Here is the ~~copy~~^{Sketch} of the article in the Labor issue of the 2nd. which the printer refused to set up under the impudently craven of all fear of the I. L. O. Staff & Editor's barons. These together are sufficiently deficient to be unprepared ready to see the Dec 10th & I doubt whether Staff will get his exemplars returned as the I. L. O. might find itself in company with the Labor Leaders & the Meanwhile we are waiting to see how the Labor movement takes the Labor Party's alliance with their old enemies. Since we have lost all hope of any decent independent action of the I. L. O. on any further what-so-ever matter but after a certain amount of blustering by J. Condit & militant minions the Trade Union movement will accept the So there is to be a clean sweep. The war, which is supposed to be conducted by the English Government for the destruction of Prussian militarism, is becoming in the hands of the Conservatives an annihilating campaign against Liberalism. England's war is now finding its purest expression—war against the economic and maritime development of Germany, and war against the last remnants of English Liberalism. This war within the war is going more and more in favour of the Conservatives. That is the meaning of the English Ministerial crisis.

The Frankfurter Zeitung, which on Wednesday called Mr. Lloyd George the grave-digger of his party, ended a leading article on Thursday night as follows:—

So Lloyd George is "to do it." The only question is how he will succeed. The pronouncements of the Liberal papers have not a very hopeful ring for him. There is no doubt that in general questions concerning the war the Liberals will support the new Government, whatever its appearance may be, but the opposition in Parliament and the country will increase, and, above all, there will be more activity in those circles which held back because they were restrained by the last Government.

But the main question will be whether the vigour and severity in the conduct of the war, which is hoped for from Lloyd George, will be able to perform the miracle which England has now been expecting for 28 months. These expectations are really great deceptions. There has been no lack of energy and vigour, and in a few months the great demagogue, who now comes on as protagonist, will have played out his part, probably without applause from the pit. The more speedily and stormily this development takes place the better it will be for peace.

I have bought a small cheap type writer and I have started using up some of the spare hours of my afternoon in copying out & editing the Book of my life. It is no more tiring than earlier reading, hardly more than my attempt at long runs to start writing. And it is more interesting to me than either - and rather more useful. Why should I browse a library search with the task of selecting passages out of the series of my life. Also I shall add notes about persons & events which I have "still" memories & interest.

The year opens more hopefully.
Peace must come this year. As Seyd Jones said (Robertson - "We must have victory in three months: can you last the summer."

If there is not Oscar & Verlay, then We are again at work: my health so strong for working as I used to be.

We lead a secluded life - we are both not insist on seeing us. John Fendler who has lived here off - on for more than two years & now he has been here for 2 or 3 months got back to their own flat next week & we shall be freer to visit friends here. But the dark background of the War, the consciousness of a sort of end to our life, and our peculiar intimacy with one or two fellow-workers, with, I think, keeps us from resuming our acquaintances with the politicians & other notables. There seem no sufficient reasons for doing so - we have our work, a few friends - a few strangers, my sisters & our own dog & evening conversations to keep us occupied, interested & happy.

July 22.

Tom Jones ^{one of} ^{yellow} ^{papers} on the Committee and a member of the new Secretariat of the Government came to Lench here today to talk over the work of the new Committee.
 He gave a most amusing account of the appointment of Mr. Crauden as of the issues consequence of Mr. P. M. Apparently Mr. P. M. had asked Montague to undertake the Vice-Chairmanship of the Committee of Records of the Government. The Royal Commission consisted ~~of~~ ^{of} Cabinet Ministers with a few ^{permanent} ^{Members} ^{of} ^{Parliament}. Montague hinted of a scheme of a much smaller Committee with himself as Director and Bonham Carter (Argentine) as ^{president} Secretary and Vayle had an assistant. This was the basis all the reports of the Sub-Committee and passed as a ^{very} ^{effort} to the War Cabinet. But Mr. P. M.

called his new secretariat together ^{tomorrow} & ~~the~~ ^{Montague scheme} ~~the~~ ^{was} "old hat"; he wanted a Committee of persons with ideas — used to make out a list of persons with ideas for him to consider. The list presented contained "The Welles" among others. Lloyd Jones shrouded out all the names he did not like — stuck in Jack Hills & Burnham — & passed over to Wells. "We may have one of them — I think Mr. Wells — Wells will be angry — W. Wells won't be angry, & we shall put Wells' ideas as angry." Then apparently without consulting either Montague or Vaughan Brock, he wrote a letter to the writer to the selected names, & here we are!

Wells among them

June 15. A delightful ^{at} ~~at~~ day on the St. Louis train from St. Louis in corn fields, five minutes walk to the west of St. Louis on comparison 2 then lost for a week.
 I was much surprised with 2 months had not on the P.C. - suffering eyes from diplopia 2 found myself to physical exercise. I feel too old 2 frail for the work of the Committee - tho' it interests 2 amuses me 2 I do it with zest 2 with the greatest unconcerning energy.

The Committee is not a satisfactory creation 2 I think it is bound to be superseded. Thos. Chasman - S. Montague ^{John} Calvert Mendenhall is a great disappointment.
 We had always understood that he was one of the best informed 2 most hard working of the Aspinwall crew. As Acting Chairman of our Committee he has been, during the first months, a dead failure. He is a large boned, heavy featured Geo - moody in temper with little power of language 2 apparently without capacity for work having the merest effort of mastering the technical detail of drainage questions - he is wholly inexperienced in Committee work 2 incapable of formulating any Consistent procedure. Unfortunately he has an incompetent staff. Vaughn heads the financial security - a former report man of the House Security Dept - is very-headed easily frequented off by because steps ~~like a~~ ^{like a} ~~man~~ ^{man} - Security. He has collected about him a set of many cultured ornaments ~~which~~ ^{who} are more preachers of what the Federal administration is doing ~~than~~ ^{than} ~~scouting~~ ^{scouting} ~~officer~~ ^{officer}. The Committee itself is not very promising. Leslie Scott is the best brain & has the most all round knowledge - but

If I had to prophesy I should say that the present N.C. with just V.C. & Secretariat will not survive the Summer - it is at once too pretentious & too ponderous.

If the ~~Executive~~ Army, Chairman & the Secretariat had been able to organize new members to join the members of the Council and for what he or she was worth - the Committee might have been for itself a useful position.

But the offer of new help is contemptible to the Committee & the Council have a contempt for it. The majority of the members of the Council cherish nothing resembling of purposeful interests. Do not intend to work & try to do not conduct a body of ~~some~~ homogeneous conditions. What is wanted is a powerful Union or movement for the maintenance of a really effective staff ^{of his office} with an advisory Council of energetic Amateurs to start with & serve as his representatives on Sub-Committees for investigation & reporting on the progress after initiation.

Then books I have been reading lately have stimulated & pleased me. The last vol of Jean Christophe (Romain Rolland) is a delightful book — the descriptions of the relationship between G.C. & the young school of rebels reminded me of my own ideal of the relationship but did obtain better results & the young rebels of the British Labor movement. Also the state of French progressive thought is singularly analogous to that in England — the result of great intellect & disciplined character as ^{technical} progress science, a form of impulse ^{must} ^{be} ^{readiness} & ^{meditation} ^{with} a common & metaphysical. What is specifically French is the devastation of War which seems to Romain Rolland (his book was published in 1912) was epidemic among the young intellectuals.

H. S. V. "God to unweave this" also interested me - it was ~~strange~~^{exciting} to Placer. For this is the gist of his book - the discovery of the power of prayer. His ^{highly} in complaint for its work - but neither V. Keith nor Donham could see aspect of grasping the whole range of Reconstruction nor of organizing a staff got more hands into the sterner side of Reconstruction.

 Mr. Tolson said he had been offered to he could take the R.C. with him. He also asked me to serve on a Sub-Committee to organize Joint- Dept. with Halpern as Chairman

 Tolson as a Sub-Committee to Antislavery Review.
 This check to R.C. is a 1st meeting for and for a time I welcome the absorption of

 We can easily show another 10 pr. in many

I am enjoying my work in connection with V.C. The City itself is most unscrupulous: we have had a casual & better on V.C. & the Securities list as well as various contents - some of business for the or an otherwise is brought before in a most casual & unscrupulous manner. Sweden has been unusually busy with the Lenin Party business owing to the crisis with the Stockholm congress & he spent all yesterday drafting the resolutions for the Lenin Party Conference on 17th & 18th & the Swedish Socialist Congress on 20th - 25th. Whether W. D. P. will accept his draft or not — it is an anti-communist but not a British independent Peace that he suggests — concluded & the Presidency of International Socialism.
 Do we know whether the British Gov. Jones who were dining here on Friday believe that the Peace Revolutionary Socialist Movement is the coming force — but this Sect lives in a state of exalted optimism and may be a little "pious".

Apparently the P.C. is to continue as an advisory body - the individual members the summer when address books be used like an leaf.  the British Government & International Socialism.
 Sweden is strongly pro Government Clifford Stark & John West less strongly so. The result of the Russian revolution brought back of Sweden & John West from Petrograd is tragic - Sweden dipping into anxiety. We all comfort ourselves with the story of the French revolution
 - that I see little real comfort in it since Napoleonic imperialism was to eventual result.
 But ^{the Swedish West - of the} this account really does not tally with that analogy - it looks more like a drift towards a Chinese individualistic precipice.
 Meanwhile the British People's movement - in accepting the Russian model seem to be counting the reactions against a West - & tragic failure of the spirit of freedom.

I am perpetually asking myself — how is the War affecting the mind of the Englishman?
 The sustained horror of it is depressing: friends, lost husbands & children, promising men, on whose careers one has counted, are swept away. One realizes that unscrupulous misery & bestiality has overwhelmed millions of men on the battlefield & Jesuit's countless homes in occupied countries. This War is like an unending bankruptcy of human intelligence & human goodness. It adds to my depression that the intellectual problems involved in it are wholly outside my grasp - I have come to no conclusion as to the fundamental cause of it or as to the right way to solve it. But there is one consolation. The catastrophe is so huge and so disastrous to the governments of the world that it must lead to revolutionary changes. Never again will the manual worker accept the position of outcasts from all that makes up civilization; never again will they agree to a position of social servitude, never again will they trust the representatives of the propertied class to decide for them or about policy without ever trying to discuss it. Their leaders will fall into all sorts of traps, but the vast multitude (led by ^{stimulated} ~~free~~ friends) slowly over enormous time will lead to a new basis on social equity.

Ten Jones lunched here yesterday. The War Cabinet is much perturbed at the rumour of revolutionary feeling among the army etc. A certain Professor Arnold (the piece) author of a Jones article on "The Ferment of Revolution" sent in the most alarmist memorandum to some members of the Cabinet that were very concerned. That day the Central Loan College was informed that the W. E. A was now so spreading revolutionary ideas under the guise of Government activities ^{in the U.S.A.} abroad. The Secretary ^{of the U.S.A.} instructed our office to advise the President - both memoranda for the use of Downing Street Palace. However this blunt receipt & somewhat-convoluted procedure was followed in order to enlighten Jones & his group as to the real state of mind of the subject. Indeed it was to be the most alarmist & to be handed after the time, by agreement with the High Commissioner. Our own help in the case was to be a further justification alike.

July 10th

Five days complete rest at Longford. Arthur & May O'Ryan & their companions Biddy Moss lead a secluded life in two or three rooms of their charming house in the middle of garden & grounds. Arthur is a little & happy old man doing little or nothing but occupying himself with mechanical ingenuity with a silent attendance at Camp Cornet exercises - about he takes little or no part. The boy is a benign old woman, somewhat swollen & ugly & frequent in mood - she brags endlessly & smokes at intervals. Biddy Moss - energetic amalgam of good temper & cheerful, super-natural 15 Carracorn patches & walking parties.

Bill & his wife live $\frac{1}{2}$ way from us young home - express so that he apparently Dr. Tom Swaney & water me.

The mail of the 10th shows of the garden prints out - there is not a connection at all between the two of it being capital - & the hundred thousand a few hundred of price. Off - Arthur (and feeling we had a man indifference.

The New Year opens in gloom. Germany is What is the cause of the paralysis of British brains that shows itself in the V.V. in the Admiralty in the High Command in Poland & in present operations?

The answer is a complicated one. The British governing class whether they be aristocrats or bourgeois have no abiding faith in the concentrated, methodical & unflinching intellectual toil involved in the scientific method. Science, to them is a sort of intellectual ⁷⁰⁰ ~~ambition~~ to be indulged by a ⁷⁰⁰ ~~particular~~ type of man that may or may not derive out of value in particular directions but that is quite out of the question for the day conduct of life.
 Applied to social economic or political questions the

 But anyone who is related to him who belongs to his own class - whom he usually consults with should be made uncomfortable or distressed if that which he is accustomed. The perpetual emphasis on rights as against obligations is part of this preference for the comfort of the individual over the good of the community. Finally the Englishman tho' he is has a Callant - for impromptu arguments

The following extract from an article in the New Republic of July 17th on British & American Labor. The 'retained policy of George's common sense' is a strange case of a professional exaggeration in favor of the subject.

British and American Labor

DURING the past few months several English correspondents of the New Republic have called the attention of our readers to the reorganization of the British Labor party. When the war broke out a large percentage of British radicals had become sceptical of the attempt to ameliorate the condition of labor by the use of political agencies. Labor had accomplished little as a result of union representation in Parliament and there was a general disposition to disparage political agitation and to depend in the future upon direct trade union action. This disposition has been changed as a result of the war. Of course British labor will still need and knows it will need direct action in arguing its case with its employers and the community, but during the past six months, chiefly as a result of the courageous and intelligent handling of war problems as they affected the wage-earners, organized labor has suddenly emerged as a political power of the first magnitude in the British commonwealth. In fact, considering the disintegration which as a result of the war has taken place in traditional Liberal and Conservative parties, the Labor party can be characterized without exaggeration as the most powerful organized political force in the United Kingdom excepting only the state.

In H Jones issue "Labor & Other Socialists" is formed as a supplement with for many purposes (see French).

There is great unrest in the Civil Service at present and on the two Committees on the "The Power of Government" — one Governmental & the other Local Service — I have a chance of seeing the various aspects. There is, among the higher administrative officials, a growing alarm about the intrusion of the "business man" and about the administrative ideas of the Bureaucrats in the Press. Some of the first Division — some of the other may be seen in the "The Power of Government" — have been, including their share in managing the new Government, their standards of efficiency — have been completely withdrawn & comparisons their own actions with the ^{former} Civil Service. It is assumed that this is not done but the time has come when the work of the former Civil Service is to be done by the new Government. What has happened to the Civil Service is that the former associations and habits of the former departments of clubs and committees have been to be the same as before, and of the responsible members of Parliament. Here is H. G. Wells latest attempt to injure us which, I assume at his request, ~~is~~ being distributed broadcast among journalists and our common acquaintances. It interests me as a strange display of his morbid ~~www~~ obsession about us. Donald of the Daily Chronicle told me that he spent a whole ~~morning~~ ^{morning} abusing us. From his "God the invisible King" I thought he had cured himself of these disreputable feelings - but it seems not. The ~~abuse~~ ^{he} abuse of Sidney is not clever and neither ^{he} nor I feel any anger at it.

Dear Suclaire.

I like the spirit of your magazine immensely. I don't so hard on the religious as you are but all the rest is just boy's play. Damn all Empires, the German first & then the British Empire with the League of Dec Nations!

Yours
 H.G. Wells

But don't make me down Bolshewick. I'm a Wilsonite. In 115 years time in my life there is a man in the world that I can count to follow. Lenin I can assure you is a little beast like this

He just wants Power when he gets it he has no use for. He doesn't eat well or love pretty or get children or care for beautiful things. He doesn't want order; he hates machines about as much as he hates life. He's just a Russian Joking Webb, a rather little incessant egotistical intriguer. He & the Kaiser ought to be killed by some moral sanitary authority.

There is a U.S. War Relief Fund which I assume at his request is being distributed among journalists and our common acquaintances. It interests me as a strange display of his world view operation about me. Donald of the Daily Chronicle told me that he spent a whole morning studying me. From his "God the Invisible King" I thought he had copied himself of these characteristic feelings - but it seems not. The name of "Bible" is not clever and neither, nor I feel any other at it.

When the government wants money it has to go to Wall Street and beg. It has enormous campaigns, to convulse the country with excitement, to send out tens of thousands of letters, to waste tens of thousands of reams of paper on advertisements and appeals, to persuade those who have money to let it be used for the war.

And even then, the government does not really get the money—it only gets the use of it for a few years. It has to promise to repay and meanwhile to pay interest at four per cent. In other words, it has to create a new and more permanent form of privilege, it has to endow parasitism, to root in our land the very evils of injustice and exploitation which it seeks to destroy in Europe.

Billions upon billions of profits are being made out of this war; fortunes beyond telling and belief are being piled up by the insiders of the Coal Trust, the Steel Trust, the Copper Trust, the Oil Trust, the Beef Trust, the Powder Trust. While your son and my son are dying in the trenches, the owners of these gigantic profit-machines are making twenty, forty, sometimes as high as eighty per cent on their capital stocks; and in most cases these stocks have been so watered that the true rate of profit is hundreds of per cent on the original investments.

We strive to be a democracy; we think that England is a monarchy. But in England the government takes for war purposes eighty per cent of war profits; and is planning now to take twenty-five per cent of capital as well. But in this country we take only a billion a year in an excess profits tax, while we borrow ten or twenty billions by the method of mortgaging the labor of the future—the labor of you and my sons, after they come back crippled from the war.

Is there any life left in the radical movement of America, if there is any real care for democracy? If the people of our country, they will send to Washington during the next few months an overwhelming demand for the true measure of justice in war-time—Conscription of Wealth. Let the government take a hundred per cent of incomes over five thousand dollars, and a hundred per cent of incomes over ten thousand dollars. Why should any man have more than ten thousand dollars while other men cannot get the means of life?

Why should the people in the slums of our cities go without decent food, why should children go hungry to school, while hundreds of millions of acres of land are held in idleness by speculators? Let us have a national land-tax! Let us conscript the idle acres, as well as the idle men, to war and save Democracy!

If this seem to me a simple issue - the civil servant must have a right to demand rights as the non-governmental employee - he must, no less. The right to demand for Parliament ought not to be interrupted with so long a slavery for Paul does not intend neglect of ~~it~~. If I think for which he has law a case the jurisdiction must be protected by consultation sooner (that the is usually accorded to an employee when looking for another situation. The right of reinstatement is of course absolute - of course on the left - an employee in order to get work he takes better he to left - if a reinstatement is not possible dismissal of. It follows that he takes his place - a dismissal is the probability of a full man for an unfit man.

The other questions of how far you can temper bureaucracy of some form of vocational self-governance is far more complicated. The "vocational" school is putting forward claims which would impose responsibility government on part so many checks on it that ~~completeness~~ prompt - efficient administration would become almost-impossible.

The U.S.A. is today in the ascendant. Delegation / arrangements — socialist, labor, mining & land government (by an all industry governmental no system being allowed access over) look up to Veltz in war to assure them that America means to continue the war until Germany or rather "Germany's best" own themselves beaten & ready to bend. A march to triumphant Democracy. These men & women are not offensive in their self assurance — their strength are excellent. But they are quite unconscious of any obstacles to universal Democracy except the military one which they intend to subvert.

Frenchmen who come over here assure us that the Americans are now the rage in France — they have captured the French imagination with the largeness & largeness of their professions & the self included clean physical & moral strength of the American soldier. "Heaven you can see in
