polite person; intellectually he had a certain contempt for each other. But he honored & we have learned <sup>as much</sup> from the last years of his life - one kindness - including to us - lifted his contempt for those intellectuals who did not share his opinion, & even tempered his own self-esteem. He was a great personality - irrefragable in all the fundamentals of moral character; an artist - delighting in all aspects of beauty, and a strong thinker with a natural flair & a stupendous memory - he could recite whole books of poetry - & was to do so in his solitary walks.
 Now he had a warm heart always ready to help his friends & relations. But he was not a great man - who will not live in history. The reason he lived was all antiquated; he could not adapt himself to the <sup>stream of thought</sup> present, nor persevere to future <sup>of social</sup> ~~of social~~ at least so thought his works. It is significant that John Moly was his most intimate friend, having mentioned ~~his books~~ learned in his various books. Witness it of the entire period of their close friendship. One wonders why? Was it snowed out or was a gathering of learned a party to learn he had not climbed to life of the past (in a historical view)

He was, considered his many gifts a strongly minded man; enjoying art & sound a life of leisure, enjoying art & sound interaction for his soul.

There is a practical living philosopher Havelock Ellis (writing April 22/1911) and is worth noting.

"A genuine philosopher's credo is the outcome of a simple complex personality, it cannot be transferred. No two persons, of similar, can have the same philosophy." H. E. states by Nietzsche suggests this & Mr. B. would recall earlier - he continues

"It is an unjustified to think another man's philosophy as It is amusingly proved to what has become: to make a theory, particularly in words of claiming, on the one hand the 8th century, & right of groups to govern themselves through mechanical ascertainment of majority of members without distinction on individual fr. another.

And the admission of human on account of their assumed of the Conservative Party - even to Cabinet. What has potential a to Clinton & Chamberlain refers into some of his finger hand. But Chamberlain believes himself to be the man of destiny appointed by God Almighty to bring the world peace. He still harbours open hatred for Russia & no Soviet alliance. about the future of world affairs, Stiffes passes a dark look of disquiet. Under one policy is drastically altered, there will be world-wide revolution. The British Empire does is played out: they have no settled policy except to resist any change in the control & distribution of the world's resources. There is no creed of rights wrong. Those of any people who are interested in public affairs, are either giving their assent - a comment. The Labour Party owing to the Dominion of the Trade Union Officials, into their hands, in doing so their intention to work with the Capitalist system, is paralyzed. Where <sup>etc etc</sup> ~~is~~ ~~the~~ ~~really~~ Stiffes is standing or moving in the political world, I could not make out. Why is he consulting with Conservative leaders? This conduct will not give him the confidence of former his second ~~hand~~ <sup>hand</sup>. He mentions, I say, the ISSUES AND MEN by Oswald Garrison Villard.

in "The Nation", Saturday July 8th, 1939.

News of an alarming character has reached me from sources of such importance that it has made a deep impression on me. I should like to believe that it is false, but the authorities for it are exceptionally well informed, especially in regard to the situation in France. It is to the effect that the recent intimations in the New York Times and other newspapers that there is another appeasement in the offing, with Poland as the victim this time instead of Czechoslovakia, are correct. Even the terms, I am told, have been agreed upon, and the determined efforts being made by England to mitigate them have not been successful. As the story runs, Hitler is to recover for Germany everything taken from it by the Treaty of Versailles - Danzig, the Corridor, Silesia, and Prussian Poland. Part of Poland is to go to Hungary, another part to Lithuania, while Russia is to get Bessarabia, and Germany another part of Rumania. It is a horrifying possibility, but there it is: If it becomes reality, Hitler will be master of Europe, and England and France will be left helplessly weak and isolated. That this plan is under way is said to be the reason why Russia is hesitating to sign up with France and England. Of course if Hitler should confer Bessarabia upon Russia, he would undoubtedly be able to conclude a non-aggression pact with Stalin and then a far-reaching commercial treaty as well.

Europe in the Eve (J. L. Schuman, Europa & Willentia) a clear & well documented account of the Diplomas of the BRD - France for 1930-38 devoted to a Scathing condemnation of the Western Democracies. His vivid dissection of Hitler's ends & means as to Alps into the Europe may fall a civilised world owing to the class fear of the spread of the class of Communism is perhaps a triple whammy. So far as the mention of USSR he implies that it is the most promising of the 21 Powers, which is internal support & foreign policy (he quotes one book, the way, on one of his sermons (unpublished) But he also has before the USSR - forecasts & his last chapter is a re-argument on some sort of socialist basis. The Kingdom of Debt & then looking to the USSR, the center of a new civilization. free from the demands of the leaders to capital & the Priesthood <sup>has spread, crushed</sup>. But to look on with before to change (horror of BRD & France) 1935 - if it has changed?

Judging by his evidence, to the Republic, <sup>the</sup> Republik, has been shaken to its foundations by the Communist Revolution.

A Study of Social Behavior, Smith, London, Thames & Hudson, a study of social institutions, but of individual psychology under modern conditions. It is odd that the present generation of social scientists will insist in ignoring social institutions: they only concern with the study of social institutions & the state in view of the individual & the individual in society.

There is a muddled account, drawn up <sup>2 sub m's</sup> of the reputation of the USSR - from the C.P. <sup>living</sup> ~~right~~ have up to 8 ft of clear analysis or lived experience: they are almost illiterate in the state of facts - this necessary abt these facts. That is why the propaganda on the whole is so un-implementable: pompousness & muddle-headedness are its dominant defects. All the same, the C.P. in USSR are making a gallant fight for social & economic & on the right-lines & their <sup>aim</sup> ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> excellent, the ~~main~~ spirit is an at-once conspicuous <sup>2 extraneous</sup> ~~aim~~ - But they lack ~~exhilarating~~ <sup>exhilarating</sup> ~~strong~~ art & good manner; the ends of the struggle?

q. Towards an Understanding of the USSR by Michael Florkin is not so much as competent as Russia under Soviet Rule by De Basely as a hostile critic. But later there looks an odd thing, if even I get it to this stage of an ideology. Both authors concentrate their denunciations of S.C. on the side of the party state & the suppression <sup>and expression of individuality</sup> of the thought of ~~the~~ individuals of states. But this main point is the inconsistency of the present USSR with the dogma of Marx - denials of social philosophy - a criticism which does not impinge on the Islamic Orthodoxy. No effort is made to be dominated by the old & disproof conclusions of former scientists. Florkin writes De Basely, refers to see why it is good to Soviet Union. "The Soviet-People" is the continuation of a tradition which has been the cause of Russian Orthodox history since perhaps as early as the 12th century!" (!) "it is another

Chief of Masterman by Ray Masterman is to us an interesting biography: the wife's diary entries lead really to the narrative.
We first met him as a friend & housemate of Regy Breyer (who was an intimate colleague of Sedgwick in the D.C.C.) Then he married a Lyellite - an attractive girl brought up in the most refined of aristocratic groups. The Lyellite family had been specially kind to the Webbs in the first days of an unconventional marriage for her expense, I remember she was sent, by her mother, to see me to find out how a woman of her status could manage with 2 servants & no maid to look after her. Masterman was good company, a brilliant talker, with easy going & pleasant manners; & now & again, he would dine with us. There are some entries about the Webbs. Incidentally one of these accounts for the coldness of our old friend Robert Motant, when he returns from the long road to work in 1912. It shows how little of gossip of our day & century & a third party can hinder a long standing relationship. During the War I worked with the Remembrance Commission & enjoyed his friendship in social and political matters. That he & I cooperated in joining to some policy I am conscious that he was no longer a personal friend. (Masterman was hostile to our scheme of how to improve) [When ~~he~~ <sup>was</sup> a member of the party ~~he~~ <sup>he</sup> became a cynic. From an ardent social reformer he became a cynical anti-socialist liberal; he had a divided personality; that a few at-catch on Christ's his party was, & left, his self-indulgent habits - he had too much. The last part of the book used a tragedy of physical weakness, mental depression & moral disillusion. He had a vivid content of the first decade of 1924 & appears it in caustic words. He decided to find weaknesses of the Liberal party & the Decade of the two half of Soviet. He looked at the ~~social~~ ~~economic~~ ~~and~~ ~~political~~

Einstein's pessimism about the catastrophe inevitable of the human race ~~records~~. Yesterday morning, the front page in Times & Daily Herald, gave the sinister news that an anti-aggression pact with USSR - Germany has been negotiated & to Prübenrich was flying to Moscow to sign it. A horrible thought for the friends of the Soviet Union - it looked a complete reversal of the foreign policy of USSR - all the more disconcerting because of ~~its~~ its secrecy & obvious inconsistency with the anti-aggression protestations, endorsements of the Soviet Court at Frankfurt on behalf of Spain, Czechoslovakia & China, what was the cause of this sudden & hidden change <sup>in Soviet</sup> of statecraft? And does it imply the collapse of the front?

The explanation came to air, by Frank & Carl Radu stated yesterday evening, justifying Germany's common attitude. The proposed anti-aggression pact with USSR & Germany is similar to that already existing between USSR & Poland & the former states. It contains no all important clause that if one of the parties ~~as~~ become an aggressor against any other country, the treaty of non-aggression, can be immediately & automatically voided by the ~~the~~ other party concerned. That is to say the

will have a balance of that

What Soviet Pact Says

HERE is the text, as quoted by the official Russian Tass Agency, of the Soviet-German Non-Aggression Pact, announced in Moscow early yesterday:

The Government of the U.S.S.R. and the Government of Germany, led by a desire to consolidate the cause of peace between their two countries, and proceeding from the basic provisions of the Treaty of Neutrality concluded between them in April, 1926, arrived at the following agreement:

CLAUSE 1: The two contracting Parties undertake to refrain from any violence, any aggressive action and any attack against each other, either individually or jointly with other Powers.

CLAUSE 2: In the event of either of the contracting Parties being subjected to military action on the part of a third Power, the other contracting Party will not lend that Power support in any form.

CLAUSE 3: The Governments of the two contracting Parties will in future maintain contact for consultation in order to inform each other on matters affecting their common interests.

CLAUSE 4:—Neither of the contracting parties will participate in any grouping of Powers which is, either directly or indirectly aimed against the other contracting Party.

CLAUSE 5:—In the event of disputes or conflicts arising between the contracting Parties on matters of one kind or another, the two Parties will solve these disputes or conflicts exclusively in a peaceful way, through the amicable exchange of view or, in case of need, by setting up commissions for the settlement of the conflict.

CLAUSE 6:—The present Pact is concluded for a term of 10 years, with the provision that unless one of the contracting Parties denounces it one year before the expiration of this term, the validity of the Pact will be considered automatically prolonged for the next five years.

CLAUSE 7: The present Pact is subject to ratification within the shortest possible space of time. The exchange of ratification instruments shall take place in Berlin. The Pact comes into effect as soon as it is signed.—Reuter.

CAN ANYONE EXPLAIN ?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES

Sir,—A week ago Dean Inge, writing in the Evening Standard, guessed that Herr Hitler had gone to Canossa. A few days later the joyful news came that the Dean was right and that Herr Hitler is under the powerful thumb of Stalin, whose interest in peace is overwhelming.

And every one except myself is frightened out of his or her wits!

Why? Am I mad? If not, why? why? why?

Another shock. Is the Soviet Govt intending to take part in the conquest & division of Poland? The

My dear Mrs. Webb,

It is always so nice to hear from you, thank you so much for all your kind thoughts and good wishes.

So far as the "Report" you have read about the possibility that my husband may be recalled to Moscow to give an account of conditions here, I am afraid we have heard nothing about this apart from reading something of it in the press!

It is a little difficult at the moment to say when we shall be able to come and see you - much as we should both like to - because it rather depends on whether the Assembly of the League takes place as was originally arranged for Monday next, the 11th September, so we shall have to wait a bit until we know where we shall be.

Until we can meet, therefore, we send you all good wishes and hope that you are dark and trying times.

The German-Soviet pact - has killed off one stick the Communist - fascist people and the Catholic Dominion: it has created a world front, in C.M. Britain & France & the Dominion & France
 & the Empire, against Germany & The British Labor Party, has virtually given to Germany, the most friendly, by attacking opposition front benches to the principle Soviet & Catholics opposing the

A few minutes later, I went out to see if I saw a man sitting up with his arm over his head. I called to him to get down. He said that he had been down, but you have no right to tell W. W. to take him off. She said in a menacing voice.

Pardon me, I beg to say - I am his wife & the mistress of his house. Keep your gun if you like - It is James' business putting out the cartridges. The Germans won't waste their gas on us. One only danger - if there is one - is an explosion bomb.

When I am asked what we think about the Soviet-German Pact, I am inclined to answer:-

1). That considering the British and French representatives asked the USSR to declare war on Germany on behalf of Poland, when Poland refused to accept her assistance, or to let her troops into their country, she was justified in refusing to do so.

Moreover, the guarantee of France and Great Britain of the USSR frontiers from invasion by an enraged Germany was worthless: they could not get there, and also Soviet statesmen very naturally did not trust their intention of doing it. Had not the French and British governments betrayed collective security in the case of China, Abyssinia, Spain and finally in Czechoslovakia, with whom the French government had a mutual assistance pact against aggression?

2) The German-Soviet Pact is a great stroke of luck for the British and French governments, in their war against Nazi Germany. It has alienated Japan, Spain and even Italy, by being a contradiction of the Anti-Comintern Pact. It has united all parties in the capitalist political democracies, including the U.S.A. against Nazi Germany on the one hand, and also against the communist parties in their own countries.

3) It is good for the USSR, because it keeps them out of war and enables them to devote themselves to reconstruction.

4) It is bad, if not fatal, to Nazi Germany, seeing that all capitalists and all labour parties within the capitalist democracies are now completely estranged from Nazi Germany and her creed.

"HITLER WARNED OFF"

What is the second event of this first month? It is, of course, the assertion of the power of Russia. Russia has pursued a cold policy of self-interest. We could have wished that the Russian armies should be standing on their present line as the friends and allies of Poland, instead of as invaders. But that the Russian armies should stand on this line was clearly necessary for the safety of Russia against the Nazi menace. At any rate the line is there, and an Eastern Front has been created which Nazi Germany does not dare assail. When Herr von Ribbentrop was summoned to Moscow last week it was to learn the fact, and to accept the fact, that the Nazi designs upon the Baltic States and upon the Ukraine must come to a dead stop. I cannot forecast to you the action of Russia. It is a middle wrapped in mystery inside an enigma; but perhaps there is a key. That key is Russian national interest. It cannot be in accordance with the interest or safety of Russia that Nazi Germany should plant itself upon the shores of the Black Sea, or that it should overrun the Balkan States and subjugate the Slavonic peoples of South-Eastern Europe. That would be contrary to the historic life-interests of Russia. But here these interests of Russia fall into the same channel as the interests of Britain and France. None of these three Powers can afford to see Rumania, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, and, above all, Turkey, put under the German heel. Through the fog of confusion and uncertainty we may discern quite plainly the community of interests which exists between England, France, and Russia to prevent the Nazis carrying the flames of war into the Balkans and Turkey. Thus (at some risk of being proved wrong by events) I will proclaim to-night my conviction that the second great fact of the first month of the War is that Hitler, and all that Hitler stands for, have been and are being warned off the East and the South-East of Europe.

Oct 2. 4th Churchill's first hour of the week Winston's broadcast on the First Month of the War is a masterpiece.
 It is his reference to the USSR; which is not a levity to speak of domestic affairs of the Soviet Union. It is only one of the reasons why the Prime Minister is the place of the Secretary & Minister of the Chamberlain, the prospect of a right order ending of the murder & waste of the War would be more helpful. Any way he becomes to become of the progressive forces of Britain, a the leader of the Labour Party will have to follow suit. <sup>in case its expansion is possible</sup> However, <sup>was</sup> this attitude to the Soviet Union. Stuffed Crumbs ought straight-way to emphasize its change over: will be? Mostly, by the way, implies to be and be credited to the Chamberlain - "a way of Chamberlain is not."

MR. LLOYD GEORGE AND POLAND

Attack on Regime

CORRESPONDENCE WITH AMBASSADOR

The Polish Ambassador, Count Raczinski, and Mr. Lloyd George have published letters which they have exchanged since an article by Mr. Lloyd George appeared in the "Sunday Express" on September 24.

Count Raczinski wrote that the description in that article of the Polish Government as a "wretched class Government" was devoid of all foundation in fact. The Governments of Great Britain and France were just as much "class" Governments if by the term "class" was meant a social group different from those which govern in countries like Soviet Russia or Nazi Germany.

He said it was a mis-statement to say that Poland "was entirely unprepared" or that "the collapse of Polish resistance" was due to the "improvidence of the Polish Government." Count Raczinski commented:

"It was obviously impossible to expect the construction of a 'Polish Maginot Line,' considering that Polish frontiers with Germany were over 1,500 miles long. You, personally, Mr. Lloyd George, have the least right to criticise the inadequacy of Polish defences, for it was you who, in 1919, were responsible for some of the strategically indefensible frontiers of Poland if only by not providing for the demilitarisation of East Prussia and by preventing—against the better judgment of the unanimous expert commission—the restoration of the historic union of Danzig with Poland."

Count Raczinski protested that Mr. Lloyd George assumed that the frontiers of Poland should be decided by Hitler and Stalin. "Is it, then, your intention to convince the British public that a Soviet Poland, established by Stalin with the blessing of Hitler, can be one of the legitimate aims of this war? If so, your intention can only be to relieve Great Britain of all responsibility for the guarantee given to Poland."

Mr. Lloyd George's Reply

In his reply Mr. Lloyd George asserts that the British people are not prepared to make colossal sacrifices to restore to power the Polish regime represented by the present Government.

He says his contempt was, and still is, reserved for the Government which fled to safety to a foreign country while its brave soldiers were still fighting.

He repeats his accusation that that Government is a "class Government." The Polish peasantry, he says, are living in great poverty owing to the operation of the worst feudal system in Europe. That is why the Russian troops were being hailed as deliverers.

The Russian armies marched into territories which are not Polish and which were forcibly annexed by Poland after the Great War in spite of the fierce protests and the armed resistance of the inhabitants. In those circumstances it would be an act of criminal folly to place the Russian advance in the same category as that of the Germans.

"You suggest that my intention may be to relieve Great Britain of all responsibility for the guarantee given to Poland," Mr. Lloyd George goes on.

"You must be aware that I repeatedly protested against that guarantee being given without first securing the support of Russia.

"I was earnestly anxious to demonstrate that in this struggle of incalculable dimensions and sacrifices we are fighting not to force back under Polish rule people of another race who objected to the imposition and were subjugated by force of Polish arms, not for the restoration of a particular regime which has failed in the hour of its country's distress, but that we are throwing the whole of our weight into a struggle for the rights and liberties of free and independent peoples who are being subjected one after another to the cruel bondage of a ruthless aggression."

SIR S. CRIPPS AND LABOUR

PARTY TERMS REJECTED

FROM OUR LABOUR CORRESPONDENT

Sir Stafford Cripps has been presented with the terms on which he may rejoin the Labour Party and has rejected them. The terms, in the form of a declaration which he was to sign, were as follows:—

- (1) That I express my regret at the action taken by me which has, in the opinion of the party, been detrimental to its interests.
- (2) That I undertake in future to refrain from conducting, or taking any part in, campaigns in opposition to the declared policy of the party.
- (3) That I accept the constitution, programme, principles, and policy of the party without reservation.

The executive committee of the party, which decided that Sir Stafford Cripps should be required to give these undertakings, was held on September 27 and the letter was sent the following day. Sir Stafford Cripps's reply was made yesterday. After saying that he cannot sign the document he gives his reasons as follows:—

I am not prepared to express my regret at the action taken by me as I am now, more than ever, convinced that the action was not only fully justified, but was the only action that I could have taken consistently with my duty to my own constituents and the best interests of the workers of this country.

If the party could have been persuaded to combine with others to get rid of the National Government this spring, then we would not be in the ghastly position that we are to-day. The argument that the Labour Party would come into power on a policy of pure Socialism in time to avert the catastrophe has been proved by the tragic facts to have been without any foundation. Instead the party finds itself under the unpleasant compulsion of supporting the most reactionary government which has not only been responsible for our present plight, but which bids fair to destroy the country by its continued ineptitudes and inefficiencies.

As to the second head of the document that I am asked to sign, this might well have formed part of the credo of some totalitarian party in a dictatorship State. The declared policy of the party can only be changed democratically by the agitation of a minority, and as it is now proposed to bind members not to engage in any campaign for such a purpose, all open democratic change becomes impossible, thus enabling the ruling powers of the party to maintain their position and their policies. Such rigid restriction of democratic rights spells destruction to freedom and democracy. . . .

I should have thought that such matters as are dealt with in the executive's decision had become irrelevant in the light of the national and international situation. . . .

There is certainly room for a section of a department whose job it is to see that our case is properly presented abroad and the propaganda of the enemy suitably answered. This should be mainly staffed by trained journalists with a knowledge of the countries concerned. Those who own and make newspapers are as anxious as any other body of citizens to win the war. They know, too, that there are heavy penalties for even inadvertently assisting the enemy. In view of this, therefore, all that seems necessary in addition to the foreign section referred to above is: (1) For each department to issue its own news; (2) to give general instructions to the Press on what must on no account be mentioned without leave; (3) to have a small advisory committee on which sit members of the Service departments, the Foreign Office, and perhaps other departments to advise the Press on difficult or doubtful points; and (4) to have a small staff to read through all newspapers and periodicals in order to see if they are playing the game.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

MAURICE PETHERICK

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES

Sir,—On September 29 the Air Ministry issued the following announcement: "Units of the R.A.F. to-day carried out attacks on ships of the German Fleet in the Heligoland Bight. . . . Some of our aircraft have not yet returned." The German High Command statement that, of six British attacking aeroplanes, five were shot down into the sea was published alongside this in the Press the following morning. The Ministry of Information designs neither to confirm nor to contradict this report.

On October 1 the German High Command claimed to have brought down two French and 10 British planes over the Western Front. This enemy statement was given in the British radio news bulletin—again without official comment, although we announce that the Germans openly admit our claim to have brought down two of their aeroplanes.

If the Ministry of Information continues

I journeyed up to London & a train crowded with officers & uniform & youths, looking sad & distrustful; they are fearful to mention a sweat heart, and a few other men, to witness the of the station - to lunch into Bickham, & meet the Lance Welfs & <sup>they</sup> had eyes & desire to meet me & see himself seem looking tender ill with his trembling hands - but less as gently wise as ever. I told him how interested I had been & his last volume of After the Pledge. But I knew & his next dealing with the period 1832 - 1852, he was long & to the transferring state, previous to the Municipal Corporations Act of 1834, which changed local government from being <sup>in</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~hands~~ ~~of~~ ~~these~~ ~~guilds~~, into law enforced <sup>by</sup> ~~the~~ ~~Magistrates~~, is then a ~~country~~ ~~into~~ ~~association~~ ~~of~~ ~~business~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~country~~, having to ~~replace~~ ~~it~~ ~~with~~ ~~public~~ ~~services~~ ~~for~~ ~~the~~ whole country. He denounces - the local authority of Lancashire - their neglecting law - can <sup>enable</sup> ~~enable~~ ~~member~~ ~~to~~ ~~relate~~ but to create a ill use of many <sup>conventions</sup> ~~conventions~~ ~~had~~ ~~not~~ ~~prevented~~ to the extent of benefit public - being, better & equal - however,

Lancashire, Danzig's water, perhaps & others & to prevent the ~~the~~ ~~country~~ ~~at~~ ~~large~~

These services to the country could not have been achieved by voluntary association of citizens. In fact, it was the power inherent in voluntary association of themselves, in cities to do the job but the to apply the local cost goes the compulsory power for levying rates & regularly conducted. ~~It~~ It was in the statutory contract let to the date of 1924 problem of human life. I also understood usual scholarships & fellowships - that there is no bridge to our, in an office, at the entrance of every day at a table decided by a superior ~~authority~~.

 What I did not ~~to~~ see was my edition of his last volume of Life & Death is that power over man is demanded in an evil & demanding way - ~~to~~ <sup>for</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~purpose~~ <sup>purpose</sup> of functional how reason as an example in life, to knowing of creating in a law, or group is a constraint - this was unavoidable <sup>it</sup> ~~it~~ appears in a transcendent task, executed in use to give it body (Sowing to reap). Why was there an absence of it then as to that was supposed to be there. I also was shocked to see John to write a second vol. of Years. I know to have been the family she described so very well in the new one?
Why was he so unconscious as to do that in 1914 or so?
She gave me no answer except that she did not know her own mind and what was helping - So how could she be so sure of her mind? She also had the new Alton theory's new book - Life May 1914 I gave her she could - in 1914 - on impulse at his death of his contract in life.

The historical analysis of the USSR

The reports of his (Luther) party, the truth & tenor of other views, has become a hard-pressed 'top' cynical towards all 'social reform', a intense pessimism - thinks that the war will end western civilization but to European people will sink in barbarism. L.C. on affected & admiring towards the aged & noble & like others of old times & at present to look to the USSR - forty years ago! It is given that he we should be in some sort - Soviet Communism - in the last year of our genuine struggle!

The Enigma of Moscow grows more distressing, enigmatic every day alike to ~~the~~ foreign friends fearing to new outside, & foreign ambassadors believing in it. In order to win the war against Hitler, ~~is it~~ is it not the success of the Red Army, having the way to Hitler, Hitler conquered, an aid to the allies? How is it safe to general into the USSR? is it not better to let Stalin guard into the German Dictator & his generals, we a division of the world? At present, the balance of power is set British Great <sup>ends</sup> ~~is~~ in favor of welcoming to USSR as a barrier to German aggression. On the other hand, all admirers of the USSR are hard put to it to defend its utter cynicism of its Munich turn over from a common front with the Democrats against German aggression, to its old slogan of Worship to work with to return all fronts in to which of the spirit of Soviet Communism. This was the theme of Molotov's speech yesterday at the Moscow celebration of the Russian Revolution, reinforced by the manifesto of the Two Internationals. These historical letters begg me to come and deliver a lecture explaining & defending the new Moscow policy ~~of international revolution and the solidarity of the~~ be the answer to this Enigma of Moscow? So far as we are concerned: Silence.

How the ~~concerned~~ <sup>British</sup> incident passed was in the press & ministerial Committee on Molotov's speech - was to French cities it as a snub to WAR AIMS by G.D.H.Cole, New Statesman Pamphlet, 6d.

is a well-written document. Its purpose is to prove that it is desirable for the Allies to state definitely their war aims, and he gives his own version of what those aims should be. The German people must repudiate Hitler and his aggressive policy, and reconstruct the German state as a democratic republic. After that has been done there should be complete equality among all countries in a federated Europe. All colonies are to be internationalised in the interests of the natives, until these are ready for self-government (What about the South African Union?). From this Federated Europe the U.S.S.R. is to be excluded because it is predominantly Asiatic. Is Turkey to be also excluded which is wholly Asiatic, but which controls the Bosphorus? What about the British Commonwealth of Nations. Are our Dominions and India to be excluded? Even if their representatives are not accepted, the British Government would represent their interests. If all European states are expected to become democratic, what about Italy, Greece, Bulgaria and all the other Balkan states? Assuming that some countries adopt Planned Production for Community Consumption, so that what is bought and what is sold is decided by a central department of the government, what exactly is meant by the term "free trade"?

As for Great Britain itself, Cole is cautious. All he implies is a sort of Fabian Socialism, with controlled private enterprise as the dominant factor. The general trend of the pamphlet is a repudiation of Soviet Communism as inconsistent with individual freedom. He says, in fact, "Communism may suit Russia, it will not suit Great Britain or other European democracies, or even Germany". He believes the present government is intent on maintaining the status quo in Great Britain, and restoring it in Germany to the status quo before the Great War. He condemns the Labour Party for having no alternative policy. His own alternative seems to be a sort of Liberal Fabianism. I do not see where it differs in any way from that of Transport House, except that it is less socialistic. What he rejects decisively is Soviet Communism. He denies the likelihood of Germany going Communist, he has too high an opinion of the German race. The exclusion of the U.S.S.R. from any participation in peace negotiations, or in the eventual constitution of Europe seems to me an absurdity, and wholly inconsistent with his condemnation of Chamberlain for refusing to enter into the Anglo-French-Soviet pact against aggression in respect of Abyssinia, China and Spain. What surprises me is that G.D.H.Cole should be so far to the right of the Labour World, in his actual proposals, while retaining all his invectives against the present government and also against the official Labour Party. How do Attlee, Hugh Dalton, and Herbert Morrison differ from Cole? They seem to me more advanced. I doubt whether Morrison, in spite of his hatred of the C.P. in Great Britain, would suggest the exclusion of the Soviet Union from a proposed federated Europe. Nor is Cole in favour of more socialisation of the means of production, distribution and exchange, than the front opposition bench. All that he describes in his "War Aims" is controlled capitalism.

"Let us do all we can to ease the transition towards a system that will exclude the extremes of both riches and poverty.....This means, first and foremost, a great steepening of our tax system against the larger incomes. But it means more than that - the guarantee of a tolerable minimum at one end, and a drastic cutting down at the other.

"Moreover, we must set to work to organise our new public controls on the most democratic basis that can be managed. This is partly a matter of preserving to the full the rights of parliamentary criticism and debate - for which an independent Opposition is indispensable - and of constant consultations about policy and administration with local authorities, Cooperative Societies, Trade Unions, and every kind of body through which democratic opinion gets itself expressed." (Page 54)

Surely Herbert Samuel and Sir Archibald Sinclair would acquiesce in this policy and perhaps even go a little further. It is a mild statement of a minimum standard of civilized life, within the capitalist system: the first stage of our pilgrimage. He leaves me an agnostic about the possibility of a clear statement of war aims, so far as the future constitution of Europe is concerned, for the good reason that we have no conception and can have no conception of what sort of Europe it will be when the war is over.

I am inclined to foresee a Communist Germany and a strengthened U.S.S.R. How can a European Federation be established excluding the USSR and perhaps even Germany. Will any peaceful organisation of Europe be practicable if Communist Powers confront Capitalist Powers? I doubt it.

And here are Laski's "War Aims" as published in a long article in The New Republic for September 27th, 1939.

We are to settle & all countries the Democratic Powers *of world

to achieve
of modern
I realize a little economic*

- "1. The states which form the union must be prepared to pool their sovereignties, and to submit all disputes among themselves, without exception, to settlement by peaceful means.
2. They must agree to maintain the democratic form of government, and to guarantee, in accordance with that form, the essential liberties to their citizens without distinction of race, nation, colour or religious creed.
3. They must agree to pool their defense forces for the purpose of mutual security.
4. They must agree to plan a collective economic life upon the basis of a customs union and joint economic arrangements in relation to currency, migration, labor standards and so on.
5. They must agree to arrange for the rapid transfer to national ownership of the vital instruments of production, with reasonable compensation to existing owners.
6. They must agree to internationalize, within the union, the ownership of colonies and to provide for their international administration; it being the primary objective of that administration (a) to safeguard native rights and (b) to develop colonies as rapidly as possible to the point where they may become self-governing democracies within the union.
7. To provide by way of loan for great national and international schemes of public works, to offset the dangers likely to be caused by the transition from a war economy to a peace economy.
8. to develop a common international policy in conjunction with such non-European powers as are prepared to accept these principles."

*These aims are wholly impractical. Why not...
... from some... of all countries?*

To us, the real question is:

Will the tortuous diplomacy, backed up by power politics, demoralize the Soviet leaders & the people who live? Is it an imbrication of what Trotskyism is his job - work is to disintegrate of civilization, & call for the transformation of a creative movement into a dominant - ministry - agency force to maintain their dominance?

Personally, I say, I do not see it as one of the labor men who supported the present Committee against the opposed labor cause is a very - clear - man - election, & it is very difficult to smother the reciprocity. He notes that while all the other labor men were represented (to labor executive, he was not. "Let us become you an idea & also, an well - known" I suppose. He could stopped but can't make any sense out of his success & conclusion. He is contemptuous of the Trust - Opp. Board. Let still refer himself as a labor man. He is not sympathetic to Soviet - Communism; but he never abandon it - I think his attitude is one of agnosticism.

hopes to the USSR & was planning a peace with a definite January & then an anti-Communist election! What was the to terms of the Peace so far on January was concerned? I ask.
 "The Grand Plan" he says, had <sup>actively</sup> been <sup>discussed</sup>; DeLadeur & his colleagues wanted to make up Germany; to re-attach to Austria, who sits in Europe, ~~and~~ to include Bavaria, Czech Slovakia Austria & Hungary. & then to have to Yunker & Finance Democrat & North Germany who would be Prussia. His news was that Benes had been

 Court of Europe on the pattern of the Polish tribunal. — but was not at all sure this was right, but DeLadeur had ~~acted~~ <sup>acted</sup> this being to please of the National Gov of Czech Slav Republic.
 What <sup>possibly</sup> ~~he~~ <sup>he</sup> wanted to know was: would the Labor Party continue the support to the existing British Gov. & would the Gov. be changed before Peace came? Then <sup>was</sup> ~~was~~ he a revolution in Germany, the German army was defeated would the British & French ~~not~~ take part in a war would intervene in behalf of the uprising of the Red German proletariat. ~~It was~~ <sup>at</sup> this point, ~~that~~ <sup>was</sup> he & I had a good related but heated argument. Was there any revolutionary proletariat in Germany? I asked. Was not the German leader of the Old Socialist, Thälmann & Comintern upwards, bitterly opposed to Communist Party & Thälmann was the Red army an ally? Did he not minimize the power of the Prussian & the Prussian army officers? Would

Dear Mr. Cecil as to Pincus yesterday morning. I tried to get Pincus to tell me what was his view on the absolute question of whether <sup>it</sup> was right or wrong to ~~begin~~ declare war to fulfill any purpose? He said: "he had no opinion on that subject." But he was against this war; & against the guarantee of Poland's frontiers. He was to advise Council of S. He agrees with "to destroy Hitler's rule" was a still worse war aim, and he was very sympathetic with my present task, of building a bridge, between the two essays on my views, probably 1929 & to Pincus 1939, in that I believe by insisting on the policy of clarity, of war to allow to intend agreements of another country.
 I suggest that this might come a matter of bravery at in town. He replies ~~to~~ "we better not." He told me that Arnold had met Mosley - & had been impressed with the simple life of he & his new wife (a <sup>Sister</sup> ~~friend~~ of the hostess [Reverend's wife]) & his reasonable attitude to the present war against Germany. The black-red - out personalities & parties, whatever their past differences of opinion, are naturally sympathetic to each other. All to some I cannot imagine shaking hands with Mosley. Personally he is some distance to shake hands with Stalin's reputation. - He is like a serpent moving. "We are just friends who are met, by chance, but it seems to me" he says
