Interview with Rev. H. J. Sidlestone ³⁸
All Saints, Clapham Park. H. 15

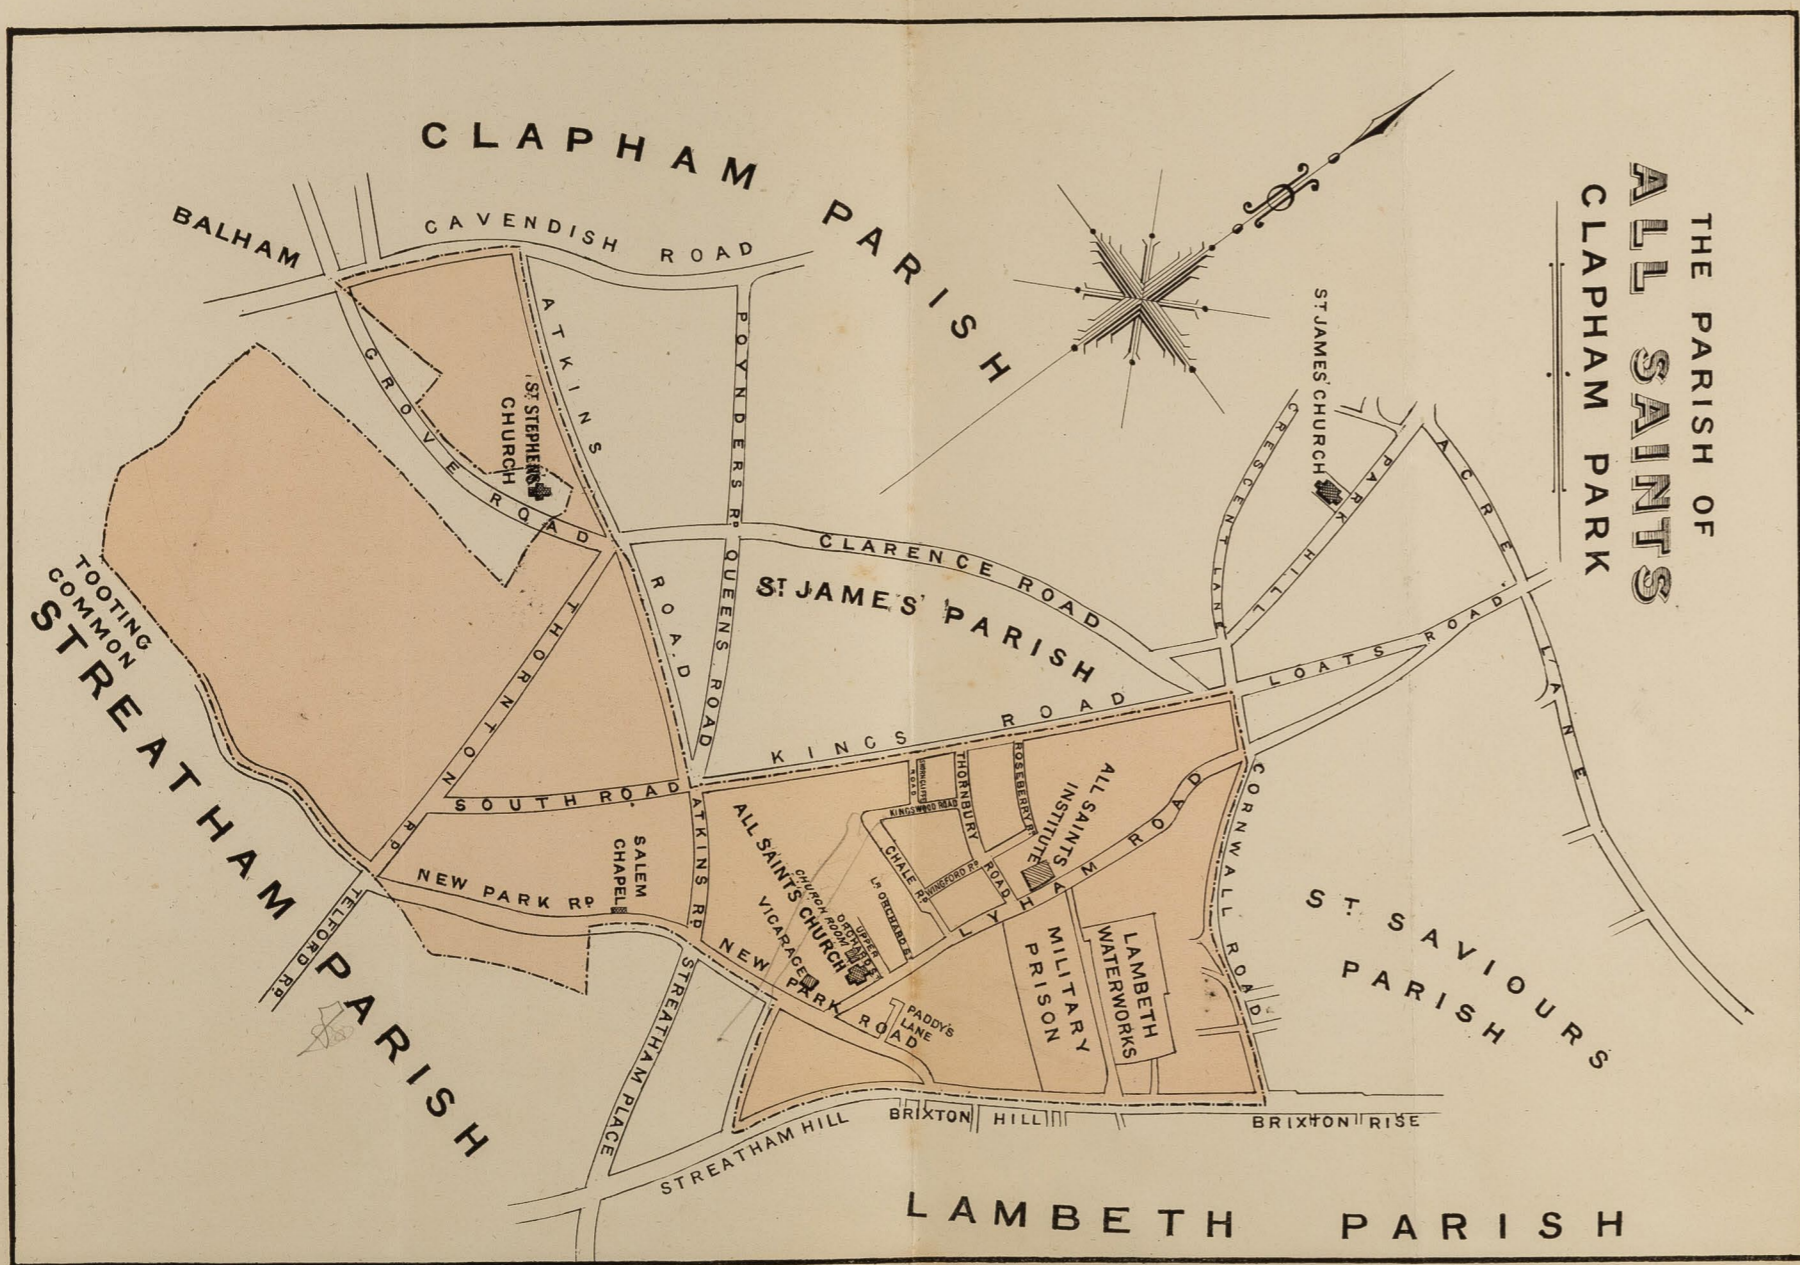

Mr. Sidlestone is a man of about 55. He is ~~very~~ very tall, thin and spare, with loose limbs: grey hair and beard: to-day at all events unkempt in appearance, but he had just come in from his garden, and looked rather grotesque in a little white canvas jacket. He has been here for 23 years and during that time has I should say administered his parish rather more efficiently than most of the clergy: but his heart is just as much in his garden as in his parochial work. Before I went he showed it ~~to~~ me with much pride, especially his rock-rose full of Alpine plants, which he brings back from his annual visit to Switzerland. "I consider it" he said fitting "a duty to which I owe to my parishioners to go to Switzerland once a year."

Mr. S. had asked Mr. Rockell, a gardener, and one of his Church Council to meet me.
 He has lived in the neighbourhood for 40 years:
 a very sturdy specimen of the finest type of working men, with absolutely nothing of the 'softy' about him. Mr. S. I imagine is more likely than most to get hold of men of this sort for though rather eccentric he is a very friendly person, singularly free from stand around or otherwise. His parishioners he says refer to him as "Jack" behind his back, and often to his face.

The papers Mr. S. has given me are unusually complete as to figures and so on,
 and there is not much to add to them.

So much of the parish as is on the map which

Mr J. had asked Mr Rockell, a gardener,

 He has lived in the neighbourhood for 40 years:
 a very sturdy specimen of the finest type of working man, with absolutely nothing of the 'softy' about him. Mr J. I imagine is more likely than most to get hold of men of this sort for though rather eccentric he is a very friendly person, singularly free from staid clerical or other airs. His parishioners
 he says refer to him as "Jack" behind his back and often to his face.

The papers Mr J. has given me are unusually complete as to figures and so on,
 and there is not much to add to them.

So much of the parish as is on the map which he gave me his west of Thonon Rd Inn §. makes no attempt to work. He has until nearly all been rich and has in St-Stephens a church practically though not nominally of his own.

In the rest of the parish there are still some rich people left, but most of them are gone or going; and if people equally wealthy come in their place they are mostly Germans or Jews: at all events the rich and even the comfortable in the parish are very little good to the church, which is supported almost entirely by people outside the parish: of the landholders quite half are non-parishians.
Part of the parish is exceedingly poor and rough, the two worst streets being the two Orcher streets. Near with the upper end of Latham Road used to be known as "The Retreat" i.e.
the retreat for shady characters, and Inn §.

thought that there were still a good many thieves and other criminals here: "we have some of the worst of the city" he said, and again "we have many drunk self denigrating people, but also many brutes without understanding." Mr. Rockwell while admitting that this part of the parish was still ~~low~~ low saw an enormous improvement in forty years: it used to be a common sight to see men lying drunk in the roads, while street fights which were often adjourned to the waste grounds in the neighbourhood were a frequent occurrence. Miss Cooper, the District Visitor for Lower Orchard St. came in while I was there: she has visited the street for 15 years, and sees no improvement in that time.

As showing the large sums which are often coming in in apparently poor streets Mrs. Luckham, another visitor, mentioned a family living in George St Cottages, behind Pixton Hill, whose combined income for father, mother, son and daughter was about 75/- a week: get them home was cheap a den.

As to the work of the church there was the usual verdict: "complete friendliness, but utter apathy and indifference"; "I always tell my curate," said Mr S. "not to expect too much" and he quoted the remark made to him when he first came 24 years ago
"You have to pick them up as you would pick up pears with a two pronged fork."
The church, which holds 1000, is now half full, and a majority of those who come are not to do people from outside; but with this class the bicycle and other forms of pleasure taking ^{are} largely proving destructive of churchgoing. The poor scarcely come at all, and apart from their indifference Mr S.
gives as a reason "They don't believe in churchgoing, because they don't believe in Church goes": when they see the church going down in Clapham Park spending huge sums in all kinds of luxury they look upon their religion as humbug. Apart from visitation the only time when the poor get any spiritual teaching is at the weekly popular entertainments, when a religious address is always given;

 at these entertainments there is often an audience of 300.

Mr. Rocke complained that the spiritual indifference extended to all efforts at moral ~~or~~ intellectual improvement; he started a Men's Club which has just been closed; and two years ago had University Extension lectures at a cooperation hall in Leman Road which has no connection with the church; at first they were ~~not~~ well attended but it soon dropped off; "the fact is" he said "you can't hold the men without beer and comic songs."

For Mr J's views on Relief for the Incurable. He does not work with the C.O.S. but claims to be a strict administrator "too strict some think"; relief is always referred to the family of the ~~the~~ Incurable. But Mr J. thinks there is much overlapping of relief as those Baptist Chapels, Congregational, and Wesleyan are at work in the parish and most of the poor have five visitors. He once made an attempt to exchange lists ~~but~~ but it soon broke down as the non-cons found that it did not pay, i.e. the people who had been receiving relief from two sources made themselves so unpleasant about it that the non-cons were not prepared to face the odium.

In addition to the churches there is a L.C.M. who works simply to fill his own Hall.

As to the work of the visitors (the parish is in Clapham and Lambeth) it is "brutal";

streets and houses are neglected.

The Police are "fairly good" but "are too often to be seen coming out of a public house wiping their mouths."

Drink: no improvement lately.

Prostitution: none professional: but low state of sexual morality. On this point Mr J. said that he had often seen boys practicing sodomy about openly in the streets.

Crime: a good deal of petty thieving.

Health good.

Housing: bad in parts of Cornwell Road, Gilman's Cottages, and George's Cottages.

HYMNS.

HYMNS—June 3, Whitsun Day, a.m., 474, 257; p.m., 244, 253, 154 (Sankey), 499. June 10, Trinity Sunday, a.m., 33, 490; p.m., 34, 354 (A. & M. 3rd tune), 197. IMPORTANT.

The date of the Rummage Sale has been fixed for Friday, June 22nd, at 7 p.m., at the Institute. We believe it will be a good one. Admission will be by tickets only, which can be obtained of the District Visitors. Twopence must be paid at the door and the tickets produced. No change will be given at the door. All goods will be marked at low prices, and the proceeds given to the Church Expenses and New Organ Fund. Members of the congregation and other friends are requested to rummage diligently for all articles that they can spare. But we do not wish saucepans with holes burnt through them, nor mere fragments of jugs and basins which can hold nothing in them! Things may be sent to the Institute (key at 238, Lyham Road), but where necessary a van will be sent for them, if notice is given before June 15th to the Manager, Miss Cooper, "Ashbrook," Tierney Road, Brixton Hill, or to the Vicar.

Missionary Boxes should be sent for the quarterly opening to Miss Girdlestone at the Sunday School, or care of the Vicar, not later than Sunday, June 10th.

Mr. T. L. Corbett writes to us as follows: "The Young Men's Bible Class which meets in the Church Room on Sunday mornings at 10 o'clock, under the presidency of Mr.

Edmonds or myself, commences on Sunday, 20th May, a series of Papers on 'The Young Men of the Bible.' The subject is an interesting one, and we trust may prove a helpful one.

"My object in writing to the Magazine is to assure all young men who care to join us of a cordial welcome, and to ask the help of your readers in making the time and place of our meeting known to any young men of their acquaintance who are not already members on Sunday mornings either of this or of the Institute Young Men's Classes.

"The Papers arranged for the next few Sundays are:—

- 20th May - 'David' - Mr. Turner.
- 27th „ - 'Jonathan' Mr. Gaskin.
- 3rd June. Class does not meet.
- 10th „ - 'Saul' - Mr. Gilbert.
- 17th „ - 'Absalom' Mr. Shaw."

RECENT NEWS.

X The Vicar took his spring medicine of a visit for eleven days to the English Lakes on April 30th. The weather was rather bad, but he had one or two good climbs. A good deal of snow was still upon the higher mountains.

X The last "Popular Evening" of the season was held on April 23rd, when the Entertainment was given by the Sunday School, under the arrangement of Mr. E. J. Bishop. The address on "David and Goliath" was given by Mr. P. Freke; and both he and Mr. Bishop were suitably thanked by the Vicar. Present, 191.

X The season terminated with the largest attendance of the year, some 500, more or less, managing to cram themselves into the Institute on the occasion of the Band of Hope Entertainment. The first part consisted of living pictures, and the second part of an operetta, in which the children acquitted themselves most creditably. In accordance with the express wish of Miss Luckhurst, no votes of thanks were given, but she, and all those who worked so hard and gave up so much time, as well as the actual performers, deserve very great praise for their successful work, and thoroughly earned the thanks of the whole parish.

The Sunday School Cricket Club has recommenced, and has opened the season well by gaining two successes. The first match was played at Clapham Common on May 5th. Score:—All Saints', 57; Crescent United, 46. The chief honours rested with S. R. Smith, 19 runs, and P. Freke, 12 runs; S. Rockell took five wickets for 21 runs.

On May 12th, they played against Starkie United at Raynes Park. Scores:—All Saints', 64; Starkie United, 26. E. Bishop made 42 not out, H. G. Elkington took six wickets for 10 runs, and J. Stevens three wickets for two runs.

In connection with the war in South Africa, we again had special services of intercession of Sunday, April 29, with suitable hymns. The Vicar preached in the morning from I Corinthians xv., 25, on the certainty that the LORD JESUS is reigning now, amid all the changes and chances of this life; and in the evening from James v., 16, upon the greatness of the force of prayer in the affairs of this life, when rightly used; at 8.30 p.m. he preached again, to men only, from Luke x., 42, upon the words "One thing is needful"; there was also a good attendance at the Holy Communion at 4.5 in the afternoon.

RELIEF OF MAFEKING.

X The news reached London on Friday, May 18th, that Mafeking had been relieved. It came through Boer sources, and was not officially confirmed until the following Monday; but caused intense satisfaction here and throughout our country and colonies. The story of Mafeking is so interesting, and is likely to stand out so permanently in history, that we give, in hopes that it may be useful to our readers, some notes of the Vicar's sermon on the subject on the morning of Sunday, May 20th. Taking from the Gospel for this day his text (John xvi., 32) he spoke to the following effect:—The relief of Mafeking (although not yet confirmed) is to-day in the thoughts of every one of us. The greatest interest is felt in its heroic defenders throughout the civilised world; and the greatest admiration is expressed for them and their gallant chief. The one point which attracts us all is their indomitable pluck. This is conspicuous owing to the following circumstances: they were few against many; their foe was brave, wily, treacherous and relentless; they had few and simple weapons and defences to oppose to the best modern weapons; they suffered from short allowance of food, and from the ravages of disease in their confined quarters; the siege was prolonged beyond all their or our expectations; they were alone, cut off by enormous distances from our forces; they were unselfish, each caring for all, the weak, the young, the helpless natives, were all fed and provided for; they were cheerful, hopeful, and enduring, and never lost faith that at last we should come to their rescue.

It is such a combination of points, the having all of them together, that makes their courage so admirable! so astonishing! It is quite true that in enduring the siege they were best serving their own interests and injuring those of the enemy; they were moved with loyalty to their own country and friends; they were pursuing the path of glory; and they had not expected or volunteered for their long privations; but all this still leaves their display of courage as quite the most remarkable scene in this terrible war.

To us, to our colonies, and to the civilised world, it has been indeed a display—Mafeking is the stage, the world the theatre, in which this drama by heroes has been acted; while we at our ease have watched and listened and waited. For our race the interest has been supreme, for it is British pluck on which we have gazed. And now, it seems, the play is done; Mafeking is relieved, and the reward is won.

What then should I, as a minister of CHRIST, say to you by the Word of the LORD on all this? What would the Heavenly FATHER (Who has given to men this splendid gift of courage, and the scarcely less precious gift of appreciating, admiring, loving and striving to imitate such courage), what would He have us think? Surely He would open our eyes to see in this story a great high road that leads us straight to CHRIST. The nobler thoughts and feelings which the heroism of Baden-Powell and his followers call forth may fit and help us the better to recall, to understand, to love, and to strive to imitate the only worthy Leader of all heroes, the LORD JESUS CHRIST. Let us use these days of rejoicing to look afresh at that old yet ever new drama on the stage of the Holy Land; with the cradle of Bethlehem on the one side and the ascending cloud of Olivet on the other, and in the very centre Gethsemane, and the cross and the grave. If there we "consider JESUS" and lay the elements of His courage along with those we have thought of to-day, He stands out "chiefest among ten thousand and altogether lovely." He was not few, but One and alone; His foes exceeding all others; His weapons not of this world at all; His bodily needs overwhelming, "in fastings often;" His conflict, all His life long; remote from home "He came down from Heaven;" unselfish! we recall "His great love wherewith He loved us;" cheerful! "alone, yet I am not alone . . . be of good cheer;" hopeful! enduring! believing! This is, without a flaw, the story of JESUS. And, unlike the heroes of Mafeking, nothing of self came in at all. It was not for His own interests He fought, it was "for us men and for our salvation;" it was not for His own country and friends, it was "while we were yet enemies;" it was not in the path of glory, it was in the way to shame (and the brave feel shame) that He went to public execution, to hanging on a cross. (They say Major André, now buried in Westminster Abbey, faced his death manfully until he came in sight of the scaffold, when he gave way, for he was sentenced to be hung, not shot).

When we try to follow out the story of the courage of JESUS, our great Leader and Captain, I cannot doubt that, if our hearts be true and we be not bent upon sin, we shall fall down before Him with the outburst of deepened conviction and worship "My LORD! and my GOD!" and that in giving Him the tribute and crown of our love and devotion and lives, we shall esteem it as nothing at all when weighed with His infinite, His adorable, courage, endurance, and love.

about them. This plan cultivates in them a sense of their own serious responsibility in this difficult matter. The Vicar only suggests (with no controlling voice) which districts do not require to share in this fund, and advises beginners in the work, and occasionally consults with the Treasurer as to the several proportions in which the District Visitors (according to the poverty of their districts) should draw upon the fund. He also undertakes that the Treasurer shall not be out of pocket at the end of any year, by supplying any deficiency from funds under his own control.

But he thinks that as the District Visitors' Fund is, and, in his opinion, should be, used at the sole personal discretion of the District Visitors, it ought to be supported by the donations of its friends, and ought not as a rule to come upon public funds, such as the offertory, for its support. The District Visitors' Fund is badly off at present, old subscribers have removed or died; and new subscriptions would be welcomed, which may be sent to the Treasurer, Mrs. Dawson, "Zinal," Palace Road, Streatham Hill.

The Vicar begs the honest and industrious poor also to help the District Visitors and himself in their difficult task, by doing all they can to promote a healthy public opinion on the subject among their neighbours, and by bringing up their children to see plainly how disgraceful a thing is deceit in this matter, how grievous a wrong it inflicts on the honest, and how very seriously its existence diminishes the flow of gifts which would otherwise freely pass from the richer of God's children to their poorer neighbours in times of accident, illness, old age, and bereavement. There can be no doubt that many genuine cases of need go unhelped, not through any lack of kindness of the richer, but simply through the difficulties created by the meanness and hypocrisy of the professed but sham needy; while these gain so little, so very little, for the sale of their character and conscience and self-respect, in the shilling or two for which they sell them!

ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF ALMS.

XX

The difficulties of wisely giving alms are very great, and call for a Christian's prayer, insight, and common sense. Alms often foster idleness, lies, and hypocrisy; and discourage industry, thrift, and good management, and create jealousies; however carefully they are distributed.

In administering alms from the offertory, the Vicar gives to a few aged people a small weekly allowance of food; sometimes he gives to the sick a single gift, or helps convalescents to get change of air; and at Christmas he distributes a considerable sum in coals and flannel. These alms he almost always gives, after consulting the District Visitors concerned, and through their hands. But he takes the sole final responsibility for these alms upon his own shoulders, and, notwithstanding all his pains, he no doubt often makes mistakes.

The District Visitors, on the other hand, also gives alms out of the District Visitors' Fund (an account of which, as of the offertory, is to be found in our annual parish reports). For these alms they use their own sole discretion, never consulting the Vicar

REV. H. CURTIS, M.A.,
Vicar of Church of the Ascension, Balham.

Bayswater, W.

July 14th. 1900.

Interview with Rev. Hubert Curtis, Church of the Ascension, Balham Hill.

38
5-18

Mr Curtis has been Vicar of this parish since it was formed 10 years ago. He is a man of about 45, but looks much younger. He has light hair, blue eyes, a fine ruddy complexion, a charmingly pleasant face, and an appearance of radiant health and good humour. Mr C. has been on the School Board, the Wandsworth Board of Works, and is at present Chairman of the Guardians, and I suspect both as a man, a parson, and a public character has been and is one of the most influential people in this district: but he owes his influence rather to profound common sense combined with great charm of manner and appearance than to any great ability.

The population of the parish at the census of 1891 was 5000: it is now probably ~~10000~~ 10000 owing to the large number of new streets which have been built. Eighteen years ago the inhabited by an almost entirely of the upper and middle classes, though even there were some of the working class between Temple and Oldridge Roads. Some of the wealthy and a considerable number of the middle class are still left in High Street Lane, Walker Hill, and some of the roads to the north of the parish: but the new streets are entirely working class or small clerks, while many of the old streets have departed.

Mr C's report gives full details as to his work. He began here with a small iron church and has built the church, a large hall, and the Vicarage. The last volume of his remarkable Tell of Ripon on Page 4, perhaps requires some explanation: the variations in the totals of contributions in the last volume are due not to any decay of enthusiasm on the part of the people but solely to the varying demands of the work: there has practically been ~~no~~ any difficulty in getting as much money as was wanted for any specific purpose.

Except in summer when attendance for three months is slack Mr C. has a full church, but it is on purely congregational lines, and a large proportion, more than half, come from outside: and in spite of his success Mr C. does not think this a church going neighborhood. Mr C's congregation is almost exclusively wealthy and middle class, and has a large element of men, especially young men. ("They will come all right if you talk sense" said Mr C.): the working classes keep completely aloof: a mission service in the Hall has been tried but was a complete failure. Yet the Church has through a large band of visitors, and from the fact of Mr C's public position is unusually well known, and "now & then the church regarded in a more friendly way": but the friendliness is due mainly to "loans and fishes", the parson is looked on as "a retiring officer". Among the poor the religious indifference is growing: but not to any great extent among the middle class, though the bicycle has had a demoralizing effect.

The Sunday school has about 450 children.

Touch with the parish in the poor streets is very complete through the visitors and the nursing, which Mr C. says is unusually thorough. Through their agencies a great deal is given away; apart from what the visitors may give privately and they are mostly ladies of some means. Mr C. reckons that in direct relief and through the various subsidized clubs and agencies about £540 goes into the parish, so that the "loans and gifts" here are worth scrambling for: he admitted that "he give too much" but at least he practices the sensible plan of giving in large amounts: most of the direct relief goes to the sick and no sum is spared to set people on their legs again: the work is given carte blanche as to how it is spent and many are sent to convalescent homes. The parish is nearly all in straits when there is no C.O.S. but Mr C. is "not enamored of the C.O.S."

So far as work among the people in their homes goes the Church is practically alone here: there is a Wesleyan Chapel and a small Primitive Methodist but neither have much following and they do no visiting or relief work. A good many of the lads go to the Church Institute: "a one here show" said Mr C: "when Baku dies it will tumble down."

Local government is not satisfactory: roads are not well kept, and a great deal of very nice building is going on: this however Mr C. says is the fault of the L.C.C. rather than the Board of Works. It is undoubtedly due to corruption somewhere.

The policy of the Poor Law is on the humane side: there is much out-relief and that on a adequate scale: (e.g. yesterday the Board gave a widow 15/- a week for 2 months): there is classification in the Home and the Home for the Aged at Tooting is as comfortable as possible. The constant difficulty of the Guardians is the un-bodily loafer, and they should has more ample power to deal domestically with these. Speaking of the S. D. F. members

Mr C. referred to Rogers as "a buffoon": Mrs Gray he evidently mistrusted, and he alleged that both she and Rogers are paid a considerable sum.

Police: good.

Drink: not excessive: "very moderate".

Prostitution. Aephan Courson a house of vice: much of it not professional: girls get them "spooring" with men and it naturally leads to seduction. Police ought to do more than they do. Many kept women and semi prostitutes in some of the new streets off Dalman Hill.

Thrift: the weakest point among the people: little saved: all goes in pleasure.
The women of the artisan and clerk class for the most part "amazingly & feckless": get up late, gossip, hours left untidy and dirty:
the litter of orange peel etc left by the hands entertaining often still in the parlour in the middle of the week.

To the Parishioners and Congregation of the Church of the Ascension, Balham Hill.

THE VICARAGE,
BALHAM HILL,

January, 1900.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

Introduction. For the eighteenth time I have the pleasure of presenting you with my Annual Report. It compares favourably in almost every respect with previous ones. Notwithstanding the migration of many old friends to other neighbourhoods, almost all the Societies show a balance to the good, while the roll of Communicants is as high as any in the last few years, and the number of those who have been baptised and confirmed exceed any previous record.

The sum total of voluntary gifts is necessarily less, owing to the fact that there has been no special work commenced or completed as has been the case in almost every year since I have been privileged to minister amongst you. Indeed, with the exception of the Tower, I am thankful to say there are no building operations in front of us.

CHURCH WORK.

Sacraments and Services. Compared with last year the number of Communicants has slightly increased, a proof, I trust, of the growing steadfastness of many of you in the grace of true religion. The clergy, however, have sometimes to note with sadness the falling away of some who used to be most regular in their attendance at the Altar. Some who used to come to our Communicants' Services seldom, if ever, come now. Holidays or some other special circumstances have caused them to break through the good habit, and the Festival of Easter alone seems to rouse them to a sense of their privileges. The same may in a measure be said of our congregations on Sunday. There is a want of regularity amongst strong and healthy people. Bad weather is, I fear, often welcomed as an excuse for non-attendance at Church. During the last year we have suffered much from wet Sundays, and these have told their tale. The congregations have been thinner than I have ever known them, and the strange fact about it all is that those who live but a short distance from the Church stay away, while those, who live a long way off, come. To my mind, what I have stated, points to a want of earnestness in religious matters, to a growing disregard of the Apostle's precept, applicable surely, I might say especially, to public worship on the Lord's Day—"not forgetting the assembling of ourselves together."

I feel it my duty in no complaining spirit, but in all Christian love to touch upon these facts, and to leave the consideration of them to those to whom they may apply.

As regards our Services generally I believe they are acceptable to the great body of worshippers. The musical portion of them if not elaborate, is well rendered, hearty and reverent, owing in no small measure to the untiring industry of our Organist of eighteen years' standing, and to those members of the Choir who so kindly and constantly give their help in leading the praises of God.

For further details as to the comparative results of our ministerial work, I would refer you to the Tabular Statement on page 4, by which you will be able to perceive an exact account of our whole situation and judge for yourselves.

Clerical Staff.

At Christmas the Rev. P. Leith Tomkins severed his official connection with us, and is now in a more responsible sphere of work at Lewisham. His place is taken by the Rev. T. Pownall Owen, who is already known to some of you, and will, I am sure, be cordially welcomed by you all. My old and valued colleague, the Rev. S. G. J. Allnutt, has entered upon the sixth year of his ministry here as Senior Assistant Curate.

Mission Room.

As I indicated in my last Report this has not proved attractive as a place of worship, and I accordingly think it advisable to abandon it as such, and to keep the principal room for the use of the members of the Working Men's Slate Club, for Bible Classes, and other occasional meetings. In lieu of the Services here, we propose to hold at stated times Services in the Parochial Hall. The Rev. S. G. J. Allnutt conducted a most successful series of Lantern Services during Advent, which were largely attended, and I have great hopes that such, periodically given, may prove a greater lever towards Church-going on the part of our poorer brethren than any other means we may adopt.

The Building, as stated last year, is useful for other things. The upper rooms, not only afford living accommodation for the Assistant Nurse and her aged mother, but form an admirable centre for the Parish Nurse to keep all articles that are required for the sick room. As regards financial matters I am sorry to say that the deficit of last year has not yet been replaced by a balance to the good, and I am the unfortunate Treasurer.

PASTORAL WORK.

Relief of the Poor.

In the earlier months of last year there was less call for relief than usual, but the immense amount of sickness during the latter months caused a heavy drain upon our resources.

Fortunately we have been able to meet it, and close with a balance to the good. In view, however, of the ravages of influenza, I am afraid that by the time you get this Report this will probably be exhausted. During the year £3 9s. 4d. was spent in wine and brandy; 989 relief tickets given; 337 pints of beef tea distributed; and £10 18s. 6d. expended in sending convalescent cases to Bath, Droitwich, and the sea side.

Christmas Fund.

Besides gifts in clothes £82 16s. 6d. was sent in cash. Of this sum £43 10s. 9d. was spent in helping 98 families (a few terrible cases of illness I relieved with substantial gifts of money), and the balance transferred to the credit of the District Visiting Society.

Parish Nurse.

There has been a great deal of illness in the parish, and several trying cases of cancer and consumption involving an unusual amount of attention and care. Consequently Nurse Marion and her Assistant, Miss Warsley (who, I am glad to say, has proved herself a very able and useful ally), have made between three and four thousand visits during the past year. It is a wonder to me how the parish existed so long without a resident Nurse. She is not only a helper of the poor, but in many indirect ways she assists the clergy in their ministrations, and I cannot ask you to support an institution which, I honestly believe, is more beneficial in every way. Owing to the successful Sale of Work conducted by the Ladies' Working Party, I am happy to say that the funds shew a large balance to the good, and if the subscriptions amount to as much as those of last year, we shall have enough to carry us along for some months to come.

Mothers' Meetings.

These have been well attended, and are almost self-supporting. I must express my regret, and I am sure that of all the members that we shall soon lose the help of Mrs. Leith Tomkins, who has taken so much interest in this and other works in the parish. Her loss will be a real one, and while lamenting her departure I can only wish her God speed in the good work which she is sure to undertake in some other neighbourhood.

Maternity Society.

Thirty-six married women have during the past year availed themselves of the benefits of this Society.

Needle-work Society.

Eight hundred and sixty-nine garments have been sold, and 143 women employed during the past twelve months. I am sorry to see that the subscriptions have fallen off, upon which alone the Society has to depend for paying its workers. The demands amongst poor women for earning a little in this way are very great, but the Society is obliged to "cut its coat according to its cloth," and has accordingly been forced to refuse many applicants for work, whom otherwise it would have been only too glad to have employed.

Parochial Hall.

The Hall is in a flourishing condition. We have been fortunate in letting it very well, and the few, who have kindly kept up their subscriptions, have enabled the Treasurer to show a balance to the good. I am sorry to say we are losing as Treasurer, the valuable help of Mr. G. J. Green, who has shown his interest in the Hall for some years past, and done a considerable amount of detail work in connection with it. Major-General Gifford has kindly promised to take his place, and I trust, that under his management, matters will be carried on as happily and satisfactorily as heretofore.

Provident Society.

The deposits collected by the District Visitors amounted to £461 10s. 9d., and the bonus paid on such £43 11s. 2d. The Balance Sheet on page 26 will show you the various details. There is a slight deficit. May I ask for increased subscription for a Society which helps the poor in the best way, viz., by making them help themselves?

Blanket Fund.

One hundred and sixty-nine blankets have been lent to 92 families.

Slate Club.

Some 200 working men belong to this. The weekly payment is 6d., and several have received as their right in times of illness 10s. a week. The share-out at Christmas was larger than it has ever been before, viz., £1 3s. 9d. per member.

Parish
Library.

As I intimated last year this has done its work. The opening of the Public Library and the establishment of Children's Libraries at the two large Board Schools supply all that is needed in the way of literature. I have accordingly handed over the slight balance in hand to the Mission Room, which, amongst our institutions, was mostly in need of help, and propose to give the books to some poor parish situated in the destitute parts of the Diocese.

Temperance Society.

Work in connection with Temperance has been chiefly confined to the members of our Band of Hope. The "Improvement Classes," conducted by Mr. Way, have proved a great success, and the children seem to be interested in them. It is impossible to talk about Temperance every week, but we occasionally have a meeting for that purpose, when the advisability of Total Abstinence for Young People is urged, and the virtues of moderation and self-control inculcated. I wish we could find some kind friend enthusiastic in the "Temperance Cause" to revive the work, which, I fear, is greatly needed, not only amongst the men, but also amongst the women of our parish.

Sunday
Schools

It is a great satisfaction to me to be able to report that I never knew the Schools in better order or in a greater state of efficiency. This is mainly owing to Mr. Ravenhill, to whom we owe a debt of gratitude, for the interest he has taken in the Schools as Superintendent. His labours would be greatly lessened were he always sure the Teachers would attend regularly, or if unable to be present on a given Sunday would let him know early in the previous week. In saying this I do not wish to undervalue the services of our Sunday School Teachers. When many of you are comfortably seated at your firesides they are labouring in the Word and Doctrine, and endeavouring to fulfil the Master's Commission to His Church—"Feed My Lambs." We still want more (at least eight) of these self-denying men and women, and I only wish I could get a few of the younger people I see before me on Sunday to come and help us in this way.

Bible Classes.

Miss Mickley has kindly undertaken to conduct the Young Men's Bible Class on Sunday afternoons at the Mission Room. I have great hopes that many of the lads who have been under her influence in the first-class at the Sunday School, and have outgrown that stage, will join, and that she will have a large and interesting class.

The Rev. S. G. J. Allnutt is thinking of reviving the Young Women's Bible Class at the same place on some weekday afternoon or evening. Any who have young Domestic Servants, whom they would like to join, should communicate with him.

Ladies'
Working Party.

I must congratulate the members of the Working Party on the result of the Sale of Work held in aid of the Parish Nurse Fund. The Sale realised the large sum of £87, and when we consider that this was the outcome of some £18 spent in materials, we can understand the taste that must have been displayed in the choice of patterns, &c., and the amount of work that must have been bestowed on the various articles. The Ladies' Working Party seems to thrive notwithstanding the lapse of years since it was started. The members are most united, and I take the opportunity of expressing my sense of the valuable help they have constantly rendered, not only to the Parish, but also to the Diocese, in the amount of money they have been the means of raising for various objects, both here and elsewhere.

Working
Guild.

One hundred and sixty-four garments were made during the year, and sent to the poor parishes of Camberwell and South Wimbledon.

Ministering
Children's League.

The Branch of the League in connection with our Parish is not as flourishing as it was. Children grow up and cease to be members, and their places are not taken by others. I am afraid many of our well-to-do brethren do not grasp the objects of the League, or they would encourage their little ones to belong to it. The main intention is to teach children to be thoughtful for others. No better virtue or one more in keeping with the example of "The Friend of Little Children" can be implanted in young hearts than that of unselfishness. This the League fosters by encouraging its members to give some of their pence to support the Cot at the Home for Destitute Children at Ottershaw, and to make useful and pretty things which are sent to brighten up the inmates of our Hospitals and Workhouses. If any parents wish to know more about the principles and methods of the League, I will refer them to the General Secretary of the Clapham Common Branch, the Rev. S. G. J. Allnutt, who will give them all information. In a district which includes so many young families there ought to be at least a hundred members, which number might be easily doubled.

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH BOTH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

Outside Help.

Our gifts to outside objects have surpassed those of last year. I am glad to record this, as a narrow parochialism is the bane of the Church of England, and we are apt to forget that we belong, not only to one particular Parish, or even to one Diocese, but to the Church of our Lord, established throughout the world. To be mindful of this fact is an incentive to us all to realise our membership in the Body of Christ, and to reflect upon the statement of S. Paul that "If one member suffer all the members suffer with it." To relieve this suffering, whether physical or spiritual, is the privilege of all according, as God has endowed us with great or little wealth.

In keeping with these remarks it is satisfactory to report that £71 1s. 7d. was sent to the Hospitals through the Metropolitan Hospital Sunday Fund, and £48 19s. 8d. to the spiritually destitute of South London, through the channels of the Rochester Diocesan Society and the South London Police Court Mission.

Foreign Missions.

As regards Foreign Missions we have contributed £25, chiefly to Missionary Work at Delhi, in which we, as a Parish, are more particularly interested. But besides money intercessory prayer is needed for those who are still "lying in darkness," and I am grieved to notice the apparent failure of what I had hoped would have been a bulwark of strength in this direction, viz., "The Missionary Guild." The members seem sadly to forget the service on the first Wednesday Evening in each month.

CONCLUSION.

I have endeavoured to keep this Report to the details of our Parish Work, and have purposely avoided referring to the troubles which have beset both Church and State during the last few months. But I cannot be unmindful of them, and as we enter upon another year let us pray that God may direct all things to a right and lasting issue. The year is pregnant with events of the greatest importance. As Citizens, therefore, let us all strive to be found loyal, dutiful, patriotic. As Churchmen let us pray to be kept humble, faithful, consistent. And if it please our Heavenly Father that we reach the close of the year in peace and prosperity, to His Name alone, we will ascribe the praise and glory.

Believe me, always

Your sincere Friend and Pastor,

HUBERT CURTIS.

Interview with the Rector of Clapham. the Rev. C. P. Greene at the Rectory. No. 34
Macaulay Road.

Mr. Greene is an old man, nearing 70, has been here 15 years with a yellow white beard coloured by smoking near the mouth, middle height, cultured, quiet, type of the country gentleman rector, an adviser & administrator rather than a militant churchman. Has 5 curates under him now & will have 6 by next November.
The rectory is a large yellow brick building with flower garden & good lawn behind big trees all round: large rooms & passages, opening on to garden: trees & carriage sweep in front: The Rector's study, one end all books to ceiling, the other comfortable low chair, writing table & papers littered on floor tables. He mislaid our first letter.

The

The parish boundaries are .

 Common & up Wix's lane to Lake Rd.

In Character. ^{the Parish} runs through all the grades of colouring from yellow to light blue.

Cedar Rd & Maganlay Rd & the large houses on the North ^{Side} of the Common, are the best: the worst is in small courts off the Old Town & the end of North St.: & in the small streets at the S.W. end of Manor Street: here are very poor: such ^{as there} is, is of the old village type of poverty &
 is of long standing:

Great changes are going on: the merchant princes have left & their place has been taken rows of £40 householders. Old St Clapham has moved to Kensington or Surrey & new Clapham is coming up out of Kennington. There is constant change in the new streets. They are taken on 3 year leases & as it is easier to get a new landlord to do up a house for a new tenant than for an old one & as moving is thought nothing of in the £40 class so the inhabitants are constantly changing. Eagle House & its gardens that belonged to Mrs Edgar (of Swan & Edgar) & stretched from the Common to Elms road is now covered by 600 pk 6pb. houses. A few large gardens still remain. The population of the parish is estimated roughly at 13,000 persons.

Religiously speaking the main feature of Clapham of to day is the high church tone of its parish church & its Catholic surroundings. The old Clapham sect & influence is gone. Mr. Greene has been here 15 years; when he came his predecessor said that when he came (13 yrs before that) he'd just remembers some of the original people - but that even then their low churchness was 'more of a shibboleth than a reality'.

Roman Catholics.

 Now the tone of all the churches is 'definitely high but not extravagant'. The Parish Church is kept purposely lower than the others -
 The Romans are strong on S^t Marys - 'Our Lady of the Flowers', in the Clapham Park Road. They have the convent of Notre Dame on the Common, & either here or in their schools occupy the very house in which either the Bible Society or Church Missionary Society was started. They give both a cheaper & better education than the Clapham High Schools & get hold of many of our girls in this way. Those who are still low church in Clapham affect S^t James' Clapham Park or S^t Barnabas' Clapham Common.

The parish church has altogether a peculiar position in the hearts of those who belong to Clapham.
 It is a big rather ugly, yellow brick building standing

standing by itself, surrounded by a belt of old elm trees at the N.E. edge of the Common.
'all who have formerly belonged or can by any stretch of the imagination be said to belong to Clapham, come to be christened, married or churched here.' It is the mother church & its Rector is ^{still} considered the natural head of anything in the district eg. vestry, guardians etc.

The Parish Church holds 1100 & has between 5-900 both morning & evening.

S^t. Saviour's (Chapel of Ease) held in the Cedars Rd holds 500 & has a congregation of 300. it is higher than the Parish church: it has lights on the altar at early celebration.

S^t. Peter's (the Messiah Church) in Manor S^t. holds 400 & gets 350. It is higher still & 'goes in for vestments.'

There is also a childrens service at 10.45 AM in S^t. Anne's Hall, Brunell's Rd; on Sunday about 200 come.

Also a childrens service for those above the

Mens Service

Sunday school status at the Parish Church.

At 4.45 is a simple service for men only, under the care of one of the curates. Have good preachers down at times. Never less than 100 come & sometimes as many as 400 to hear the Bishop or Canon go.

This men's service is a special feature & is greatly helped by a men's service Council which meets every month at the rectory to discuss church affairs. They don't have any power but they seem to have & they like it & we get to know what they feel & want. It is a way of getting men to church. They begin here & then come to morning service as well.

For full list of services see p 6 of the Report.

The poorer streets are all marked out for visiting. 'When a servant is kept visiting is impossible'. The little general stands between you & the householder & can be made the medium of such messages. Mr Greene visits his congregation but ^{has} given up the idea of any house to house visitation. Two curates visit men in the evening while another goes to the homes of the children also in evening; both with good results.

Visiting

Clubs.

Working mens Club (about 200 members) just across Bel-ford Road. affiliated to Club Union - Run by a Mrs Hall of the India Office. Tell drink at Hall's special request: no drunkenness there: some they wanted drink but thought they shd be allowed to make the experiment.

There is also a St Anne's young mens club with reading writing & billiard room for the clerk class: here they have alternately a Bible class or a Debate on Mondays for members. The rooms are given by the Rector but otherwise it is self-supporting.

Boys Voluntary School in Macaulay Road.
Girls & Infants School in the Old Town - founded in 1649 & enlarged in the jubilee of George III & Queen Victoria.

3 Sunday schools are held these schools & at St Peter's Church. in all an attendance of about 600. 'This is not really a Sunday School district'. The children are only a few chrs of the congregation, parents go elsewhere or nowhere. Chapel goes down in the least mind sending their children to church schools.

Schools.

Have 3 mothers meetings. Poor respectable women - Husbands like them to come because of the clothing they get from them. Begin with prayers & then have reading aloud. Treats every year. This year a day at Brighton.

No special nurse but can always get help from Mar.
-mia Rd (S. Met. Nursing Assoc)

Charity. Works with COS. Workcombe the secretary an excellent fellow, full of resources & kindness.

He ^(gives) stopped all coals & blankets when the first came. Now they relieve mainly the aged & the sick.
The offerings for Parochial objects amount to £684. & for Non Parochial objects to £285. see pp.
10 & 11. of report at the end of interview.

It is getting more difficult than it was to get money but is still not very difficult.

Police. Decent men. Hears no complaints.

Prostitution. much on the Common. Women come out of Central London: old vicious & diseased does not know what can be done to stop it. Police were active but after the Cass Case they have stopped taking any steps.

Now he wd be glad of licensed houses. He knows what good has been done in garrison towns - Women especially young women deterred by fear of examination.
The worst part of the common prostitution is that the old vicious get hold of young women.
There is a Soccesan Society headed by Mrs. Talbot for the protection of the young women of the District but it is very difficult work.

Marriage. Very few under 20. generally have saved something to start on. He sees them & talks to them when they come to ask to be married in the Parish Church.

Houses. The large houses have only been preserved by Homes & Schools. The new are not the worst types of jerry building: but the wealth & magnificence of Clapham has gone for ever.

Health. very healthy.

CLAPHAM RECTORY,
June 26th, 1900.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

The observance of our Dedication Festival has marked the completion of another year of our Church life. Such a time is an occasion both for humble thankfulness to Almighty God for His many blessings to us as a congregation and a Parish, and is also a reminder of the great responsibility that rests upon us as to the use of those blessings, or of our failure to use them aright. "Unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required." The chief feature of the Festival, this year, was its close, when we observed not only the octave of our own Festival, but also the beginning of the 200th year of the great Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. In the morning a most interesting and able sermon was preached by the Bishop, and sermons no less interesting and able, by Canon Gore, at the Men's Service, and in the evening. The offertories throughout the day were given to the Bi-centenary Fund of the S.P.G., and amounted to £29 4s. At the Children's Flower Service on Trinity Sunday, a great number of very beautiful pot plants were offered, and were afterwards sent to the North London Fever Hospital, The Deaconess Institution (for the Poor of Battersea), the Hostel for the Dying, and to our own Sick Poor. Our Children's Orchestra added to the brightness of this service by playing the accompaniment of the hymns, and at the closing services of the Festival, the combined Men's and Children's Orchestra accompanied the canticles, hymns and Festal Te Deum. It is a great credit to all concerned that we should be able to mark our greater Festivals by such orchestral music.

On another page will be found a communication from the Churchwardens, which will be read with interest by all members of the Parish Church congregation, whether seatholders or not. As I mentioned from the pulpit on Sunday morning last, the population of Clapham has grown considerably during the past few years, and is still growing, and the seating accommodation at the Parish Church is not now equal to the demands made upon it; the Churchwardens are most anxious, and so am I, to do all in our power to find room for those who desire to attend the Parish Church; it seems hard that there should often be many vacant seats, and yet at the same time many people wanting seats, some of whom are kept away from Church because they dread the painful possibility of being turned out of seats to which they have been shewn. This I regret to say has occasionally happened, and has been the cause of much bitterness of feeling.

I appeal, then, to the seatholders, as I appealed on Sunday, to do all in their power to help the Churchwardens—(i.) by coming to Church five minutes before the actual hour of service; (ii.) by welcoming strangers into their pews whenever there is room; (iii.) by letting the Churchwardens know, as far as possible, when they are likely to be away from Church.

The old tradition of jealous sensitiveness as to the rights of seatholders is surely as unchristian as it is unlovely; we may be deeply thankful that it is steadily giving place to a healthier, kinder, and more Christian attitude of mind. I do most earnestly ask all who are seatholders to take my words in good part, and to give the aid I have ventured to suggest. One great gain to be attained by the enlargement of the Church will be that by it some 120 seats will be added to the accommodation on the ground floor, all of which will be free and unappropriated.

An account is given elsewhere of our very pleasant and successful Social Gathering in the Rectory Grounds, which I was glad to lend for that purpose, it quite came up to our expectations.

Thursday last was the unfortunate day chosen for our annual Sunday School Treat. The morning looked unpromising from the first, but the forecast in the newspapers was encouraging; no sooner, however, had we started in our special train than the rain began to come down with an ominous steadiness; on our arrival at Oxshott there was no improvement; still, undismayed and cheerful, the teachers and children scattered in the pine woods for walks and games—alas! their faith and hope were ill-rewarded, for the rain came down as steadily as before, only more heavily. Altogether it was a most disastrous day. Further, the expenses swallowed up the money which had been collected, all but 15s., and now £5 is required for the Infants' Treat which has been fixed for July 5th. I shall therefore be glad if some of our kind readers will send small donations to Mr. C. Harris, 53a Klea Avenue, to the Superintendents, or to myself, in order to make up the required sum.

I very much hope that the effort now being made by some of the members of St. Saviour's congregation to maintain the Church House, will be successful; there ought really to be no difficulty in raising the money required, now that Mr. Franklin has been authorised to canvass for and collect subscriptions. I know that he will do the work energetically, as well as with tact and judgment, and I hope that the response that he will meet with will encourage him to persevere. Asking for money is not a task that many of us enjoy, and those who are earnest enough in the cause of the Church to undertake it, ought to be encouraged in their good work.

I wish to remind all parents interested that there is a simple Service for Children held every Sunday at St. Anne's Hall, at 10.45 a.m. This service takes the place of the morning Sunday School, and is intended both to instruct the children and to train them for the Church Service. The doors open at 10.30 a.m.

Yours very faithfully,
CHARLES P. GREENE.

PARISH CHURCH SOCIAL GATHERING.

IT would have been difficult for the most critical person to have felt anything but pleased at the Summer Social Gathering of the Parish Church Congregation, which took place on Saturday, June 23rd, in the Rectory grounds. The weather, perhaps the most important factor, behaved magnificently, as the threatening clouds of the morning gave place in the afternoon to brilliant sunshine, tempered by a refreshing breeze, and over three hundred people were thus enabled to appreciate a most enjoyable garden party. The music was in the hands of a professional band, whose scarlet uniform lent additional brightness to the gay scene. The refreshments, which were excellent, were managed by a small committee of ladies, presided over by Miss Boyson, to whom many thanks are due, as well as to those ladies who kindly contributed towards the expenses. The members of the Men's Service Council ably acted as stewards, and assiduously dispensed tea to everyone's satisfaction.

A pleasing feature of the gathering was, that the whole party, with very few exceptions, wore tastefully made buttonholes, which not only contributed to the festive appearance of the occasion, but resulted in a substantial addition of £7 to the Restoration Fund. For this, we must congratulate the ladies who so kindly gave the flowers and their services, both in making up and selling the buttonholes. Among the visitors we were glad to see Mr. Sladen, Mr. Dingwall and Mr. Tower, nor must we forget the ever friendly "Jummy," who wearing a red, white and blue buttonhole, took a prominent part in welcoming the guests.

Apart from the actual enjoyment of the afternoon's proceedings, there can be no doubt that the occasion served to make us all better known to each other, thus promoting a feeling of fellowship, which we hope future gatherings will strengthen and improve.

MINISTERING CHILDREN'S LEAGUE.

THE annual meeting of the Clapham, Battersea and Balham Branches was held on Saturday, June 9th, in St. Anne's Hall, Clapham. The Rector of Clapham presided, the speakers being Miss Medhurst, the Rev. J. Hasloch Potter, Vicar of Holy Trinity, Upper Tooting, and Rural Dean of Streatham, and Canon Erskine Clarke. A tastefully chosen selection of music was rendered by the Clapham Children's Orchestra. Miss Blower sang with pathetic feeling "Jeannette," by Alicia A. Needham, and Miss Harrie Millar played a violin solo with exquisite taste. To attempt to transcribe Mr. Potter's bright address would be to spoil it, but it will be long remembered for its point, humour and suitable application to M.C.L. work. Next came Miss Medhurst, who spoke of the three Ottershaw Cot children, encouraging Cot donors to continue their good work. The Countess of Meath's recent noble work for the blind in Egypt, and other ideals of M.C.L. doings were repeated. Miss Medhurst and Mr. Potter were thanked by Canon Clarke, who delighted the children with his bright and witty speech. Mr. Barber, Hon. Sec. for Battersea, in a few words seconded the vote of thanks.

The musical work of the Children's Orchestra is most noticeable and original, brightening Festivals and gatherings. . . . this Branch does special credit in its artistic excellence and vigour to the energy of its Chaplain and Conductor, the Rev. Leigh H. Nixon. . . . It is worked with thoroughness and evident good-will.—Extract from Miss Medhurst's report.

NOTICE.

THE Churchwardens desire to ask the seatholders of the Parish Church to be in their seats five minutes before the commencement of Divine Service on Sundays.

The large number of persons not possessing sittings who attend the Church makes the task of seating them a very difficult one, when it is uncertain until the actual commencement of the services whether the seatholders are coming or not, and it seems to be gradually becoming recognised that to obtain a seat, non-seatholders have a better chance by coming into Church after the service has commenced.

This is not only disturbing to the worship of those already in Church, but practically shuts out many from the very important and beautiful opening part of our Morning and Evening Prayer.

It is therefore proposed that from the commencement of the single bell, five minutes before 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. unoccupied seats may be filled by the Churchwardens or Sidesmen.

Seatholders who do not feel themselves able to comply with this request will perhaps kindly communicate with the Churchwardens.

BROMELLS' ROAD MOTHER'S MEETING.

THE members were so fortunate as to again receive an invitation from Mrs. Ball to pay her a visit and taste her kind hospitality. Accordingly a party of 34 mothers and 12 or 14 babies, accompanied by Miss Armstrong, Mrs. Jephson, Miss Walker, and Miss Tayloe, (with outriders in the persons of Mr. Newton and Mr. Tower), started from St. Anne's House on Tuesday, June 19th, in two brakes. The drive was thoroughly enjoyed, for the weather left nothing to be desired, and the country was looking exquisite. A hearty welcome from Mrs. and Miss Ball and Mr. Richard Ball awaited everyone on their arrival at "Ivyholme," Bromley. Some rambled in the adjacent woods; while those more enterprising, explored Sundridge Park. Tea (verily of the nature of that called "high tea!") was served at about four o'clock, and all the dainties provided by Mrs. and Miss Ball were duly appreciated. Later on the party assembled on the lawn, while Mr. Tower and Mrs. Jephson discoursed sweet music in the drawing-room. Fruit and cream, &c., were served before the departure of the holiday makers for Clapham, which was reached about 9 p.m. All said they had never spent a happier day, and were loud in their praises of the kindness they had experienced from their hospitable entertainers, to whom indeed the warmest thanks are due for their repeated invitations to the members of the Bromells' Road "mothers."

CHURCH OF ENGLAND TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.

TEMPERANCE folk are said to be fond of water; so we suppose we must be content when we get wet weather for our meetings. We do seem to have our share, and Monday, June 25th was no exception. So instead of having a large gathering in the Rectory grounds we had a smaller one in the schoolroom. Those who came had the pleasure of hearing a most interesting account by Mr. George Stewart (the manager) of the work carried out in connection with the Boys' Shelter Home in the Camberwell Road. Truly a rescue work of the most helpful kind, because its aim is to prevent boys and youths becoming drunkards; and to give them a chance of becoming honest respectable men.

The Rev. J. Hasloch Potter has kindly promised to speak to us at a meeting which we hope to hold in the Rectory grounds on Monday, July 23rd at 7.30 p.m. Do please come, and make up for our disappointment this month by giving the speaker a large audience.

NEWPORT MARKET SCHOOL, WESTMINSTER.

BY the kind permission of the Rector, the Rev. H. E. Simpson, is arranging for the boys of the Newport Market School to give a gymnastic display at St. Anne's Hall, on Thursday, July 12th at 8.30 p.m. Gen. Trotter has promised to be present and his engagements have necessitated a change in the date previously announced.

ST. SAVIOUR'S CHURCH.

S. SAVIOUR'S CHURCH HOUSE.

AN important Meeting of the Subscribers to the Church House, was held on June 6th, to discuss the financial position of the Church House, and to decide whether it ought to be carried on after the end of this year. Amongst those present were the following:—Rev. W. M. Dingwall (Chairman), Dr. O. Codrington and Mr. H. Secombe, (Churchwardens), Messrs. Mackenzie Evans, A. C. Bassett-Smith, T. T. Willcox, F. A. Keene, A. Bassett, T. Evans, T. Turner, J. Turner, T. Colley, W. Oxer, A. Nash, E. Nash, H. Franklin, W. Such, E. J. Dorrell, S. Swift, and others.

The Rector was prevented through illness from being present, but sent the following letter which was read to the meeting:—

CLAPHAM RECTORY, June 6th, 1900.

DEAR DINGWALL,

It is with more than regret that I write to say I shall not be able to come to the meeting to-night, but as I know quite well what I meant to say at the meeting, I think I can put it as clearly in a letter as viva voce.

1.—To attempt to carry on the Church House under present conditions is, I think, indeed I am convinced, a hopeless task, and much as I should regret to give it up, my voice would be distinctly in favour of that course.

2.—But if, as I gathered from Mr. Franklin in a conversation I had with him on Sunday week, he would be prepared to assist Dr. Codrington by: (1)—Seeing that all promised subscriptions are punctually paid; (2)—By energetically canvassing for fresh subscriptions, large and small; and if Dr. Codrington is prepared to accept this help, and the meeting thinks there is a reasonable hope that thus the income and expenditure could be made to balance, then I would definitely give my voice in favour of the experiment being tried.

3.—But even if the income should be brought up to the point of equalling the expenditure, there will still remain the responsibility as to the existing debt.

4.—Further, I am strongly of opinion that all connected with the House should consider it a point of honour not to allow the Treasurer to be in the position—the chronic position—of having to make good even temporarily, so considerable (or indeed any) deficit out of his own pocket.

5.—If then the Subscribers and Committee will brace themselves to face the situation and determine to keep the House going, I will gladly continue my subscription of two guineas, and will give £5 or if necessary £10 towards the liquidation of the debt, but if they feel that they cannot do this, then the sooner the House is given up the better.

6.—It must, in coming to a decision, be remembered that the House is a very convenient one for the Verger to live at, and also the Curate in Charge if an unmarried man.

I shall be interested to hear the decision arrived at. It is for the meeting and not for me to say finally what shall be done.

Yours very sincerely,

CHAS. P. GREENE."

The Chairman said he quite agreed with the Rector that a crisis had now arrived when some decided action should be taken, either to place the Church House on a sound financial basis, or to close it altogether. The former was much to be desired, but the great difficulty in the past in raising the necessary funds for its maintenance, caused the few who had regularly done their utmost to hesitate. He hoped they would, however, not withdraw their support, but increase it, as from the Rector's letter there seemed some reasonable hope of success in the future. To close the Church House would mean a serious loss to him and the spiritual work of S. Saviour's.

Dr. Codrington said he was quite willing to continue to act as Treasurer, feeling that the loss to the Church would be most serious if the House were given up, and welcomed with pleasure the offer of Mr. Franklin as Collector. He would like to see all the members of the congregation taking their share of the responsibility in this work, this done, the future of the Church House would be secured.

Mr. Franklin thanked the meeting for the confidence placed in him, and stated that in the course of the year he would appeal to every member of the congregation for a Subscription, large or small, he felt sure they all valued the work being done at the Church House. The liberal support given by the congregation to the Choir Fund, of which he had been Treasurer for some years past, encouraged the hope that they would not disregard his appeal in aid of the S. Saviour's Church House.

CHOIR FUND.

MR. T. TURNER, 1, Sugden Road, Clapham Common, has undertaken the office of Hon. Treasurer of "St. Saviour's Choir Fund" in succession to Mr. Franklin who has been appointed Hon. Collector to assist Dr. Codrington in raising the necessary Funds to carry on the "St. Saviour's Church House" which for some years past has caused great anxiety to those responsible for its maintenance.

ADDRESS TO THE PARISHIONERS.

MY DEAR FRIENDS AND PARISHIONERS,

In issuing the Fourteenth Report of the work of this Parish, now that I make a practice of writing a letter to you almost every month, in the Parish Magazine, I feel that I have little to say that cannot be better said in those monthly letters; still I should not like the Report to go out without an expression of my appreciation of the excellent work done, both by the assistant Clergy and the many earnest lay workers who give me their welcome help so ungrudgingly, and in so many different ways. For this help I am deeply grateful; without it much that is done would have to remain undone.

I desire also to commend to your continued sympathy and support the work of St. Anne's House, the Poor Relief Committee, and our Parochial Schools, and I also ask your help to enable us to carry out our not too ambitious scheme for making our old and much-loved Parish Church worthier of the purpose for which it mainly exists,—the Worship of GOD.

During the past twelve months we have lost not a few old and faithful friends of the Church, amongst them EDWARD PENNINGTON, and HENRY CHEESE, the one connected with the Parish Church almost from his infancy, the other for many years a devoted friend of St. Peter's Church. And only this month have we had to mourn the loss of FRANCES WESTMACOTT, one of the truest and best of women. May GOD in his goodness raise up others to take the place of those who are thus called away, from time to time, from their work on earth to their rest in Paradise; it would be a want of faith to doubt that it will be so.

I cannot close this short letter without expressing my deep sense of obligation to Mr. W. E. JEFFERY, who has most kindly undertaken the laborious work of editing this Report.

With all kind wishes and earnest prayer for your welfare, temporal and spiritual,

I am,

Your faithful Friend and Rector,

CHARLES P. GREENE.

Passed and adopted by the Council.

WALTER E. JEFFERY, Hon. Treasurer.

THE PARISH CHURCH RESTORATION ENLARGEMENT FUND.

Up to the 31st December, 1899, the sums subscribed and promised for beautifying and enlarging our Parish Church amounted to £3,080 12s.

The sum required is estimated to be about £6,000, and now that more than half has been given, we may look forward in confidence that the remaining portion will be quickly forthcoming.

The Church is at present in a sad condition of disrepair, and we are eagerly awaiting the time when the liberality of the Parishioners will make it possible to start the work of rendering it worthy of Divine Worship.

Subscriptions will be gladly received by the Rector or the Churchwardens, or they may be paid into the Account of the Fund at the London and South Western Bank, Clapham Branch.

Subscriptions may be paid in yearly instalments.

NOTE.—Since the 31st December, additional promises of help, amounting to £897 have been received, which, together with £100 received from the Fire Insurance Company, for damage to ceiling, make the total amount promised to date (29th April) for the restoration and extension of the Church £4,077

THE PARISH CHURCH ORGAN FUND.

The Organ of the Parish Church is, unfortunately, like the Church itself, showing signs of age, and lacks the improvements which have been introduced since the time, many years ago, when it was new. It has been determined that, if possible, this important factor in our Church Services shall be brought up-to-date, and placed in a thoroughly efficient condition.

To do this properly a considerable sum of money will be required, towards which there was on the 31st December last a sum of £167 os. 3d. already subscribed.

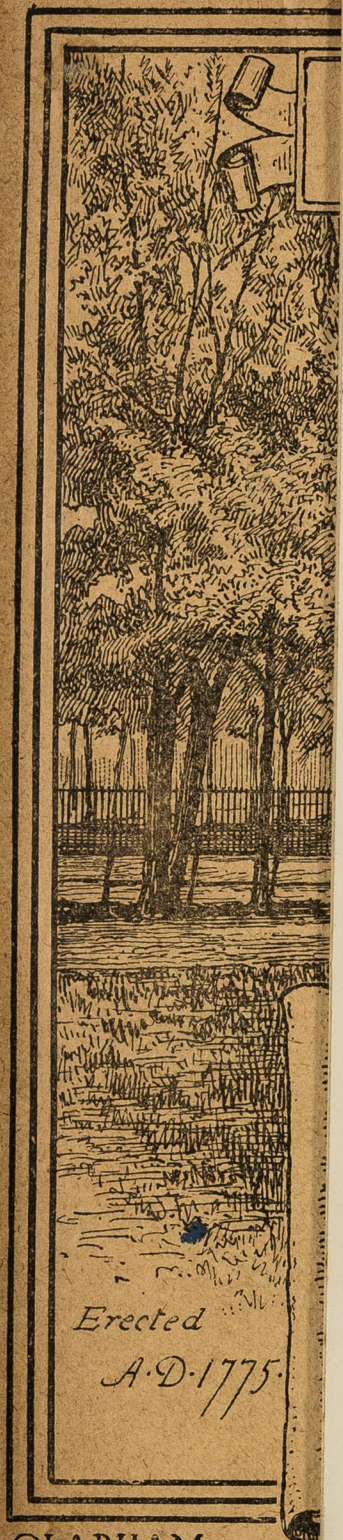

Though this object is perhaps less urgent than the restoration of the fabric of the Church, it is practically part and parcel of the scheme for making our Church as a whole worthy of its position as the Parish Church.

Subscriptions for the Organ Fund will be gladly received by the Rector, the Churchwardens, or the Organist, or may be paid into the Account at the London and South Western Bank, Clapham Branch.

PARISH MAGAZINE.

This Magazine is published by Messrs. POTTER, BATTEN & DAVIES, on the last Saturday of each month. Price 2d. Statements of all matters connected with our Parochial Organization will be found in it, and it is very important that it should have as wide a circulation as possible, among the members of our congregations.

Communications should be addressed to the Editor, the Rev. H. E. NEWTON, The Rectory.

CLAPHAM —

REPORT.

It is a matter for congratulation that our Schools still maintain their high condition of efficiency, as will be seen from the following Reports of H.M. Inspector of Schools:—

“Boys’ School.—This School is most successfully conducted, and good, sound work is done throughout.”

“Girls’ School.—The work is admirably done, and the influence exerted is excellent.”

“Infants’ School.—This School is carried on in a lively and vigorous manner. The teachers are zealous and painstaking, and the children are very happy and attentive to their work.”

Another practical testimony of the excellence of the teaching is the fact that two London County Council Scholarships were gained during the year—one by GEORGE HUDSON, of the Boys’ School, and the other by ADA HILLIER, of the Girls’ School.

Notwithstanding, however, the excellence of the Schools, and their most careful management, it will be seen that at the close of the School Year there was a deficit of £73 15s. 5d.

Recent legislation has undoubtedly done something towards maintaining the existence of voluntary schools, but it is based upon the principle of helping those who help themselves. The Managers desire strongly to impress upon their fellow-parishioners the importance of supporting these Institutions, so vital to the future well-being of the Parish.

The numbers on the books of the Schools on 31st May, 1899, were:—

Boys	166
Girls	199
Infants	193

ST. ANNE'S RELIEF COMMITTEE.

This Committee has been formed to ensure greater thoroughness in the administration of relief in the Parish. Its object is to provide a centre, round which all those who work among the poor may gather and consult together about the many difficult problems which arise in their visiting week by week. It is the constant aim of the Committee, in every case of distress which may come before it, to go to the root of the matter, and to remove the cause of distress. This is a far more difficult matter than people generally think, and demands a great deal more thought and patient loving effort than the mere giving of a sack of coal or a 2s. grocery ticket. But it is the only kind of relief that really helps, and is therefore worth the trouble. Real help is that which in some way permanently improves the condition of the recipients. This is the aim of the St. Anne's Relief

Committee, which has embodied the same in the following three principles:—

1. To help the poor in the best way; therefore to aim at so helping them as to render them independent of help for the future, rather than to lead them to depend on Charity. For this purpose to deal thoroughly with all cases which are taken up.
2. Not to use charitable relief as an agency for proselytising.
3. To co-operate as far as possible with the Guardians of the Poor, the School Board, and with all the charitable agencies of the neighbourhood.

The fund is for the purpose of encouraging thrift. Sums are collected weekly and returned with a premium of 2s. on all amounts over 8s. J.H.D.

Interview with the Rev. Fred. Alex. Ormsby vicar of Christchurch: at the vicarage
Clapham.

Mr. Ormsby is a handsome man, about 40, clean shaven, dark ^{hair} high forehead, charming voice rather nervous manner: smoking a large cigar in a large & comfortable study as I came in, he had a slight brogue & I think he must be Irish. Told his servant who came in to announce someone else while I was there, that he was having a worse time than at the dentist but that the other men must wait.
He is not like him to look at or to hear talk but belongs to the same class of person as Chapman: a scaw loose somewhere.
Has been here 3 years coming from Brighton.
Almost everything he said is given in the printed interview with Church Bells which he

he gave me & is posted in at the end of this what follows is only a short commentary. He knew nothing about figures or numbers but will have them made out for us if we want them.

The parish is bounded on the North by the suburban boundary; on the E by Chilton Street. On the S by a line cutting Silbella, Broomfield & Gauden roads & continued through the railway to Manor St: & on the West by the Railway (vid opp page)

Its general colouring is purple to pink on the North side of the Wandsworth Road: pink to red between Larkhall Rise & the Wandsworth Rd: & red in Silbella & Gauden roads.

"It contains 5000 persons of whom 4000 are of the poorest of the poor: you may say they are not but that is because you do not know: my streets are not quite so bad as ~~standard~~ Dushwood & Stockdale Streets in the next parish (on map 45): & I have never heard of Woodgate, Belfour & Porton

Character of Parish.

Panton Street (with black patch by the gas works)."

Mr. Ormsby was not in the least annoyed at being corrected.

Those who are not the 'poorest of the poor' keep a 'slut servant.' The best roads are Laithley, vice, Sibella & Garden roads. District going down socially. Has been a marked decline ~~in~~ in the 3 years that he has known it.

The worst roads in his opinion are Pensbury, Sherloc & New Rd. (in many parts). Their inhabitants are coal poters, railway men & billet manufacturers.

'Indifferentism' is the characteristic feature.

The Church holds 800.

It is fairly filled in the morning & full in the evening.

The morning congregation comes largely from outside. Keenit notes & the mention of Ormsby by Sir W. Sturcott in the House of Commons has been a good advertisement & has filled the Church.

Mr. Ormsby calls himself a Broad High Church

The difference between the High Churchman.
Roman Catholic.

Churchman : he goes in for 'everything that is possible': he has not added anything himself but carries out the practice of his predecessor: out of personal regard for the Bishop he has given up incense on Sundays but manages to burn it on the feast of the Dedication. But he told the Bishop that if he was ordered publicly to desist he should refuse publicly - Confessions, vestments, masses processions; all the practices of the Romish church he follows. His most particular about the music, has a fine choir (who are 'just paid enough to live') & a good organ & organist. Professional singers also give him help. He draws a line between himself & a R.C. because he does not believe in the Infallibility of the Pope. 'That will prevent me or those like me from ever going over to Rome.'

Only 3 of his congregation & one or two boys have become Catholics. He discovered that his schoolmaster was in the pay of the Guilds.

High Church Finance

the Jesuits was getting at his boys & he sacked him.

He has a daily Celebrating at 7.30 AM & on Thursday for children at 9 AM.

He has a Guild of the ^{Blessed} ~~Communion~~ Sacrament: a Guild of St. Mary for girls & of St. George for boys: & of St. Joseph of Arimathea for burial ("the only solvent club in the parish"). He has B.P. classes & cricket & football clubs: & club with horizontal bars & billiard table.

He never worries about money: his own stipend amounts to £96 net but is insufficient to keep up the Rectory. He has built school which is still £100 in debt, & a Vestry Hall also in debt. He has no money to pay his curates their next quarters allowance. The diocesan fund gives him £20 but the ad. rural curates society refuses him anything. But he knows that the money will be given him. "I have only to appeal from the pulpit." "I am not a rich man like my pre-possessor, besides I believe in making my people

pay. & they do pay.
Visiting he regards as one of the most important parts of Church work. It is not his but his curate's business. One is given the ^{street} N of the Wandworth road & the other the South, at the end of the year they change about. He has just found out that one curate has not paid a visit for two months & is going to send him a stiff letter. At present this curate is on a holiday & has been replaced by Mr Callcott of St. Alphage's South work who was inhibited some time ago for drunkenness. A most excellent man & good worker whose drunken habits are merely a disease! he wants careful watching.

~~He~~ - bone but the patient dies while they make their enquiries. Refuses out of work cases.
 He is starting a church & stage guild: is a great friend of Mr Toole & his confessor: visits him at Brighton every ^{week.} ~~evening~~
 He preaches 2 sermons on Sunday: in the morning for 15 minutes & in the evening for 30 min: is a good preacher at least thinks he cant be bad because the Bishop chooses him ^{to preach} so many of his charity sermons.

Police

Every Sunday evening he has open house & supper for any 'artists' that like to come: is a strong believer in the influence of the theatre.
 Police dont keep a sufficient guard over his church has two or 3 times had his altar vessels &
 'holy vestments' stolen. He shewed me two patterns that had been picked up in the Relation of boys & girls

Relations of boys & girls, young & old 'simply aw.

Simply awful:

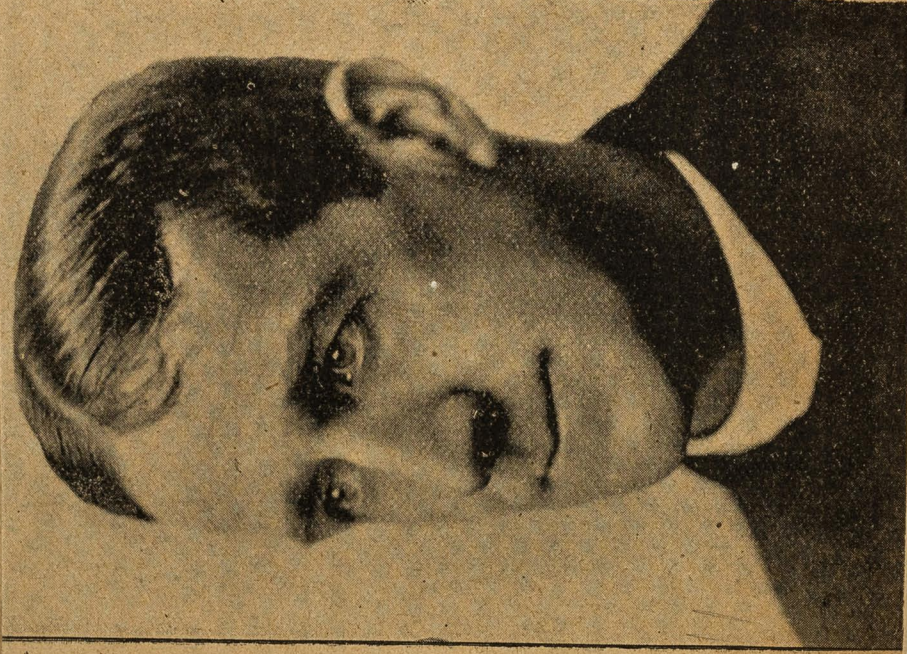

Mr. Ormsby will be very glad to answer any further questions. He is off tomorrow to Brighton for 2 months as chaplain to the London^{CI} Volunteer Artillery in camp there. He suffers greatly from overwork & want of sleep. The only place he can be sure of sleep in is the train. Broke down from overwork & was ill for a year after his work at S. George Hanover Square.

On Saturdays he holds a 'black mass' for the repose of souls but refuses to say a requiem for the repose of any special soul.

Chats with the Clergy.

THE REV. F. A. ORMSBY, VICAR OF CHRIST CHURCH, CLAPHAM.

WHEN I called on the Vicar of Christ Church, Clapham, at the vicarage in Union Grove, I found him in the study, which has the reputation of being the largest private room in Clapham. The 'Eight hundred. It is entirely free and open. There is a good congregation, including a large number of outsiders. I always make a point of standing at the end of the church on Sunday evenings, in order to speak to any who may desire to see me.'

'Are there any special services?'

'I think not. There is a daily celebration, and on Thursdays, at nine, there is one for children. On Sundays, at eleven, the celebration is choral. There is a mission service in the church exceptionally good, thanks to the efforts of the organist, the master and organist, Mr. George Way, and a large voluntary choir of gentlemen. But all the services were here when I came. I have neither added to nor taken away from them. We have everything in the church that can be desired.'

'How about the schools?'

'As I mentioned, we have no building of our own. With the consent of the patron, I have given part of the glebe as the site for the new schools, and I have in hand, or promised, some 1200*l.*, half of which was contributed through a parishioner. Among the donors are Sir Henry Irving and Mr. Toole, who is a friend of mine. I take a great interest in matters connected with the stage.'

'What is the total sum required?'

'About 2500*l.* Plans of the new buildings have passed the Education Department, but there is a difficulty in commencing operations. The glebe cannot, it seems, be conveyed to the Diocesan Board of Education until the buildings are completed. However, I am hopeful that this obstacle may be overcome. It is indispensable that we should have accommodation of our own. At present, we have only infants and girls in the schools. Although the existing building has been the only school-house from the time the late Vicar entered upon his duties, it is not at all adapted for the purpose.'

'You will have boys when the new buildings are opened?'

'Yes, the new schools will be infants' and mixed. I feel sure that we shall get them in time. One immense advantage is that we are rich in respect to teachers. They are so good that I could not possibly say too much for them.'

'Are you well off generally speaking for lay helpers?'

late Mr. Bradley Abbot, under whom the parish grew, and by whose instrumentality it was developed, built both the church and the vicarage, and Mr. Ormsby was very anxious that his predecessor's unwearied labours and splendid liberality should be fully recognised.

'Everything there is here,' he said, 'was done by Father Abbot, who for upwards of forty years laboured in this parish. His work is visibly commemorated by the handsome vestry which has been built at a cost of 520*l.* as a memorial to him, but the present generation of parishioners require no memorial to endear his name to them.'

'Does Mrs. Abbot still take an interest in the work to which her husband devoted his life?'

'The greatest possible interest. She also liberally supports the church and the parochial organizations.'

'What is the population of the parish?'

'About seven thousand. There are very few resident gentry. More than half the people belong to the working classes, and a large proportion of these are out of work. The remainder are clerks and persons of very small means. It is an exceedingly hard parish to work.'

'Perhaps you will indicate the difficulties?'

'The initial and great difficulty is that there is no room for meetings except the schoolroom, which, being rented, does not belong to us, and a stable called the parish room, where we hold Bible classes and mothers' meetings. This means also that there is no place for holding mission services in the really poor portion of the parish.'

'Where is that portion situated?'

'It lies on the far side of the Wandsworth Road. The people there won't come to the church on account of the distance, and our most urgent need is a site on that side of the road.'

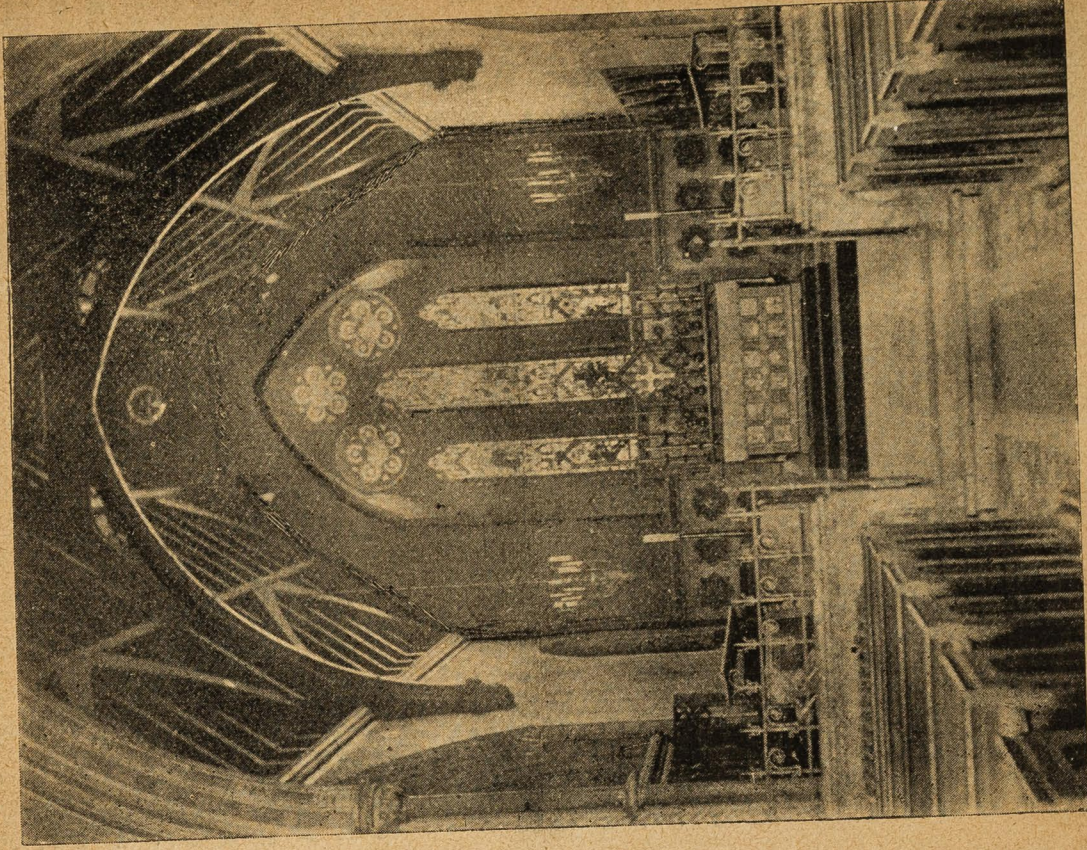

'Would you start building a mission church if you could get the site?'

'Certainly I would. It is absolutely necessary for conducting all sorts of services. But we cannot even obtain a suitable room. How many worshippers does the church hold?'

'Very well, indeed, though I do not wish to specify any in particular.'

'In alluding to the services, you did not say whether you have some for men only?'

'I tried them on Sunday afternoons in Advent and Lent,

INTERIOR OF CHRIST CHURCH, CLAPHAM.

but the result was not satisfactory. There was an average attendance of between forty and fifty. But I intend to resume them in the coming Advent. At Brighton I used to have them regularly on the second Sunday in the month.

'You came here from Brighton?'

'Yes. The date was October 27th, 1896. I was inducted by my brother, the Bishop of Honduras, who preached at the induction.'

'And your previous experience?'

'I was ordained to the curacy of West Rainton, Durham, in 1877, my brother being vicar. From 1879 to 1885 I was senior curate of St. Thomas's, Portman Square. During a portion of that time, and for eleven years altogether, I was chaplain of the Orthopaedic Hospital in Hanover Square.'

'When you gave up the curacy of St. Thomas's, Portman Square, what happened?'

'In 1885 I was appointed incumbent of Hanover Chapel, Regent Street, and held that position until 1890, when my health broke down and I resigned. In 1891 I joined the Rev. C. Hardy Little, vicar of St. Martin's, Brighton, and there my principal work was among soldiers.'

'Did you get on well with them?'

'It was the most delightful experience of my life. I worked among the Innskil-

ling Dragoons, the

1st Royal Irish

Rifles, and, for a short time, with the 1st Royal Sussex.

I was always well treated by both

officers and men,

and if I were start-secure a decent, respectable, and reverent funeral for its members by means of a very small weekly payment. There is a Ward of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament which was formed in 1864.'

'Have you started any organizations since 1896?'

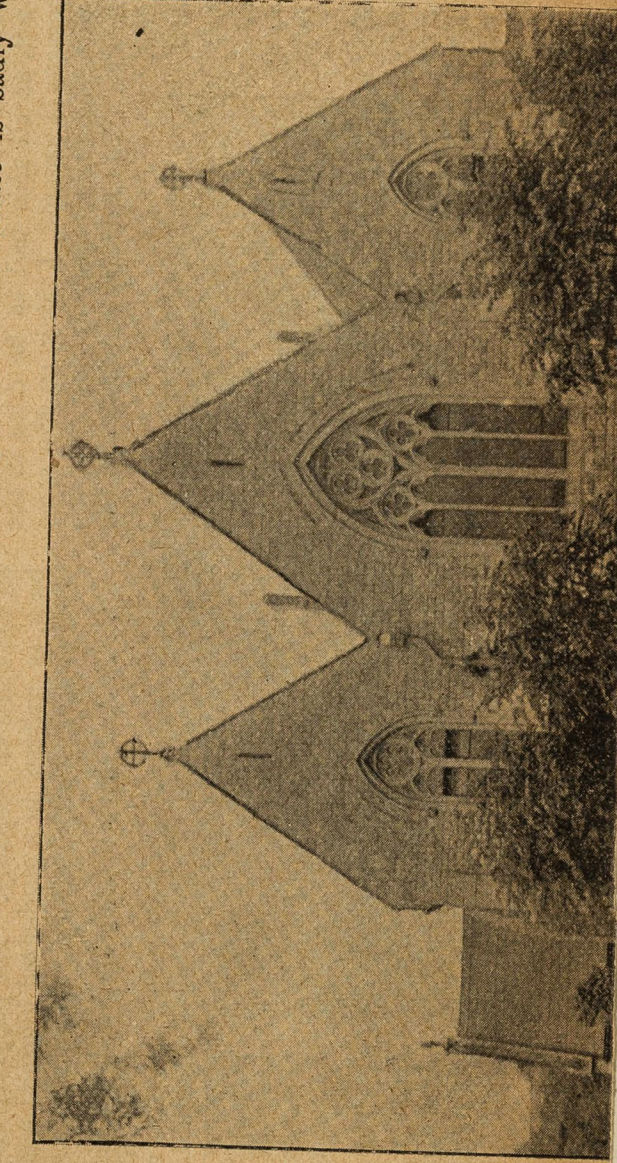

'A branch of the Church Lads' Brigade. I have also started large Bands of Hope for boys and girls. I do a good deal of C.E.T.S. work. We should have adult Bands of Hope, but there is no room for them to meet in. In connexion with the guilds and choir there are football and cricket clubs. A famous Surrey cricketer is one of my parishioners.'

'Do you play cricket?'

'It is one of my hobbies. I am a member of both the Surrey and Sussex Cricket Clubs, and would play in the night if I could. My other hobby is fishing. I believe in providing amusements for the men in the parish, and I am trying to develop that sort of thing here. In the winter we have concerts and entertainments. Hitherto, we have only issued a yearly report, but I am about to run a parish magazine.'

'How are you situated financially?'

'The gross stipend is 200*l.* a year with fees and Easter offering. I have no reason to complain of the amount of the Easter offering, but another curate is badly wanted. There are two several. The principal have been at Christ Church, Hackney, in 1884; at Baden-Baden, in 1885; and at St. Margaret's, Leytonstone, in 1888. I was senior missionary at Leytonstone.

'I am now,' continued Mr. Ormsby, 'a member of the Brighton School Board, and go down there every Tuesday.'

'When were you elected?'

'I took my seat on the day I was inducted here, having polled the largest number of votes ever recorded for a Churchman in Brighton. It is most agreeable work.'

'How do you get on with the Dissenters there?'

'Splendidly. I try to keep the religious question out as much as I can. As to other duties, I am chaplain and commissary to the Hospital in Marylebone, honorary chaplain to the West End Volunteers (with whom I have just been in camp), and domestic chaplain to the Duke of Manchester.'

'What are the duties in connexion with the last-named post?'

Mr. Ormsby smiled as he said, 'They are very light.' Then I went back to parochial topics, and asked about the Sunday schools.

'They are increasing rapidly,' said the Vicar, 'and we want more accommodation for them badly.'

'Have you many guilds?'

'Three have been at work in the parish for many years: that of St. George's for young men and boys who meet every Saturday night in the schoolroom, and also have a special service with an instruction in the church on the last Sunday afternoon in the month; that of St. Mary's, for women and girls; and that of St. Joseph of Arimathea, which is a funeral guild. The object is to

Yet the coins in the bags were only 191.'

'You have told me of your want of a mission church and of new schools. Have you any other needs?'

'We are not very well off for holy vessels. There was a robbery at the church in February, and the robbers, who smashed a lot of doors, stole two chalices and two patens, as well as a gold ciborium more than two centuries old. They also destroyed my presentation holy vessels for private use.'

'There is one thing more we want very much,' concluded the Vicar, 'and that is a spire as a landmark. Christ Church is easily accessible out of Wandsworth Road through Union Grove, or out of Clapham Road through Union Road, but strangers often complain that they cannot find the church.'

And after I had been inside the church with Mr. Ormsby, and noticed its many beauties, it seemed to me that the addition of a spire is absolutely needed to make the exterior worthy of the interior.

CHRIST CHURCH, CLAPHAM.

Report for 1898.

DEAR PARISHIONERS & FRIENDS,

In presenting to you the Report of the Parish for 1898, it is well to begin with things we are thankful for. Our Congregations are still good. Our Communicants increase, but slowly. Our Sunday Schools are in a flourishing condition. Our Day Schools prosper.

The Bradley Abbot Memorial Vestry has been completed, the contract having been carried out by Messrs. Johnson & Co., Wandsworth, from the plans of G. Blizard, Esq., Architect, of Nicholas Lane, E. C.

The debt on the heating of the Church has been completely paid off, also the heavy expenses incurred in repairing the Church roof have been discharged with the exception of replacing the Crosses blown down by the recent gales.

I will now bring before you things that require special attention and monetary assistance.

The Churchwardens' Account, though fairly satisfactory, leaves a debt which I trust the readers of this Report will speedily remove. The Sacristy and the old Vestries have been renovated at a cost of about £25 which I hope someone will send me.

Of our Church Music and Choir I cannot say too much, nor can I speak too highly of the ability, diligence, and self-denying work of Mr. G. Way, our Choirmaster and Organist. A new piano was necessary for the training of the Choir, and surely those who appreciate and value our Services will enable me to pay off the balance of £25 due on this account.

Of my Assistant Clergy, the work they do speaks for itself. I believe every house in the Parish has been visited; our children, notwithstanding the sneers of a statesman, are taught the Catholic Faith. Our Sunday Schools are increasing. Our sick are ministered to, and it is the fault of any parishioner who does not come in touch with the clergy, who are ever at the service of those entrusted to their care. I must earnestly ask for new subscribers to help me to maintain the valuable services of my present colleagues, as, up to the present time, I have received no assistance from the Additional Curates' Society. Help towards this fund is now more than ever needed, as I am negotiating for a new Mission Room in the very midst of our poor.

Money, towards our new Schools, comes in but slowly; during Lent I will issue a fresh appeal. All our other organizations are in a healthy condition, and to all the many workers with me in the Parish I tender my most heartfelt thanks. May I ask you, who read this Report, and who see your names recorded as subscribers, can you not do a little more to help me? And to you who look for your names in vain, whether parishioners or members of the congregation only, is it not your duty as a matter of Thanksgiving, to give something to help on God's work in such a poor and populous Parish. To my personal friends far away, outside the Parish, I am sincerely grateful for all they have done towards the support of our many charities.

"And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His Grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified."

Your affectionate Friend,

FRED. ALEX. ORMSBY,
Vicar.

Interview with Rev. C. H. Bowly, St. John's Clapham Rise.

Mr Bowly is a man of between 55-and 60: tall thin, handsome, with fair hair and beard turning gray, and gentle gray eyes; a very kindly and pleasant but rather weak face.
Essentially a gentleman, but not a man of any power or vigour.

Mr B. turned up half an hour late for our interview, having been kept by business in connection with the building of a new school for the parish. Half way through our interview Mr
B. came in, and sat knitting, occasionally putting in a remark.

Mr B's account of his parish was exactly that which one would expect. told at rather leisurely length, and with a good deal of trivial detail.

Mr B. came here six years ago and during that time there has been a rapid downward

more, the villa population moving out and their place being taken by two families to a house or people who let lodgings; however the people in Sanden, Bromfield, Chelcher Road etc are still mainly middle class. There is a small working class population east of the Union Road, guards, police, bus, tram, railway, but all very quiet and respectable and little poverty except in Slade Road and Clark's Cottages.

The church is only paid in the parish and draws as much or more from Stockwell as from Clapham. It is a large Georgian building seated for 1000 and with an average congregation of 400 morning and evening; those who come are almost entirely of middle class. As to the others their attitude is one of great friendliness; at root they are religious, are anxious that their children should receive religious instruction, and flock readily to social meetings, but for churchgoing their attitude is "How can I?" many work on Sundays and are tired; it is their day of rest and recreation.

and frankly Mr D. gives them up as a bad job

The number of communicants in S. Johns is over 300, but many are away.

There are 270 children in the Day School, and about 350 in the Sunday School. The Day School was in Ch. Ch. parish and drew very few children from this parish: hence the building of new schools.

The poor streets are thoroughly visited: the others are also visited: visitors: an attempt to visit is apt to lead to a slammed door and the remark "I'm a respectable person."

About £20 a year is spent on whips, in tickets thro' the D.V.'s. Difficult cases are sent to the C.O.S. who are very searching in their methods, though not perhaps too searching.

Regarding the Protestants, who do not visit, no hand can be seen to affect the parish: at one time there was a Wesleyan sister at work in the poor streets, but now the church

Bowly - S. John

visitors have it to themselves.
 On general questions Mr D. gave his parish a good character: no complaints were made: the people are quiet, order, sober.

JUNE, 1900.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

The various Parish accounts again are in a satisfactory condition, there being no adverse balance. Considering the war and the New Schools and the loss of several old friends this is decidedly encouraging, and shows not only the zeal and business like qualities of our Hon. Treasurers, but also the generosity of the friends of S. John's. I feel however that the burden falls comparatively on a few, and I would earnestly appeal to the new members of our congregation to help on the various agencies for good in the Parish.

The great event this month affecting the Church as a whole is the Bi-Centenary of the S.P.G. Notices of the Services and Meetings appear in the Calendar, and I hope many will be able to attend. No one who studies the spiritual expansion of the Empire during the last 200 years can fail to see that the blessing of God has been on the work of the Society—"Since the Jubilee in 1850 the 25 dioceses then existing have grown to 94. In 1850 British Columbia and the N.W. territories were unknown to the Church. In the three Indian dioceses there were only 70 European missionaries. The Punjab had only just come under British rule; Burmah was untouched by the Church; China's gates were closed, except where English treaties had opened a few maritime ports; Japan and Corea were enclosed in their mysterious and apathetic solitude. Now we have seen land after land opened to the Heralds of the Gospel, old fields stretching out to the regions beyond, widening horizons everywhere, unexplored lands brought into close relations with England and the Church; the 1,186 clergy in foreign parts in 1851 multiplied four-fold." (S.P.G. report for this year.) An effort is to be made to raise at least £250,000 as a thank offering, and I hope the congregation of S. John's will do their utmost during the Bi-Centenary year (June, 1900—June, 1901) towards this good object.

The great events for our own parish are connected with the New Schools. This work, so long hoped for, so long unavoidably delayed, is now approaching completion. Many have done their best for this good cause, combining the continuance of our Day Schools on a site within our own borders, with a Parish Hall available for Sunday Schools, Clubs, Leagues, Penny Bank and various agencies for good, not omitting opportunities for social gatherings and amusement.

I would ask all to remember that we have still a hard task before us, £700 is still to be raised, and part of this we hope may be obtained by the Bazaar on June 25, 26, 27. May I appeal to you to support the Building and Bazaar Committees to use every effort to make the Bazaar a great success? Make it known to all your friends, and induce them to come with you. Also appeal for subscriptions in every quarter, outside the parish as well as within. If all do their duty (like our gallant soldiers in South Africa), the Schools will be relieved!

Two other matters claim our help, the Hospital Sunday Fund, and the Sunday School Summer Treat to the Sea-side. Notwithstanding the urgent needs of our Schools, I do not think that you will forget the sufferers and the children. Pain and childhood have a way of penetrating the heart and pocket.

I feel that this letter is one long appeal, and being Englishmen, some of you will probably growl, but being Englishmen you will also pay, for if the cause be good (and is not our cause good), help is generally forthcoming.

Yours affectionately,

C. H. BOWLY.

The Vicar, having been appointed a Surrogate by the Chancellor of the Diocese, applications may be made to him for marriage licenses.

DANCE AT S. JOHN'S NEW SCHOOLS.

It is decided to hold a dance in the New Schools on Thursday, June 28th, from 8.30 p.m. till 1 a.m. Tickets 3s. 6d., including refreshments. As we are anxious to make as much profit as possible we shall be glad of money contributions towards the refreshments, or the following articles will be acceptable: Lemonade, coffee, milk, sugar, soda water, ham, lemons, cakes, biscuits, sweets, jellies, butter, sandwiches.

If you are willing to contribute anything kindly send a post-card, stating the amount, by June 19th, to Miss K. BOWLY, S. John's Vicarage, Clapham. Tickets can be had at the Vicarage.

NEW S. JOHN'S BOWYER SCHOOLS.

The Schools will be dedicated by the Lord Bishop of Southwark on Saturday, June 23rd, at 6 p.m.

The Grand Bazaar on behalf of the Building Fund (£700 still required) will be opened by the Lord Mayor (accompanied by the Lady Mayoress) on Monday, June 25th, at 4 p.m. The Bazaar will be open from 4—10.30 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 25, 26, 27. Prices of admission: First Day and Opening Ceremony, 2s.; Second Day, 4—6, 2s.; 6—10.30, 1s. Third Day, 4—6, 1s.; 6—10.30, 6d. Tickets may be had at S. John's Vicarage, of Mr. T. W. Ockenden, 75, Jeffrey's Road; Mr. W. Wilde, Beech Cottage, 14, Larkhall Rise; Mr. Gude, The Stores, 356, Clapham Road; Mr. Bedford, S. John's Bowyer Schools; Mrs. Sharp, S. John's Infant School, and Mr. Stiff, Verger, 6, Union Road. Season Tickets, 2/6.

Mrs. Bowly will be glad if all contributions towards the stalls for the Bazaar are sent to her at S. John's Vicarage by June 18th. Any articles of work, china, or household goods, will be gratefully received.

S. JOHN'S ONWARD LEAGUE.

Friday, the 4th of May, we were pleased to be able to again welcome amongst us Mr. Smart, who came to address our Band of Hope on temperance. For nearly an hour he kept the children interested in a story of the Dragon of Drink.

The following week the Rev. J. H. Jennings came over from Dulwich and spoke to the children, telling them all about the sun, the moon, and the stars. We hope he will come again soon and tell us more about the solar system.

On Friday, the 18th, the Rev. C. Humphreys addressed us and told us much that was interesting about the Missionary Guild in his own parish.

The last Friday in the month the children gave their own entertainment as usual, which went off well and was much appreciated.

The Onward League closes at the end of June and will open again, all being well, in October.

EXCURSION TO THE SEASIDE.

Subscriptions are earnestly invited for our Annual Treat for the Sunday Schools and Bible Classes to the sea-side, and may be sent to Rev. W. A. Chaplin, hon. treasurer, 45, Chelsham Road. The date and place will shortly be announced, and it is hoped that many of the friends of S. John's will join the party.

JULY, 1900.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

On behalf of the Building Committee of our New Schools, I must thank, most heartily, the patrons, stall-holders and assistants, the generous donors to the various stalls, the organisers and artistes at our entertainments, and all who favoured the Bazaar with their kind presence and assisted in the proceedings. Nor must we forget those who sent such a lavish supply of excellent refreshments in answer to the appeal of Miss K. Bowly, for the dance on Thursday last. Everyone worked hard during the week, and the brightness, zeal, and good-fellowship all round were delightful to witness.

We must refer our readers to the Clapham Observer and the Local Press, for details of the proceedings at the Dedication Service and also at the Bazaar - but we should like to supplement their excellent accounts, by recording our gratitude to Mrs. and Miss Cope, Mrs. Cass and Mr. Carter for their arduous labours with their "throwing game," which manifested all the advantages of a raffle with none of its illegality. The game was in full swing every day. We are also very grateful to the Rev. C. P. Greene, Mr. Ockenden and Mr. O. Ruddock, the Auxiliary Stores for the kind loan of flags, also to Messrs. Garrett and Son, for arranging the tarpaulin at the entrance gate, free of cost, and so providing against the heavy showers.

So many persons have kindly helped us in various ways, that it is impossible to acknowledge each of them personally, so I hope they will accept this announcement of the best thanks of the Building Committee, for their kind co-operation.

The stalls were provided by Mr. C. L. Gilbery, of 217, S. John's Hill, New Wandsworth, and were not only tasteful and ornamental, but admirably suited for their purpose.

We cannot yet state the financial result, but we hope for about £120 net—not unsatisfactory in a war year, when constant appeals have been made to the purses of the public. And we must also remember that for years past the friends of S. John's have been subscribing to the Building Fund, and have given again and again to it.

I think all present agreed as to the suitability of the buildings for their double purpose for Schools and a Parish Hall, and we must again congratulate the Architect, Mr. Robson, on the success of his plans, and Messrs. J. Garrett & Son, on the excellence of their work.

Mr. Bedford, Mrs. Sharp, and all their staff of teachers, did their utmost for the cause—and shewed they could work outside the Schools as well as in, while the scholars had a good view of the Bishop and the Lord Mayor's Show—the boys forming a guard of honour, and also marching through the streets previously to the functions, headed by the band of the "Carter" Home.

The week was one of hope for the progress of all our work in the schools and parish. It fitly began with the invocation of God's blessing, and solemn dedication to His service, while the festivities which followed no less fitly expressed the truth that true religion is in touch with the complete nature and full needs of man. Social joy characterised the Jewish Festivals which Christ observed, and Christianity must guide and purify our recreation but never condemn or despise it.

The Railway Companies have raised excursion fares and withdrawn privileges, so unless further donations to our Sunday School Sea-side Excursions are forthcoming, the money already kindly subscribed will be returned and the Treat given up. May I plead with you to save our children from such a disappointment. They are eagerly expecting their annual "happy day."

Yours affectionately,

C. H. BOWLY.

S. P. G. BI-CENTENARY.

Sermons were preached on June 17th in almost every Church in the Rural Deanery of Clapham on behalf of the Bi-Centenary Fund. Meetings and Services will be held in the autumn. Sir Whitaker and Lady Ellis gave a garden party in their beautiful grounds at "Bucclough House," Richmond, on June 18th, when addresses were given by Missionary Bishops and others, describing the work of the Society. We were glad to see some members of S. John's congregation at the garden party.

Interview with Rev. J. W. Danford, Curate of St. Paul's Clapham.

Mr. Hughes, the Vicar of this parish, has been for some years a notorious dipsomaniac, and some weeks since under pressure from his bishop he resigned his living, and retired for a year into a Retreat for Inebriates, the Bishop Mr. Danford tells me, having promised to find him work of some kind when he emerges.

Mr. Danford himself has been here for 18 months. He came knowing nothing of Mr. Hughes' habits, and was so charmed with them and the parish that he bought a house in Lambeth Rise.

Mr. Hughes is a man of very great ability, a magnificent preacher and a great organizer of other people's work, but since Mr. D. came at all events he has done no pastoral work: "from Sunday to Sunday" said Mr. D. "we have never seen him." The odd thing is that under these conditions the church has been numerically prosperous,

(See the remarkable figures as to Communions. Mr H. was appointed in 1850): until quite lately when the scandal which "has been going on for years" became more open, the church has always been full with a well-to-do middle class congregation drawn from all over Clapham, ~~draw~~^{attracted} no doubt by Mr Hughes' preaching powers. But lately under the influence of the "black cloud" which could no longer be ignored there has been a falling away: at present Mr H. gives the communion at 400 morning and 350 evening.

The population Mr H. divides as 8000 poor, 1800 lower middle, and 500 middle class. The poverty is nearly all north of Wandsworth Road: Ken Radleigh St, Chickton St, Bramwell St and Westing St are all very poor: Radleigh St in particular is desperately low and squelched and "there is a criminal in almost every house".

In spite of his failing Mr H. seems to have had the power of evoking work from others and there has never been any difficulty in finding volunteers to carry on all the usual parochial organizations, as may be seen from the Magazine.

The District-Visitors number 15 and through them relief amounting to about £70 a year is administered. Mr D. when he first came attended the meetings of the C.O.S. approves their principles and has the highest opinion of Woodcock: but found it too expensive to work with them: on each parish case that came up he found that the parish was asked to contribute half the cost: being a bad lawyer the amount always came from his own pocket: and he said that altogether it had cost him about £120.

Mission Sermons are carried on at the Mission Room in Heath Road but they are practically unattended, from 25 to 30 at the most: the working classes as usual are utterly indifferent to Religion, and few go anywhere: there is no chapel in the parish and none in the neighbourhood which drains largely.

On general questions: - Drink is as bad as can be: the drinking among women terrible: one sees "three drunken women to one man".

Prostitution: none in the parish, but Clapham Common has an evil name.

Gift: a great deal of money is put into state clubs: many men belong to them on four clubs.

Health: the high part of the parish is most healthy: in the lower part there is a great deal of rheumatism.

Housing. Rushleigh St. is very bad. By when there is great crowding. Rents are very high: as much as 4/6 is usual for a single room: there is seldom a room to let, and people are even paid to go out.

The attendance of the children has, on the whole, been fairly good, the number of the children on the lists being about 190.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND BAND OF HOPE TREAT.

THE day of the year (to our School children) has come and gone.

On Tuesday morning, June 26th, a party of 328 children and 42 adults, including Teachers, left Wandsworth Road Station at 9.15 for Ashted, which was reached about 10.

Fears were entertained as to the "quality" of the weather likely to be experienced, but, fortunately, the clerk of the weather was very kind, and not a drop of rain fell to mar the pleasure of anyone. The whole day passed off most happily, and without a hitch.

The happy faces of the children during the day was in itself a full reward to all those who have, either by their contributions, or their personal help on the day itself, assisted in making the treat such a success.

A further sum of about £4 is still needed towards the Infants' Treat, which will take place in a week or two.

A statement of the receipts and expenditure in connection with the above will be published in next month's Magazine. There was no time to prepare one for this issue.

The reports of the Curates' Stipend Fund and the Provident Society are not published, as they have not been received from the late Vicar.

MOTHERS' MEETING EXCURSION TO WORTHING,

JULY 2ND, 1900.

The "Mothers' Outing to Worthing was, unfortunately, much spoilt by the very unfavourable weather, though they certainly made the best of it, and bore the disappointment patiently. On arriving at the station two large brakes took the party a short drive, and put them down at Fox's Restaurant, in a pleasant room facing the sea. Here we were refreshed with strawberries (fresh gathered) and cake. After amusing themselves on the pier and parade, listening to the band, etc., they again met at Fox's Restaurant, where a most liberal repast was provided in first-class style, with every accommodation, even to providing sleeping room for the babies. They whiled away the time in the railway waiting room with reading and singing until nearly 7 p.m., when, after a pleasant journey, they arrived at Clapham Junction at 9.15, not very tired (as the day was cool, and not conducive to much exertion) and we believe all the better for the change and sea-breezes. We were 33 adults, 2 children and babies.

Aug. 10th. 1800.

Interview with Rev. D. Gritten, Curate of St. James', Clapham Park.

The late vicar of this parish, Mr Dillington, retired from ill health some months since. He was succeeded by Mr Hollis, whom I. H. saw at St. George's Trafalgar Park. Mr Hollis being a new comer referred us to the curate Mr Gritten, who has been here for 1/2 years, but has known the parish much longer, having been a worshipper at the church upon he was ordained, 7 years ago.

Mr Gritten is a curate of quite an ordinary type, and on his merits is never likely to be a vicar: a man with an abnormally small head, and a small intellect, but quite a good fellow, and well suited to this parish (which requires a gentleman).

This is now the great evangelical church of Clapham: among its previous vicars has been Percival Rowton of Islington, and Mr Lillingston has more than kept up the traditions: indeed so far has he gone on the evangelical tack that Mr J. (who however has the greatest admiration for him) described him as "a very lax churchman" "scarcely a churchman" meaning truly not that he was sceptically inclined but that he was as near or near to Dissent as to the Church: the church was largely attended by Dissenters and their help was accepted as Sunday school teachers and in other ways. Mr Hollis who too is an evangelical is meeting attractions, and is about to invite that Sunday school teacher at least what to communicate, with the result that there will be defections. Some too of the dissenting members of the congregation are falling away because they find Mr H's preaching not sufficiently stimulating after Mr L. and as Mr J. said "all dissenters think of is the sermon".

The parish is large in area but the city has not been thickly populated, nearly all the southern portion being the open ground around the mansion of Lepton Park.
 Part of this has gone and in three years Mr J. believes the best of the good houses will go. The present population is ~~unknown~~ unknown; at the best when it was 8000 and cannot now be less than 12000. Of these the larger proportion are middle class, clerks, business men, and servants etc.

The S. thought the average income of this class would be from £100 to £200 a year. There are some or five very rich families left, but the big houses as they fell vacant are now almost unlettable and are let at absurdly small rents for the remainder of the class.
 North of Clapham Park Road the population is almost entirely working class with a large theatrical and music hall element in Trenchard Road. The only poor bits are in Park Place, Piccadilly Place and the Triumph, Nelson's Row, and White Sq. The last named had an exceedingly bad reputation and it was not safe to go there at night: it is much improved, but is still very rough and the scene of much drunken ~~drunken~~ brawling; the inhabitants are mainly costers, poor labourers, and

cadgers of the lowest class

The church holds 1600 and until recently has often been full, but owing to Mr. Lillingston's ill health, and a consequent falling off in his preaching, there has been some defection, but Mr. S. gives the average congregation morning and evening as 1300, the Communicants last Easter being 528. Nearly all the middle or upper class, and from Mr. S. thinks non-parishioners. Men are unusually well represented, & better even than at the Ascension, Nelson, & part. From the fact that this has hitherto no doubt been a very neighbourhood for church work the main attraction appears to have been the personalty of Mr. Lillingston: he was "no organizer" but with great social gifts, commanding personal influence, and a very effective preacher of the sterner type.

The waking class are not altogether unrepresented in the church: some 20 to 30 come from back streets or Park Crescent: but the mission service at White St School only attracts 10 or 12, and here is where the poor go to hear.

The Sunday School has over 1000 on the books, and over 700 went to the tent (100 teachers).

The social work is on a very small scale: there are ~~two~~ two Mothers' Meetings, but even in the White St district only about 20 attend. Far the most successful thing is the Boy's Brigade with 70 or 80 members and from 40 to 50 attending a Bible Class. There is a small Young Men's Society which is kept together in the summer by cricket. Mr S. plays with them.

Mr. S. says that there is a good deal of unattached work, mainly in the form of Bible classes, carried on in the parish by members of the congregation. Mr. L. encouraged this sort of thing.

There are 25- District Visitors for the poorer streets, all ladies, but for the most part "very unwise": there seems to be no sort of control over them: they have given what they liked and sent in a bill monthly: through the church about £200 a year has been spent, and nearly all the visitors have given largely out of their own pockets, while Mr. Killington used to "lend a lot of money" not expecting to get it back, and not being disappointed in his expectation. Altogether I imagine that the White St. District has been properly punished. But though Mr. S. admitted the wisdom of

The visitors he hated the C.O.S. and its method, thinking it "much better to be done occasionally than to go in for an English espionage."

Outside the poor were then seen to have had much semi-social visitation of the clergy, and he has found that there are four houses to which he would obtain admittance as a friend in the first instance, while as a rule soon or later his clerical function is recognized and he is asked to talk to Jack who is "on the loose" or employed on some similar task.

As to other affairs - a good many go to the Wesleyan Church in High St. many to various Pops; others to churches in Boniton; on the whole Mr. J. thinks there is a church going population south of Clapham Park Road.

On general questions. Drink is "awful" in the poor districts but a still greater cause is gambling, which is the growing vice: all the men and boys bet and all the book paper shops set as agents for bookmakers.

There is no prostitution but in the poor districts a good deal of immorality and irregular marriages.

Health is excellent.

House in White Sq is bad: and there is much scandalous jerry building in the new middle class streets: many of the houses in Abchurch Road are tumbling down already.

Letter from the Vicar.

MY Dear Friends,

I thank you very much for the generous response you made to the appeal for the Indian Famine Fund. I felt sure that you would value the opportunity of contributing to this good cause.

Let me direct your attention to the list of some of our wants, which you will find in this month's Magazine. I would especially ask you to pray that the Holy Spirit may direct and control all our parish organizations.

Let us pray much at this anxious time for China, and for South Africa, remembering that prayer "moves the hand which moves the world."

Believe me,

Your sincere Friend and Pastor,

W. T. HOLLINS.

The New Hymn Book.

ON Sunday, July 1st, the new Hymn Book will be used in St. James's Church. This will be the Hymnal Companion, 3rd and latest edition. Copies of the book in various sizes may be obtained at most reasonable rates of Mr. A. Bachhoffner, or Miss Orage, High Street. The Cathedral Psalter can also be obtained at the same establishments.

Our Wants.

IN a large parish like St. James's there will always be needs to be met. We hope that, by mentioning the more pressing needs, from time to time, in the pages of our Parish Magazine, we shall lead our friends to do their best to supply these wants.

The great need, which is ever with us, is for a fuller outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Let us therefore all pray earnestly that all our worshippers and all our workers may be energised by the Holy Spirit, so that the work of our Lord and Saviour may be much advanced amongst us.

A pressing need is that every house in our parish should be regularly and systematically visited, so that to all our parishioners the message of the Gospel may be given. This can, to a large extent, only be done by the Clergy. There is therefore an urgent need of another Curate. With a staff of three Clergy this house-to-house visitation might be accomplished. Now will all our friends pray that the right man may be found to take up work in St. James's as second Curate? We want a Man of God, who will faithfully do the work of God in our midst. Next, will all pray that God, Whose is the silver and the gold, will move the hearts of our people to give liberally to the Curate Fund? In the Annual Report recently issued, the Vicar, after drawing attention to the small number of subscribers to this most essential fund, asked that the number might be increased tenfold, and shewed that this could be done if ten friends would give £5 a year, twenty £2, forty £1, and two hundred or more could give something. This might easily be done. Already some responses have been made, but many more must respond if this plan is to be carried out.

Again, we want Sunday School Teachers. From all our Schools the cry is the same. Who will volunteer for this most blessed work? The Vicar will be very glad to receive the names of any communicants connected with St. James's who will avail themselves of the high privilege of "feeding the lambs" of Christ's flock.

The Vicar will also be very glad to receive the names of any gentlemen, communicants, possessed of the musical qualifications necessary, who will help in our Church choir. Several ladies have volunteered to join the choir, and it is hoped that soon it will be possible to arrange sitting accommodation for this most desirable addition to the choir. Meanwhile, there is room for a few more ladies in the choir at the Wednesday Evening and Friday Morning Services, and the Vicar will be glad to receive the names of volunteers.

Our Soldiers.

OUR prayers are earnestly desired in behalf of the following soldiers of our Queen who have gone forth from our parish and congregation, and for their families at home. At our weekly Prayer Meeting on Saturday evening, each one is individually commended to the care and protection of our Heavenly Father.

Our Parish Magazine.

WE are issuing this month a special edition of fifteen hundred copies. We should much like to be able to maintain a monthly circulation of this number. We therefore ask the kind help of all our friends. Will friends kindly mention the Magazine to their friends, and try to secure fresh subscribers? Arrangements are being made for a thorough canvass of the whole parish, and we hope for much from this. We venture to draw the attention of our readers to the advertisements contained in our pages. We should be very glad if our readers would patronise the firms who thus give notice of their various wares. It is a kind and graceful habit to patronise local talent, and we doubt not that our friends will be well repaid if they cultivate this good habit.

A number of friends who subscribed at the beginning of the year paid the annual subscription of 1/6. The subscription is now reduced to one shilling. We wish to be quite fair and honest towards those who gave the higher subscription. We shall be very glad if they will kindly allow the proportion of the extra sixpence paid to be a donation towards the Improvement Fund. But if any would prefer to have the equivalent of the extra sum paid in copies of the Magazine, we shall be very pleased to meet their wishes.

The following donations towards the Improvement Fund are acknowledged with many thanks:—Anonymous, 6d.; Mr. A. Jones, 2/6; Mr. R. Brightwell, 1/6; Mr. L. Sommerfeld, 5/-; Mr. A. Smith, 2/-; Mr. R. J. Nicholson, 1/-; Mr. S. A. Roberts, 11/-; Mrs.

Sheppard, 6d.; Mrs. Gibbs, 2/6; Mr. E. M. Davis, 5/-; Mr. L. Ripley, 1/6; Mr. T. Trenergy, 2/-; Mrs. Faulconer, £5; B., 5/-; Mrs Hutchins, 2/6. Amount previously acknowledged, £5 15s. Total, £12 17s. 6d.

Zenana Missionary Sale of Work.

THE Annual Sale of Work on behalf of the Church of England Zenana Missionary Society will (D.V.) be held in the Garden at "Oakfield," King's Road, on Tuesday, July 3rd.

The Sale will be opened by the Vicar at 3 p.m., and will remain open till 9 p.m. The stalls will be furnished with an assortment of useful and ornamental articles. A Fish-pond will be provided for the enjoyment of our younger friends. There will be selections of instrumental music, part songs by members of our Church choir, and the Toy Symphony. Tea and coffee and light refreshments will be provided at most reasonable charges. All friends will receive a most hearty welcome, and we hope and believe that many will gladly avail themselves of the opportunity of helping forward the good work of our Missionary sisters in India and China. We hope that there will be a goodly assembly of friends at the opening at 3 o'clock.

Gleaners' Union.

DURING the months of July and August the Monthly Meetings of the C.M. Gleaners' Union will not be held. We hope our members will make use of their holiday to do some practical "gleaning." Wherever our friends go for their holiday will they take a few copies of the "Gleaner," and try to introduce it to the notice of their friends who may not regularly see it? This would do a great deal towards increasing an interest in Missions.

Congregational Cycling.

ON Saturday, June 9th, the second of our Congregational Cycling Excursions took place. The party assembled at 2.50 under the shadow of the Church tower, and punctually at 3 o'clock the start was made. The destination was Cheam Park, and after a very pleasant ride this was reached. Tea was provided in a tent in the Park, and 31 friends sat down together and partook of the refreshing beverage. Everyone was charmed with the place, and we are glad to add that the catering arrangements were worthy of the occasion.

It was decided that the next, and last Excursion of the season, should (D.V.) be held on Saturday, July 14th, and so pleased were our friends with Cheam Park, that it was agreed that this should be again our destination. Will friends who intend to join the party kindly send in their names, not later than July 11th, to Mr. F. Sykes, 47, Leppoc Road? The meeting place will again be under the Church tower, and the time of starting 2.50 p.m. Tea will be provided again at Mr. Fiddymont's establishment.

It was suggested that non-cycling friends might like to charter a brake, and drive to Cheam Park. Mr. E. Grundy, 43, Elms Road, will be glad to receive the names of friends who would join in the drive. Will friends who would like to share in the brake kindly send their names to Mr. Grundy, not later than Monday, July 9th? Others who would like to journey by train to Cheam will find it an easy journey. Will railway travellers please send their names to Mr. Sykes?

We should be very glad to have a really congregational Tea Party, and all will be most heartily welcomed.

Our Boys' Brigade.

WE heartily congratulate Captain W. Ernest Monro, and the officers of the 83rd Company, on the brilliant series of victories which they have won. In the competitions they have again succeeded in carrying off and retaining for another year the Challenge Colours of both the South London Brigade and of the London Brigade. This is indeed a most brilliant achievement, and reflects the greatest credit on the officers, non-commissioned officers, and boys of the Company. We have thus proof that our 83rd is the best Company, not only in South London, but also in the whole Metropolis.

Our good friends who so generously subscribe to the Brigade Fund will be encouraged to persevere in their kind help by being assured of the great efficiency of the Brigade work. We can assure our friends that not only are the discipline and drill most carefully attended to, but that the far more important spiritual and moral welfare of the boys is kept well to the front,

S. P. G.

THE venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel is keeping its Bi-Centenary. It has just entered on the two hundredth year of its existence and Missionary work.

Last year, when the Church Missionary Society kept its Centenary, a very large number of S.P.G. supporters showed their sympathy by contributing towards the funds of the C.M.S. In St. James's we are whole-hearted supporters of the C.M.S., but it would be a graceful act of Christian courtesy if we returned the sympathy of the S.P.G. by sending in some contributions. The Vicar made this suggestion on the Sunday after Ascension, and in response the following sums have been sent in to him, and are hereby gratefully acknowledged:—A Friend, £5; M., 5/-; G.H., 2/-; W.T.H., 21/-. The Vicar will be very glad to receive further contributions.

The Carter Boys' Home.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made that the boys belonging to this Home should attend the service in St. James's Church on two Sunday mornings in each month.

We are very glad to welcome our young friends, and hope that they will derive much blessing from thus attending our Parish Church. It would be a great help if we could provide every boy with a Prayer Book and a Hymn Book. Will some kind friend or friends undertake this good work? The cost would not be very heavy. The Vicar will be very glad to receive contributions towards this good object, and to acknowledge them in the Magazine. We would remind our readers at the same time that the Home is at the present time very much in want of funds.

Our Sunday Schools.

WE have cause for deepest thankfulness to our Heavenly Father for His good hand in all the details connected with our annual Sunday School Excursion. Everything was most successful. The weather was delightful. Brilliant sunshine, but the heat tempered by a gentle breeze.

The Excursion took place on Tuesday, June 19th, Bushey Park being the destination.

The young people assembled at an early hour at the Schools, and after a little waiting, most patiently borne, the brakes began to arrive, and were quickly filled. The work of seating the party of 500 in twenty-two brakes was at last successfully accomplished, and the imposing cavalcade moved off to the inspiring strains of the miscellaneous melodies which poured from the hundreds of young throats. It was gratifying to find that the National Anthem was greatly in favour amongst the young people.

The long drive both to and from Bushey Park was much enjoyed, and in the Park ample occupation was found with cricket and other games, pleasantly interspersed with the more serious business of lunch and tea. A considerable number of parents and other friends joined the party. We were glad to have a goodly number of Teachers, who were most assiduous in their efforts to minister to the enjoyment of the children. Great regret was felt at the unavoidable absence of the Superintendent of the Boys' School, Mr. W. Ernest Monro. Mr. Monro most kindly superintended the departure of the boys from the Schools in the morning. We cannot close our account of this most successful day without giving a word of heartiest thanks to Mr. C. Simpson, the Hon. Sec. of our Sunday Schools, and to all who assisted him, for the excellent arrangements made for the day; arrangements not only well planned, but most successfully carried out, to the entire satisfaction and enjoyment of all.

Our Missionaries.

THE following extract from a letter from Miss Bird, dated Ngogwe, E. E. Africa, April 14th, 1900, will be read with interest. We hope to welcome Miss Bird home in a few weeks.

"Yokana, our boy, was married last Monday. The bull was killed early in the morning for the Native feast. We turned out the two sitting rooms and put down grass, mats, and skins, making them look as comfortable as possible. The bride came about one o'clock, and we gave her a white cloth to tie round her neck, and tied a handkerchief round her head; and I put some scent on her scarf. She evidently did not understand what it was, and licked it. After this we had prayer with her, and we went to Church. Another couple was married at the same time. Yokana chose two hymns, "All hail the power," and

"Jesus, Thine all victorious love." After the service we all came up here, and sat as many people as possible in the house. Some sat in the verandah, and others in groups in the courtyards. A great many women had cooked us baskets of plantains to eat with the meat. After we had feasted, they drank tea and mubisi (a kind of native lemonade). The bride and bridegroom then went off to their home under a white umbrella. This latter is considered the correct thing at a wedding, and must be obtained or borrowed from someone, if possible.

"We had very nice services on Good Friday and Easter Sunday, with Holy Communion, to which a very nice number came. Youasain, our native Curate, preached."

Flower Service.

A"Flower Service" will (D.V.) be held in our Parish Church on Sunday afternoon, July 8th, at 3.30. The address will be given by the Vicar.

We shall be glad if our young friends will bring offerings of flowers and fruit, which will after the service be distributed to the sick and poor of our own parish, and to the neighbouring Hospitals, etc. We especially ask for flowers in pots, which last so much longer than cut flowers, though both will be gratefully received. Offerings of fruit will also be most acceptable.

The Children's Corner.

MY Dear Young Friends, I want you to help me by giving me your advice. We find it very difficult to settle what colour to have for the cover of our Parish Magazine, so as to shew Sir Wyke Baylis's beautiful design to the best advantage. If you will tell me what colour you like best, this will be a great help. For July we are sending out the Magazines in five or six different dresses, almost all the colours of the rainbow! I wonder which of these you like best. Perhaps if you asked father and mother they would buy one of each colour, then you could see them all and make your choice, and you would have several Magazines to give away to your friends. Now who will send me a post-card telling me which you think the best colour?

I am glad that some of my young friends are sending in the short accounts of sermons I wrote about last month. I daresay when June is quite finished I shall have a good many. I will read them all carefully through, and see which is the best and deserves the prize.

The reason why I asked you to join this "Grand Prize Competition" is not only that you may have the chance of winning a prize, but also that I hope it will lead you to listen very carefully in Church, and to take your part in the service.

A few days ago we had a Grand Prize Distribution in the Schools, at a meeting of the Scripture Union. I wonder how many of you belong to the Scripture Union. It is so nice to be a member, and to read the Scripture Portion every day. Perhaps some of you do not belong to it. Well, I should advise you to join; you will find it such a help. We all want to love our Bible more, and to read our Bible more every day, and it is such a help to belong to the Scripture Union.

You will see in the Magazine that we hope to have a "Flower Service" in the afternoon of Sunday, July 14th. I like these Flower Services so much. Please bring as many flowers in pots as you can; they last so much longer when they are growing in pots, and the sick people to whom they will be sent will enjoy them so much. Will you please tell father and mother that we shall be so pleased if they will come to the Flower Service? If there are so many children present that the body of the Church is quite full, I daresay they will not mind sitting in the gallery.

I am so glad to tell you that, at the Children's service on Sunday, June 10th, we collected £1 13s. 9d. for the Indian Famine Fund. Was not this nice?

Now I am afraid I must finish this letter.

Your loving friend,
