The Aussia District

Mr W.C. Baker. L. C. In. connected with the Eltringham Prossion, 264 York Road.

And Baker made an appt at the morion. On calling there, I found he was unwell so proceeded to his house of Rosebury Road, Fulham, about 8 minutes walk from the Hall. He was in bed but expressed a desire to see me so I went up. He was suffering from an injury which compelled him to keep his legs up but was otherwise in good health so the interview proceeded with the motion in bed.

He is a pleasant, fair man opabout 30; tells, quietly and without affectation Is better esticated than miss of his colleagues and has a wider outlook. Has been here about 2 years. The hussion is worked by the Congregational Church on East Hill and Air Bakers connection with it is limited to the services he holds on Sunday evening at 6.30 and another on a week evening. The remainder of the work is under the case of a supt appointed by the church.

" I am not him and a change of mass makes a change of conditions said he. The majority will not admit him into their howes but there are comparatively few, with whom you cannot get into conversation. The reception differs very much even with the same people. In illustrate This pour he told how on one occasion he went to the Jar paving works with his superintendent and although he tried for 15 munites, could not get on at all. Iwo men turned everything into redicule. Or a subsequent visit the reception was very encouraging.

The people beldom attend a place of worths. He asked a few hundred people, fairly representing of the district and found that only about one in three claimed any connection with any place of these were mostly women. He will send the figures leter. I hose who go, attend enther the Church of England (It Faith) or the Baptus Chapel on East Will. And South of the railway. BAPTIST EXTENSION AT EARLSFIELD.

THE new Baptist chapel at Earlsfield, erected by the London Baptist Association, and opened on Tuesday by Dr. Alexander McLaren, is another of the Extension movements by which the Baptist denomination is endeavouring to keep pace with the growth of the outer suburbs of London. The accommodation is for 600. The building was crowded on Tuesday. Dr. McLaren conducted the entire service himself. He looked in good health, and his voice rang full and true. His sermon, which was on the object, duty and culture of Christian hope, was thoroughly characteristic of the Manchester preacher. It was expository—'I make no apology,' he said, 'for preaching an expository sermon, although I believe it is not usually considered a popular kind of thing'-and it was illuminated by a series of deft and delicate illustrations from Nature, science, poetry, art and experience. There were some personal touches, as when, in protesting against the modern tendency to clog imagination with a physical theory of another life, he alluded to the fully artistic and highly-coloured pictures put nowadays into the hands of children, and remarked that they do not do as much to stimulate their thought, or to enable them to body out thought, or to enable them to body out the scenes, as the rude and wretched old things we had when I was a child. 'It is something to have a hope which is as certain as, aye, more certain than, memory, and to have a future which is as unchangeable as the calm and determined past, and you can get that if you take the assurance of Jesus Christ, in His words and in His person, that where He is there will also His servant be. 'Don', said Dr. McLaren, as he closed his sermon, 'degrade and imprison your faculty of hope, making it a blind Samson, with its eyes put out, grinding in the prison-house, but see that you train it and nurture it within the veil, and so grasp the inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away.' The sermon will appear in next week's Christian World Pulpit.

After the service luncheon was served in the temporary iron building in which the services have up to now been conducted, and which is shortly to be moved to Hither-green for the new church there. Mr. W. Vinson presided over a large company, and Rev. E. Henderson, during whose year of presidency of the London Baptist Association the erection of the new building was undertaken, made a statement indicating the steady progress which the church is making under the pastorate of Rev. A. J. Payne. The church membership is about 100, the evening congregations are large, the Sunday-school has between 200 and 250 scholars and everything is going successfully. In thanking Dr. McLaren for his service, Mr. Henderson caused some merriment by a naïve confession of his indebtedness to the preacher. 'I often,' he said, 'take one of the Doctor's sermons, boil it down, and I preach it again, to the benefit of my people.' Later in the afternoon Rev. William Cuff preached a second sermon in the new building, and in the evening a public meeting was held. Mr. Herbert Marnham presided, and a number of local ministers addressed the meeting, which was very enthusiastic. During the day £225 was raised by the collections and promises.

You owe it to the present and eternal welfare of yourself and family to share in the worship of the people of God.

We would remind you of the great services the Free Churches have rendered to the people by their love of liberty, their trust in the Spirit of God, their simple services, and their earnest Gospel preaching. You will find our services bright and helpful, and you will receive a hearty welcome.

Allow us, therefore, for your soul's sake, and for the sake of all that are dear to you, to urge you to attend the House of God, and may its ministry and worship be a blessing to you.

A New Year's Greeting - --

THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

From...

The PUTNEY DISTRICT Evangelical FREE CHURCH COUNCIL.

What do the Evangelical Free Churches Believe and Teach?

- 1. That the Holy Scriptures are a supreme and sufficient guide of faith and conduct.
- 2. The faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord is the sole condition of salvation, and not penances, rites, or the absolution of priests.
  - 3. That Jesus Christ is the only Head of His Church.
- 4. That the Church of Christ consists of all believers, each of whom should strive to bring in those that are without.
- 5. That the Lord's Supper is a rite of commemoration of the atoning death of Christ, and that Jesus Christ is present spiritually in the hearts of believers who feed on him by faith.
- 6. That true blessedness and well-being come only through union with Christ, and that His salvation is free for everyone who seeks it in faith.
- 7. That the Spirit of God is not limited to any sect or class, but dwells in all Churches that hold the Head, and blesses all who meet together in the name of Christ.
- 8. That the progress of the Kingdom of God will bring not only blessing to souls, but health to the body, the sweetening of home life, the cleansing of society, the rescue of the submerged, the knitting together of all classes in mutual brotherhood and service as children of One Common Father.

The Evangelical Free Churches, Federated in this District, are the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, and Presbyterian Churches.

Eleasant face with mustache + short pointed beard nearly grey. Remeded me very strongly of Wof Mills of Walworth Road, both in appearance and manner. Has been a Baptist minster 26 years and came from Canterbury to Wandsworth 4 years ago.

Mentered in the Frap and pleased with its general accuracy, altho here there he dro-agreed. Eglantine of Seraldine Roads should be red, except the south end of the latter, which differ rest. In Rosehill Road, every house has a servant.

The people attending the Chapel may be placed in three classes." The situation of the churches has had some influence on the people reached. As a result he draws from abround. It wast from the road near East Itell; a small rember from the roads to the South tearlafield. They recently sent a number of the people to Earlofield to form the nucleus of the church there.

Beside the Church seating 900, they have a small; school and some class rooms but these are not a dequate for the work. The Warple Way Board School is hard for school on Sunday morning taffernoon; also the Deshmical Institute in High Sheet. They have also a Girls Home! The Congregational Church is very strong and dolo a good deal of mosion work. Has a very good Entertainment for the people. Their mussion at Earlofield is more successful than Wandley Gl. Dr. J. thinks that a mussion should be planted on the verge of a poor district, not right down in it. You cannot get people to go into a show but you can draw them out of it.

Wesleyans also have good russion.

There is less & association amongst the Churches in London than in the country. The ministers of a denom? in London are sufficent to form a "fraternal" amongst theruselves & so do not see so much of the other other musters, the only occasions being when they speak for each other te. no time for visiting. In the country the numster meet each other; arrange

General Questions

Thrift. State clubs usual form. Working people do not buy their houses - down see how they can - but the clarks and men employed in city houses do.

Health is fairly good - altho they had a very bad time

Health is fairly good - altho they had a very bad time last writer - influenza etc.

Housing and social condition is also good. Very little slevin property of very few families with room. On other hand rents are high and rising. The cheapers is 7/6 for 3rooms. Flats of 4 rooms, only one opwhich is a decent room let at 11/- on St Anni Hill.

In J. is very hopeful altho' it is difficult to move the people and the number interested in christian work is small - not more than 12 or 15 per cent. In the better neighbourhoods the people breyele on Sunday. In the main sheets, you see hundreds of breyeles; traps also whilst the trains to buses are Jull.

When he was fresh to Loudon he noticed had the Loudoner was very easily moved by anything that is new. This was one reason why ministers preached on all sorts of topics. If he were to preach on the African Settlewest' his place would be through but

The Immutability of Jesus Christ.

ERE is, my friends, the centre round which all things revolve. Here is the great magnet of attraction, the great foundation on which all else rests—Jesus.

This is the One of whom I wish to speak to you. I would not come and tell of man alone; I would not come and speak of the mutability of the human, unless I could tell you of the immutability of the God-man-Christ Jesus. This is He whose birth into our world as a babe we commemorated at Christmas-tide: it is He who increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man; it is He who lived a life of hardship and trial; it is He who suffered the cruel treatment from the hands of His enemies; it is He who submitted Himself to become the great Sin-bearer. I rejoice then, my friends, to be able to come with these words to-day, and tell you of Jesus: for that name alone is sufficient; it signifies a Saviour—a Saviour for you—your Saviour, if you will only accept Him—One who is able and willing to save to the uttermost all that come unto God by Him. Have you grasped Him, accepted Him as your Saviour? You feel that you are a sinner, and estranged from God; you realise, moreover, your need of a Saviour; you acknowledge the fact that nothing you have done, or can do, is able to save you: but have you taken Jesus as your Saviour; have you exclaimed, "My Saviour, my Substitute!" The mere head knowledge of Him being a Saviour is no use, unless you make Him your own personal Saviour.

This is the One, then, whom I rejoice at the very commencement of my ministry here to be able to tell you about—of an immutable, unchangeable Jesus; and I ask your prayers on my behalf that God will enable me in this sphere faithfully to preach His Gospel—to preach Jesus Christ and Him crucified—to lift up Jesus very high, so that all may see Him, believe in Him, and be drawn to Him, according to His own words: "I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me."

And what is affirmed of Him? That He is the same "yesterday, and to-day, and for ever." What He was in the yesterday of the eternal past, when dwelling in the bosom of the Father, He continued at the time of His incarnation; when still as God in very deed He dwelt with men on the earth, and He shall continue to be for ever.

And I would say He is the same Guardian. He who has shielded you in the past, He who has protected you when some danger seemed imminent; He who has protected you by night, so that no evil has come nigh your dwelling, and been about you by day, in your going out and in your coming in; He who at this very moment is so mercifully watching over you, so that no harm happens to you,—He will guard you in the future, He will defend you, He will encamp round about you, He will place under you those everlasting arms, He will give His angels charge over you, to bear thee up, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Jesus Christ is also the same Guide. How have you arrived at the stage at which you are this day? Is it by your own unerring walk? Is it by your own perfect vision? Nay, my friends, left to yourself, to your own tottering steps and your imperfect vision, you would have stumbled and fell long since.

Has some human friend been taking you by the hand, who did not know the road any better than you did yourself? "If the blind lead the blind, shall they not both fall into the ditch?" No human guide has been yours. No erring pilot has steered you hitherto: but whether you have realised it or not, Jesus Himself has been your Guide; He has led you ever safely, although by a way that you knew not, and brought you here to-day to hear His word. And will He leave you now? will He forsake you at this crisis? will He quit you and let you wander on and on, until you entirely lose sight of your Father's house? Nay, listen, "I will guide thee with Mine eye"; I will guide thee continually"; "I will guide thee with My counsel, and after that receive thee to glory"; "I will never leave thee." Odoubting Christian, that same Jesus, who has led you over rocks and mountains of difficulty, through valleys of delights, and by cooling streams, will still guide you—will still lead you on—

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till The night is gone.

He who has steered your frail bark hitherto, will steer it yet again, and pilot it safely over the billows of this sea of life, and bring you safely into the harbour of eternal peace.

Church Aotes.

HE Sunday School Anniversary was held on the 13th and 14th of May. The congregations were large, and the response to the appeal for aid to the School Funds generous. The singing of the children was excellent; everybody was pleased with it, and much credit is due to those who laboured so assiduously to train them to such a degree of efficiency.

Mr. Briscoe's address, on the Monday evening, was very helpful, and will not soon be forgotten by those who enjoyed the privilege of listening to it. His emphasis of the need of the Sunday School as a counteractant out of the many dangers which beset the young, brought home to us all the immense significance of the mission of the Sunday School Teacher.

The Secretary read a very encouraging report. Mr. Middleton began by expressing thanks to God for the blessing which had rested upon the endeavours of the teachers. There are 390 scholars and 41 teachers on the books of the Home School. Thirty-three of the young people are members of the Church, and eleven of that number have joined during the year. One special feature of the work is the excellent attendance of the senior scholars, and the teachers are full of hope that many of these youths and maidens may be led to Christ, and grow up useful members of His Church.

The effort to reach the scholars by means of Social Evenings, which was inaugurated last year, was renewed again this year, and proved very successful. "If," said the Secretary, "we had better accommodation, we should like to extend our work in this direction, by holding regular week-evening meetings for our scholars. We believe that by this means the teachers would gain a stronger hold upon the children, and the children a stronger attachment to the School and Church."

During the year the school contributed £26 16s.  $10\frac{3}{4}$ d. to Foreign Missions and £4 9s.  $3\frac{3}{4}$ d. to other objects—a very creditable result. The Junior Endeavour, under the management of Miss Johnson and Miss Gambrell, has made good progress. Its membership now numbers thirty. Equally satisfactory has been the work of the I.B.R.A. Nearly 200 of our young friends are daily readers of the Word of God.

At the recent Scripture examinations, held under the auspices of the Sunday School Union, four of our scholars took prizes, and the rest of those who entered, except one, obtained certificates, which must have gladdened the heart of Mr. Kearns, the teacher of the preparation class.

No report of the "Onward School" was given, but the Superintendent, Mr. Naylor, gave a brief account of the work, and it is our joy to know that by its steady, and in some respects, striking progress, the school has justified its claim to its title.

Mr. Withers, Mr. Saunders, and Mr. Hassell all said a little, and said it well. We do not remember a more bright, hopeful, and prosperous anniversary.

WE beg to call the attention of our friends to the Bazaar which is to be held at the Town Hall, Lavender Hill, on June 13th, in aid of the building fund of the Earlsfield Chapel. The effort is being made by the Churches of the district to help this new and very promising cause. East Hill is pledged to provide a stall, and Mrs. W. Mills, 61, St. Ann's Hill, Mrs. H. Hayward, 78, Bolingbroke Grove and Mrs. Townsend, 25, Rosehill Road, will be glad to receive goods or donations for the purpose.

FRIENDS who have joined our river trips of the last two or three years, will be glad to know our friends are arranging for another. The date fixed is Tuesday, June 26th. Tickets should be secured early.

Our open air workers have opened their campaign with vigour. The positions abandoned because they were no longer tenable against the forces of winter, have been re-occupied and made the basis of vigorous attacks upon the powers of darkness. May the Lord bless His warriors!

Are you Sabed?

HEN Jesus Christ was here among men, one end of the cord of Divine love was on earth, the other in heaven. Hence the Saviour could speak of God's love giving, and the Father's love sending the Son into this world, to seek and save the lost—to bring sinners unto Himself. Jesus could also add, "Him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise cast out." He could also say "Receive Me as your Saviour, and you shall know God as your Father."

It may so happen that my reader is not a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. Should such be the case, I affectionately entreat you to turn your eyes towards Jesus and see if He is not fairer than all the sons of men, and worthy of your love and service, on the ground of what He is in Himself, and what He has done for sinners, that they may be saved.

Do not deceive yourself by supposing that, because the Saviour said, "I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me," all men will be saved, whether they believe in Him or not. The words prove the universality of the drawing but not the universality of the coming; just as the words, "The Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world," prove the official appointment and Divine office of Christ as the world's only Saviour, while they are far from proving the world's acceptance of Him as their Saviour, or the actual salvation of all men, whether they accept Him or not. The day is coming when you must appear before Him whom you now despise and reject. What an awful thought, going into the presence of Jesus with the sins of a whole life unforgiven! It can only be to hear from His lips the solemn, yet awful words, "I know you not." "Depart!" Do you, my reader, wish to escape such a fearful doom? Look to Him who is able and willing to save, even to the uttermost, and you shall know the blessedness of the man whose sins are covered, and whose God is Jehovah, and who can call God his Father.—From Gleanings from the Life and Teaching of Chist.

H. H. BOURN.

The Legend of Saint Martin.

Written after hearing a Sunday School Anniversary Sermon.

SAINT MARTIN, so the legend goes, Whilst yet a soldier, through the snows Of winter once did take his way. All cold and dismal was the day, And bitter blew the biting blast And many a backward thought he cast To where the fire blazed cheerfully; But duty urged him on, so he Pursued his way, right sturdily. When, on a sudden, as he strode Along, he saw beside the road An aged beggar, worn and weak; His rags scarce covered him, the bleak Winds whistled through them, and the snow Had drifted round his feet, and through His scanty clothes. As Martin passed The beggar, came an icy blast And chilled him to the very bone, And he would fain have hurried on, But that the sight of that poor man With pinchèd features, pale and wan, All shivering in his misery, Filled Martin's heart with deep pity, So that he took without a word His cloak, and cut it with his sword In twain, and to the beggar gave The half of it that he might have A covering for his ice-cold limbs. Dumb with amaze, a tear-drop dims The beggar's eyes, he lifts his head To bless the soldier 'ere he sped In haste along his wintry way. That night as in his tent he lay Wrapped in deep slumber, Martin dreamed A wondrous dream, for, lo! it seemed As though the cloudy gates of heaven Mysteriously asunder riven, Showed unto his astonished eyes The Saviour Christ in Paradise; And As he looked with reverent awe Upon that holy sight, he saw That on His shoulders Christ did wear A mantle o'er His raiment fair. Then all amazed, Martin did look Again, and lo! a soldier's cloak-The half of one—the Saviour wore. And then the wond'ring sleeper saw, The white-robed seraphs, and he heard Them say to Christ, "Whence came, O Lord, That riven soldier's cloak?" and He Made answer, "It was given to me By Martin yester-eve.'
"How Lord?" They say to Him, and Martin heard

"How Lord?"
They say to Him, and Martin heard
The Saviour say with smile divine,
"He gave it to the least of mine,
And thus he gave it unto Me."
And then the vision suddenly
Did vanish, leaving Martin full
Of rapturous joy unspeakable,
At having seen in such a guise
His Saviour Christ in Paradise.

The Aced for an Enthusiastic Belief.

HE refined and enlightened man of this century recoils from the very thought of hardships endured by his less cultured but stronger-principled ancestor, who embattled, courageously defended some sacred article of his faith, or marched to champion the cause of right against those who, absorbed in selfism, would stop the onward sweep of truth.

Owing to the upspringing of a cautious calculating spirit which only questions the immediate effect of an action on his material interest, the polished citizen of to-day refuses to sacrifice his cheerful comforts, in order to rigorously assert some principle whose profession may act disadvantageously on his own interests.

Nor does the religion of fashion, accepted by so many as a sop to their conscience, afford any hindrance to, much less make any determined attack upon, these weakening tendencies.

This is an age of excessive refinement: what we object to, we gloss over; what is rough and harsh, we polish down; we cry, unity is strength, extremes must meet, and men of opposing views must be made to see alike. We refuse to be bound by what we term narrow systems and set words and phrases, forgetting that words are the expression and very frequently the only exponent of thought, and thought the fruitful mother of action.

The man who holds tenaciously and determinately to some peculiar principle, we denominate narrow-minded, and fail to perceive among those who advocate breadth of view a lack of depth, and in their seeming liberal-mindedness, a moral laxity.

Finding our principles less sternly attacked from without we seem to have less to defend, and sink into a condition of smug complacency, and rejoicing in a higher social status we have grown to regard as vulgar a persistent assertion and determined defence of cherished principles.

Hideously vulgar is that ill named refinement which sets wealth and social position against the Eternal Verities. A vulgarity that tinges the moral character.

A cowardly fear of public opinion and a failure to see in a strict adherence to fixed principles true nobility of character have contributed to bring about the chill indifference and moral apathy of our own time.

Enthusiasm seems to have paled and died (enthusiasm for truth and right I mean) amid the modern tendency to look alone to material interests, and measure a man by his social advantages; and lofty aim and high endeavour (the offspring of a glowing effective enthusiasm) with their happy result—a moral elevation, will be less frequently seen as enthusiasm, their creator, diminishes.

There is nothing so calculated to make a man morally strong, as an enthusiastic belief, especially if the conviction held be not generally accepted. Our crying need is for the uprising of a disinterested enthusiasm for truth and right, and a faithful adherence to conviction.

Light in Darkness.

OME years ago a respectable tradesman of London, of unquestionable integrity, was exceedingly troubled in his mind respecting the safety of his future state. During a bodily affliction, which eventually proved fatal, he became still more doubtful of his interest in Christ, although many friends endeavoured to encourage him in relying on the all-sufficiency of that grace on which his hopes had been fixed for years, previously to his being thus temped. A short time before his dissolution he exclaimed with horror and anguished, "I die a confirmed hypocrite!" A friend by his bedside, seeing him apparently motionless, said, "He is gone!" which the wife (who was in an adjoining room) hearing, immediately came in, and, with strong emotions of grief, threw herself on the bed of her supposed lifeless husband; when, to the great surprise of surrounding friends, he again opened his eyes, and, fixing them on his wife, said (as though he were quite assured of his eternal safety), "Cruel love! cruel love! I was just entering my heavenly Father's gate, and you have disturbed me!"and instantly expired.

Please Remember.

The Superintendents and Teachers of the Sunday School will cordially welcome children to its classes. Children will also be gladly received at the meetings of the Band of Hope. Parents should see that their children enjoy all the possible privileges of their golden days. Do not let the boys and girls drift!

We affectionately invite all who are not identified with any Christian Congregation to attend our Services.

Applications for Baptism and Church fellowship, may be made to the Pastor after any Service. He will also be pleased to help those seeking the Lord Jesus Christ, at any time.

Friends wishing to become subscribers to the Magazine, should apply to the Secretary, Mr. H. V. Godwin, Sydney Lodge, Wimbledon Park Road.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

Henry Mard Beecher's Childhood.

HILDREN think much more, and much more deeply, than we are aware, upon religious subjects. I remember that I was seriously exercised upon the doctrines of election, free-agency, etc., by the time that I was eight years old. I was brought up on doctrine. The things that most influence children are acted things; not things that are said.

I don't remember to have been affected by any sermon until I was more than thirteen years old. But the prayer and talking meetings were the ones. I used to be convicted there; and I would go about trying to be "pricked in the heart." I had got that figure, and so tried to prick myself. I wanted to be taken up by some resistless wind of conviction, and to be made to suffer such agonies about my sinful state as I had heard others tell of; for I thought, that right after that would follow conversion, and I should be safe.

I don't think fear has much really good influence upon children—a powerful influence it certainly does have. I remember once we children were all called together into our kitchen-which we thought the best room in the house; its windows looked out upon trees and flowers, and its door, when opened, revealed the long line of road along which we always made haste to run as soon as we could gain our freedom. We were called into the kitchen to be talked to, by a minister who was staying at my father's. He told us how wicked boys and girls were by nature, and what an awful end was before them if they never repented. He told us the story of one wicked boy who saw the devil coming after him. The idea almost froze our young blood with horror, and we resolved with all our might to be good, that such a fate might not befall us. But, as for myself, I don't think that talk ever did me a particle of good; on the contrary, I believe I never was so bad any one week as I was that week, spite of all my efforts to stop myself by thoughts of that dreadful story, and of how I should feel to see the devil coming up the road after me.

I remember that one Sunday morning, as soon as I awoke, I began to play, picking the cotton out of the quilt, and rolling it into balls to throw at my brother. Suddenly came the thought, "You wicked boy! to begin the Sabbath by playing." At once I was condemned, and ducked beneath the bed-clothes lest something dreadful should catch me. There I lay quietly five minutes, as long as I ever kept still.

There came a woman to live with us—Aunty Chandler we were taught to call her; she became my fast friend, and used to beg me off from whippings. There was a tree whose apples used to get me up early in the morning. I was often whipped for stealing them; but whipping used to make me very brave. One morning, just as I was stealing out to go for the apples, Aunty Chandler stopped me: "O Henry!" she said, tears rolling down her face, "I cannot bear to have you whipped so; why will you go and get those apples?" This was a new idea. It had never struck me that Aunty Chandler got the whippings on her heart. After that, there were not ropes enough in old Connecticut to draw my young feet to that tree.

In those days, people used to get together and pray, and make a solemn time of it when a train of emigrants were about to start for Ohio. It was almost as if they were to start for another world. Well do I remember the long line of white-covered waggons that used to wind through Litchfield, and I used to run into the house and hide under the table that they might not steal and carry me off. Well, the time came when Aunty Chandler went away in one of those slow-moving trains. I shall never forget it, I thought I was near the end of my Gospel when she went. Her life was strong in its good influence upon me. Next came a negro servant. He was my next evangelist. I used to watch him in the field, and in the house, and even now, with my mature reflection, I cannot remember ever to have seen him do a wrong act. As I worked beside him in the field, he used to tell me his experience, and where he learned this and that hymn; and then he would sing as only the African can sing, and I used to wish I could have such religion as that negro enjoyed. When we went to bed-he and I slept in the same garret, he in one corner and I in the other; some people would think it a dreadful thing to have to share a garret with a negro-when we went to bed he used to pile his pillows up behind him so that he could lie sitting up, take his hymn-book, and fasten his candle up somewhere so that he could see. He would sing hymn after hymn with such relish and enjoyment, the big tears frequently rolling down his dark face, that I used to be cut to the heart with remorse, that I, a minister's son, brought up with every advantage, should be so much worse than a poor negro. I would lie there and pretend to be asleep, while all the time he was singing right at my conscience, and I was crying heartily to hear him. Oh, how glad I should have been could I have changed places with that poor negro serving-man, if it hadn't been for cheating him! I think that lived, actedout religion does more good to children than all the talking that can be done, though talking certainly should not be omitted. ### The Refiner.

HERE was once a little bit of gold lying hid in the earth. It had a so long that it thought it should never be used, and it said to itself, "Why do I lie idle here? Why am I not picked up, that men may see me shine?"

One day a man dug it up, and said, "There is some gold in this lump; but I cannot use it as it is; I must take it to the refiner."

When the refiner got it, he threw it into a melting-pot, and heated his fire to melt the gold. As soon as the little piece of gold felt the heat of the fire it began to tremble, and cried, "I wish I had laid quiet in the earth."

But the fire grew hotter and hotter, and at last the gold melted, and left all the earthy part of the lump by itself.

"Now," said the gold, "My troubles are over; now I shall shine."

But its troubles were not over yet. The man took it once more, and began to hammer it into some shape.

"Ah," said the gold, "what a trouble it is to be gold; if I had been dross or earth I should not have been put to all this pain."

"That is true," replied the man, "if you had been dross you would not have had all this pain but then you would not have become what you are now, a beautiful gold ring."

The piece of gold is like a man or woman. The dross of common earth means his or her faults or weaknesses. Jesus is the Refiner. He sends trials and troubles to us to make us good and strong, and to take away our weaknesses and Pain is one of our trials. If we bear it patiently, Jesus will make us better by pain. He will make you brave and gentle. Next time you have to bear pain, say to yourself: "Jesus is taking away my faults; I must be patient."— Baptist Herald.

Mrs. Baeyertz.

RS. BAEYERTZ, the well-known lady stock, her father and mother having been both of pure Hebrew blood. Both of them were strictly orthodox in their attachment to the faith of Israel, and on her marriage to Mr. Baevertz, who was of German ancestry, her father was so deeply incensed, thinking his name had been dishonoured, that he scored her name out of the family register, and thereafter reguarded her as one that was dead. Her married life, which was very happy, was a very brief one, through her husband meeting with a fatal accident while out shooting, and as a young widow she was left with two little children

During her husband's lifetime she had been received into membership in a Christian Church while as yet her heart was far from God. But at the "communion" table she was overwhelmed with a keen sense of being utterly unfit to partake worthily. "How can you say, 'I believe in Jesus Christ," her conscience seemed to say, "believing deep down in your heart that He was a mere man (and therefore an impostor), since He declared Himself to be Divine?" The result of this stinging of conscience was that she never dared to go back again to the Lord's table until she had found the Lord.

In the distress of heart and mind that followed her bereavement, hard and bitter thoughts of God possessed her, but into this eventide of sorrow the blessed light of life came, and its coming opened up to her a new world, and started her in a path of usefulness such as she never could have dreamed of. Reading one day in the Gospel of John, while sitting by herself alone, the Holy Spirit revealed Christ to her astonished gaze. "Christ is God," she cried. "He died for me; He is my Saviour." Such a flood of love filled her heart as the revelation broke on her that on her knees she sobbed aloud, not for sorrow, but for joy. Old things had passed away; behold, all things had become new.

A Japanese Mother and Her Son.

HERE is an old Christian woman, named Morita, living in Tokyo, who is very zealous in her efforts to bring others to love and obey her Lord and Master. She had a son who was very wicked, and wasted his mother's property: his wickedness went to such an extent that in the course of ten years he had been sent to prison seven times. So bad was his conduct that all his other relations and friends forsook him. Only his good and patient mother was left to pity and care for him in his wretched condition. Her faith in God did not waver, and whenever she saw him she told him of Christ, and endeavoured to persuade him to forsake his sins, and walk in the ways of righteousness and peace.

But he was so hardened in sin that he turned a deaf ear to all her loving entreaties. He only said in reply, "Dear mother, it is all right for you to be good, and to go to heaven, but I am so addicted to evil ways that I cannot stop, and it is my purpose to live on in this same course and go to hell." Still his mother did not give him up, and prayed for him day and night.

About two years ago he was sent to prison once more; and while thus in confinement his wife died of the cholera, leaving four children, of whom the youngest was only a babe. The grandmother was at first much troubled, and said, "There is surely no other way than for these little ones to die of starvation." Then after a while she said, "Oh, no, it is a great mistake to doubt the power and goodness of God, and He who has created us is also able to supply all our need. So she took the little ones to her home and cared for them tenderly.

In November, 1899, the son and father was released, and when he came to his home and found the motherless children thus cared for by the old grandmother, his hard heart was melted. He became a truely penitent and humble seeker after that religion which had strengthened and comforted his mother's heart. From that time his house was opened as a place for preaching, and frequent services were held there for his own benefit, and also to lead others to a knowledge of Christ and His salvation.

One day he read the second chapter of Ephesians, and was deeply moved by its appropriateness to his own case. He has been received into the Church, and is vigorously labouring to extend the blessings of the Gospel among all his associates and friends.

Never too Busy to Pray.

ESUS appears to have devoted Himself specially to prayer of time was unusually full of work and excitement. His was a very busy life; there were nearly always "many coming and going" about Him. Sometimes, however, there was such a congestion of thronging objects that He had scarcely time to eat. But even then He found time to pray. Indeed, these appear to have been with Him seasons of more prolonged prayer than usual. Thus we read: "So much the more went there a fame abroad of Him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities. And He withdrew Himself into the wilderness and prayed."

Many in our day know what this congestion of occupation is. They are swept off their feet with their engagements, and can scarcely find time to eat. We make this a reason for not praying; Jesus made it a reason for praying. Is there any doubt which is the better course? Many of the wisest have in this respect done as Jesus did. When Luther had a specially busy and exciting day, he allowed himself longer time than usual for prayer beforehand. A wise man once said that he was too busy to be in a hurry. He meant that if he allowed himself to become hurried he could not do all that he had to do. There is nothing like prayer for producing this calm self-possession. When the dust of business so fills your room that it threatens to choke you, sprinkle it with the water of prayer, and then you can cleanse it out with comfort and expedition.

"My Father is Respectable!"

LITTLE while since a gentleman caught a young lad in the act of robbing his garden. For some time the fruit had been disappearing, and the culprits could not be caught; but at last one was seen in the very act, chase was given, and the offender was soon seized. Many and fierce of course were his efforts to escape, many his kicks and struggles. He tried to slip off, and to bolt off; he tried a jerk, and tried an even pull; he wriggled, and begged, and prayed, and promised not to come again; but all to no purpose: a prisoner he now was, and a prisoner he must remain.

The culprit was being put into an outhouse, while the police were sent for, and at the dreadful word "Police" his howlings and bemoanings became more loud than ever. "Oh, don't send for the police! Don't send for the police: for my father is respectable." And at the idea of his father being disgraced, he howled worse and

The gentleman was struck with this plea, and being unwilling that a respectable man should be disgraced; and perhaps being moved by the boy's regard for his parent's name, gave the lad his choice,—either then and there to get a good flogging, or to be given up into the hands of police.

The flogging, as one or the other of the two must be chosen, was thankfully accepted; and the boy's father was sent for, and in his presence a good sound thrashing was administered, which we hope will, with the remembrance of his parent's respectability, keep that lad from picking and stealing for the time to come.

I could not but feel struck by the boy's argument, guilty as he was: "My father is respectable." By his so willingly accepting the thrashing, it is evident that he did not advance this plea solely for the purpose of getting off. It would have been a real grief to him to have brought his parents to shame.

Surely we may learn, even though it be from the mouth of a thief.

Let no parent think that to be respectable is worth nothing, and that he need make no sacrifice for respectability's sake. Many a man has neither money nor money's worth, so far as this world's goods are concerned, to leave his children; but he can leave them the heritage of a respectable name. And it may be that that will keep them from evil, or make them ashamed of it when they have fallen into it. It is a great thing to a boy or girl to feel that they have something decent belonging to them: a decent home, a decent name, decent parents, decent friends. A man is reckless when he has nothing to lose; but let him at least have these.

And if he should fall, we cannot tell when it may please God to make use of this as an instrument to arrest a man in his course of folly. It will help to deepen his sense of unworthiness; it will give him something to rise up to. The prodigal in the depth of his wretchedness remembered what his father was,—that he himself was one with a household so ordered and provided for that, even the many hired servants had bread enough and to spare; and he determined no longer to remain perishing amongst the swine, but to arise and go to that father.

God has taught us in His holy Word to call Him "Father;" Jesus has said, when we pray to Him we are to say, "Our Father which art in Heaven."

This is wonderful love on His part; it is wonderful condescension. We can understand His allowing us to call Him "King," but "Father," is something altogether different. How God stoops to us, when He lets us call Him "Father!"

The angels, all bright and glorious as they are, are not allowed to call God "Father." They may call Him "Creator," and "Lord God Almighty," but not so near and dear a name as "Father." To us is given a much higher privilege than to them.

Let us try to act worthily of it. What should we think of a child of our own, who allowed our name to be dragged through the mire, who made it a by-word in the mouth of low people? Yet how often that is what men who call themselves Christians are doing!

selves Christians are doing!

Would to God that we always remembered the nobility and honour of our Great Father, that it were an argument with us why we should not sin, that we felt how shameful it were to bring His name into contempt before the world.

Would that we were so choice of our high relationship that, we would rather suffer personally than have it in any wise openly disgraced!

Yes: would that it met us before our sin, in the way of our sin, and said to us, "This thing is not worthy of your Father." David was visited with sore punishment because he had given the enemies of God cause to blaspheme; and how often have we done the same? May we be tender of the honour of our Father, of the name of the heavenly relationship, and be taught by the chosen and willingly borne stripes of this young thief. A shame, a pain, deeper, acuter than the rod, was the connection of the name of a thief with the respectability of his father.

Look upon yourself, then, good reader, if you profess to be a Christian at all, as one to whom in some measure the Father commits His honour. He says, "People will judge of Me, and My laws, and My ways, by the conduct of those who profess to belong to Me." Accept the great trust of God's honour, in the midst of a wicked world, and do not act worse than even a young thief who was tender of the respectability of his father.

Rev. B. P. Power, M.A.

Stuck Fast in a Rut.

R. DOUGLAS relates: "an aged farmer and a young man, who had recently given himself to Christ, were driving along a country road. The young man was talking about his newly-found Saviour with all the joyous enthusiasm of a young convert, when his old and somewhat cynical companion interrupted him, saying 'Oh yes, you know you are just in your first love, but wait a little, and then you'll-you'll-', and he meant, though he did not say it, that he would get cold, like himself. 'And what are you?' enquired the young man.
'I am an established Christian,' was the answer. They drove on for some time in silence, until they were somewhat roughly brought up by the cart wheel sticking fast in a deep rut. They got out to try and liberate it; the old man whipped the horse and spoke rather forcibly, but all to no purpose; the wheel remained immovable. After one of their fruitless efforts, the young man looked at the farmer and remarked, 'I guess, my friend, it's got established.' Similarly there are some Christians who get into a deep rut, and stick there, and mistake their criminal inactivity for established Christianity."

God is more willing to pardon than to punish.

Historical Note.

THE movement which resulted in the establishment of the Unitarian Christian Church at Wandsworth, was commenced under the direction of the London District Unitarian Society in the spring of 1882. Several families residing in the district were united as the nucleus of a congregation, and services were held in the Schoolroom at Tonsley Hill, East Hill, being conducted by various ministers and others, till the settlement of a regular pastor in July, 1883, when the Rev. W. G. Tarrant, B.A., began his ministry. In 1885 the present building was erected on a freehold site at a total cost of nearly £3,000, and, in October of that year, the opening services were conducted in the new Church. In 1.887 a Schoolroom was added on freehold ground to the rear of the Church. Formerly the income of the Church included a generous grant in aid, from the London District Unitarian Society; the amount thus derived was gradually decreased, and was finally dispensed with. There is no debt of any kind attaching to the site or building.

Committee's Report for 1899.

In presenting their Annual Report the Committee have one special event to chronicle which is different from the ordinary year's record. On the 10th October, 1899 the Annual Meeting of the Provincial Assembly for London and the South Eastern Counties was held at Wandsworth, including a service at our church, and a business and public meeting at the Town Hall in the afternoon and evening respectively. While there was no noticeable attendance of strangers from the neighbourhood or elsewhere, the service and meetings were well attended and your Committee felt gratified at the interest taken therein by the members of the congregation, and the welcome shown to the many visitors from our other churches. The evening meeting, presided over by Mr. J. F. Schwann, introduced a series of interesting papers or speeches on the importance of the message our faith puts forward to different sections of the community, and for this meeting as well as for all the local arrangements of the day your committee is indebted to Mr. Charles Fenton, who had most kindly undertaken their organiza-

The mention of Mr. Fenton's name leads to the notice of his retirement at the last general meeting from the office of Honorary Secretary, which he had held for eleven years, and a pleasing incident in this connection took place on the occasion of a Summer Party of the congregation held at the invitation of the Chairman, Mr. 5

Schwann, at "Oakfield," Wimbledon, when Mr. Fenton was presented with the "hundred best books" named by Sir John Lubbock, as a slight token of the appreciation by his fellow members of his many notable services.

In other ways the life of the Church has gone on as usual, and evidence of its vitality and usefulness can be gathered from the reports and accounts of the different societies and institutions working in and around it. A matter for more than passing mention however, is that your Committee have noticed, with serious regret, a distinct falling off this winter, in the attendances at our Sunday services. This is the more noticeable, as despite losses by death or removal, the membership keeps up, and the difficulty of allotting seats to new members is as great as in former years. If all who are enrolled were in fairly regular attendance, the Church would always be well filled. Your Committee feel bound to lay special stress on this, for while one effect is the decrease of our revenue from the offertories, there is another effect to be considered. The financial aspect can be left without further comment than is afforded in the accompanying balance sheet, the deficit on which, will, with the unpaid account for drainage work, require a special appeal for further funds.

But the consideration present to the minds of your committee, is that a danger exists that they believe is not sufficiently comprehended. There is abundant evidence in the history of our church of the inestimable value of our Minister, not only in his spiritual guidance, but in the many philanthropic and social works of which he is the centre. The Committee believe that his services have been sought of late by several churches lacking a minister. We cannot better assure him of our attachment and appreciation than by regular attendance at the services, and by taking active interest in the other work of the Church. How far each member can individually help to remove the appearance of neglect or indifference is a question for each to determine; and if everyone feels that upon him or her depends the united life of the whole, under the same leadership, the Church will assuredly flourish with undoubted vigour.

As is now well known, the London Unitarian Bazaar will be held on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd of May, 1900. As our church at Wandsworth was one of the offspring of the promoting body—the London District Unitarian Association, it is fitting that we should take an active interest in its organization, and the various lists of workers in one way or another, show that we are fully represented.

Reference has already been made to losses by death. Inevitable as these losses must be from time to time, their occurrence is none the less pathetic; and when, as this year, the list of departed friends includes some of the oldest and most faithful members of the Church, their vacant places seem hard, if not impossible to fill. While we reverently and affectionately recall their names, we feel that their memory will be best honoured by our own continued and increased faithfulness in every good cause they had at heart.

During the year the office of Hon. Secretary has been temporarily filled by the Treasurer, Mr. Herbert B. Lawford, with the assistance of Mr. Benson Lawford. This arrangement, having tided over the difficulty caused by Mr. Fenton's retirement from office, will now, it is hoped, give place to a more regular division of responsibility. The Committee cannot allow the occasion to pass without expressing their hearty thanks, which all will share, to Mr. H. B. Lawford, who has so worthily discharged the duties of Hon. Treasurer in succession to his late much respected father, his only predecessor in this office since the formation of the Church.

The Committee have met five times during the past year, and have given the fullest consideration to all matters that have come before them. Mr. James and Mrs. Noble retire from the Committee and do not seek re-election, for which the remaining members are eligible.

By order of the Committee,

Herbert B. Lawford,

Hon. Secretary.

Jundan School.

THE principal feature calling for remark in connection with the life of the School during 1899 has been tion with the life of the School during 1899 has been the regularity of attendance of the scholars. No fewer than 30 first-class and 8 second-class prizes were obtained, and, after allowing for a slightly reduced standard, these figures are decidedly higher than hitherto. All the classes furnished prize-winners, thus showing the improvement to be general. No doubt the scholars gain stimulus from the example, as well as from the precept, of the teachers, whose regularity and punctuality are most praiseworthy. It is also worthy of remark that of the eleven teachers now on the roll, seven have been scholars in the now on the roll, seven have been scholars in the School.

The usual parties have been held, viz., a Summer Excursion to Epsom Downs, and the New Year's Party at the Church. Thanks are due to the friends who by funds or otherwise helped to make these occasions pleasant for the children.

The Library continues to be much used by the children, and the 'Teachers' books are in fair demand. The supply of class-books is well maintained.

The Minister's morning class has at times been considerably larger than hitherto, but the attendance is not so regular or so punctual as it might be. The lessons have again been founded on the Bible.

The Scholars' Fund for the Indian Mission amounted to £1 7s.

Book Table.

Under the supervision of Mr. E. F. Langstaff the sale and distribution of our literature has continued much as last year. The sale of "Inquirers" averages about twenty weekly, the number being larger in winter and smaller in the holiday months. "Young Days" is in steady demand, and as a good number of the children receive copies gratis, as members of the Band of Hope, the monthly parcel is a large one. The sale of Mr. Page Hopps's "Coming Day" is limited to a few copies—probably this magazine is not known as it should be. The supply of sermons and pamphlets has been useful, especially for visitors. A large number of copies of "Our Faith" (by the Rev. W. G. Tarrant) have been sold, and the Rev. R. A.

Armstrong's book, "Back to Jesus," has also been beught pretty freely. The Table does a good work; if all used it as readily as some do it would do a much larger one.

Wandsworth Unity Band of Hope.

The Band of Hope has held thirty-eight meetings during the year, with an average attendance of 96. This is a decrease in numbers on last year, the attendance during the last quarter being much smaller than for some time previously. While the Committee somewhat regret the falling off in numbers, they are gratified with the improvement in the conduct of the members, and feel better satisfied with their work; but at the same time if more helpers were available, regularly, the work might easily be extended. The number on the roll at the end of the year was 102, but the highest number during the year was 145. Thirty-six pledges have been taken.

A Recitation Contest, under the auspices of the "United Temperance Prize Committee" was held on May 1st, when in addition to the Silver Medal presented by them and awarded to the highest of the nine competitors, two book prizes were presented to the two next in order of marks. Mrs. Wilby, Miss Anstey, and Mr. P. H. Thomas kindly acted as judges.

On July 5th some of the members of our Society took part in the Children's Concert at the Crystal Palace Temperance Fête, for which they were trained by Mr. H. W. James.

On July 19th about 100 joined with the Sunday School in their Annual Treat, spending the day on Epsom Downs and returning safely after an enjoyable outing.

Festivals, (including a tea followed by games and entertainment), were held on April 17th and December

On June 19th we had a visit from Stamford Street Band of Hope, who under the direction of Mr. A. H. Biggs, gave a capital programme; and on June 26th a party from Grayshott Road Band of Hope gave us an entertainment, some of our members having previously visited them. On February 27th Mr. Montford arranged for some friends from the "Hope of Battersea" Section of the Cadets of Temperance to take the evening.

Eleven prizes have been awarded for regular attenddance (with good conduct) during the year, and a prize was given by one of the Committee to a boy who had shown a great improvement in conduct. Copies of "Young Days" and the "Band of Hope Review" have been distributed monthly to members.

The Committee gratefully acknowledge the help rendered by Mrs. Wilby, Miss Hurst, Mr. Annan, and many other friends, either personally or by bringing performers to assist in our meetings.

Elmsleigh Jocial Union.

THE Sixth Session (since its revival) of this Society began in October last, with seventy-nine members; the roll has slightly increased since then. The average in attendance at the meetings has not been quite so good as previously, but as the programme has included a series of excellent attractions the falling off has probably been owing to general casues from which another session will be free. A small balance was in the treasurer's hands last session and may be again expected.

The committee have to deplore the loss of Mr. A. Bleach, one of the honorary secretaries, who has been compelled to leave London owing to ill-health. We all unite in hoping for his speedy recovery, and anticipating his early re-appearance in our circle. Mr. E. Bideleux, who has been appointed by the committee to fill the vacancy, has also been compelled to resign, having emigrated to France. The officers this year are: President, Rev. W. G. Tarrant, B.A., Hon Treasurer, Mr. Benson Lawford, Hon. Secretary, Mr. Hugh W James, while the following ladies and gentlemen have formed the executive committee.—Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Wilby, Miss Ackroyd, Miss A. F. Bristow, and Messrs. Langstaff, Lock, Longworth, and Ryall.

HUGH W. JAMES, Hon. Sec.

The Choir.

THE Committee charged with the musical arrangements have met as occasion needed, and have endeavoured to assist the Organist and Choirmaster as far as might be, in his work generally. An effort to increase the number of volunteers for the Choir was carried on during last year with some success; but it is highly desirable that fresh interest should be aroused amongst our musical friends, in order to fill vacancies that necessarily arise, and to raise the standard nearer to the ideal cherished by all who care for an efficient and dignified service. An arrangement has been adopted by which the Church Committee will pay all charges, other than the cost of music-books, etc. Contributions towards the fund for this latter purpose will be thankfully received by either of the undersigned.

Bernard Lewis, Chairman. (Miss) A. F. Bristow, Secretary.

Work Amongst The Voor.

The sums disbursed during the year amounted to £12 0s.  $7\frac{1}{2}d$ ., being chiefly applied to assistance in cases of sickness and convalescence. It is always difficult to discriminate between the time to give and the time to withhold; but as far as possible the assistance readered is applied where it is of real use. The visits of the ladies who collect for the Provident Bank are often serviceable in supplying information that can be trusted. The number of our collectors is at present about the same as last year, viz., six. The sums collected amounted last year to £270 including balances, the withdrawals being £225. There were 425 depositors. We are again much indebted to Mr. and Mrs. C. Gresswell for their services as treasurers to the fund.

Sermon Jund.

This Fund has now completed its second year and it is satisfactory to note that the subscriptions both in number and amount have considerably exceeded those of 1898, and have not only met the expenditure for the year but have gone a long way towards wiping off the deficiency of the previous year, thus showing that there is a growing interest in the movement amongst the members of the congregation.

The result of the work and expenditure involved (as in other branches of our Church work) may not be so marked as could be wished, but the propagandist character of it must not be overlooked, and there are signs that a larger interest in the work of our Church is being awakened in the neighbourhood—due in some measure it may fairly be assumed to the distribution of this literature.

During the year five sermons have been published numbering 12,000 copies. A special effort to reach the inhabitants of the district in connection with the distribution of Sermon No. 11 was made, and 5,000 copies were printed, and nearly the whole of these (accompanied by a leaflet, written specially for the occasion by Mr. Tarrant) were sent out in addressed envelopes to the residents in and around Wandsworth. This involved a considerable amount of extra labour, and it is chiefly owing to the very generous help afforded by many of our friends both in addressing and distributing that the work was accomplished, and I would here record my sincere thanks for their valuable assistance.

It is hoped that many more of our congregation, seeing the useful work that is being done in connection with this Fund, will give it their support and thus extend its scope and influence.

Edward Ryall, Hon. Secretary.

The Sidesmen.

The past year has not been a very eventful one. The Sidesmen held three meetings during the twelve months, and have attended to their usual duties of receiving visitors and distributing literature. It is gratifying to be able to state that some half-dozen more gentlemen have consented to act as Sidesmen. On the other hand we have sustained a further loss in the person of our late esteemed colleague Mr. Reid, who died in December last, after a long illness. Six of the Sidesmen were present at his funeral.

G. C. Boroughs, Chairman. Ernest Jones, Hon. Secretary.

Ehe Wandsworth Unity Total Abstinence Hociety.

This Society is holding fortnightly meetings, one meeting each month being devoted to Temperance addresses, music, etc., and the other being a social evening for members only. The members to a large extent are those who have been formerly connected with the Band of Hope. Those who were attending last summer took part in the Third Concert at the National Temperance Fête held at the Crystal Palace on July 5th, for which they were trained by Mr. H. W. James. A Library for the use of members has recently been started and a Hockey Club formed. The Membership is 6d, a Session

London Bazaar.

(LADIES' SEWING SOCIETY).

In response to an invitation issued by the Minister a number of ladies attended a meeting in April at which it was decided to assist the London District Unitarian Society by promising to furnish a stall at the Bazaar to be held in May, 1900. Sewing meetings have been held on alternate Wednesdays except during August, and have been well attended, the numbers present varying from 8 to 23. With the assistance of several other ladies who have been unable to be present at the meetings, but have undertaken sewing at home, a good amount of work has been prepared. It is hoped that all friends of the Church will do their utmost in the short time now remaining to get together a large collection of suitable articles, so that our Church may be well represented at the Bazaar. We are hoping to have some help from the ladies of Richmond Free Church, but they cannot promise much, their number being small. It is therefore the more necessary that we should do our very best, especially as we cwe the existence of our Wandsworth Church in a large measure to the London Unitarian Society. Further information will gladly be furnished by the Minister or either of the undersigned.

Mary E. Caiger, Secretary.

Alice Tarrant, Treasurer.

No appeal was made in 1899, but several friends sent in their subscriptions, and these with the balance in hand from 1898 were sufficient to meet the cost of the pulpit flowers and to pay for the occasional services of a gardener. Thanks are due to the ladies who support this Fund, and to those who kindly arrange the flowers Sunday by Sunday. The total receipts during 1899 were £4 17s. 4½d. and the expenditure £4 4s. 1d., leaving a balance in hand of 13s. 3½d.

The Guild.

The monthly meetings of our Junior Branch continue to be attractive and, it may be believed, profitable to a considerable number of young people. The attendance this year has been distinctly larger than of late. As the children pass on in years it is not so easy for them to attend, but it is hoped that the little manuals of devotion—"Daily Meditations" and "Night unto Night," which owe their existence to the Guild, will still be used by them and so the fellowship feeling may be kept up. It is gratifying to know that these booklets have proved serviceable to a wide circle of readers.

Minister's Note.

In addition to the various sums raised in a regular way for uses connected with the Church and other institutions, I have to acknowledge one or two kind denations from friends not enrolled amongst us, but desirous of showing their interest and goodwill. By the aid thus given I have been able at times to supplement the equipment of the Church and Schoolroom in certain small but useful ways. To these sometimes distant and anonymous friends I must tender my hearty thanks for all the interest they show in our work.

But how shall I find words sufficient to thank those numerous faithful allies, young and old, who through seasons bright or dull are always the same, many of them year after year, loyal, helpful, self-effacing, cheery, and resolute! I wish everyone to know that beyond all I can say, I treasure their goodwill in my heart; and I pray that our united efforts in service and class, and society, and home, may continue and increase in signs of the best fruitfulness.

The past year has been in many respects a year of trial. Upon more than a usual number of homes there has been laid a dark shadow of sickness and bereavement; anxieties and troublous changes have probably come to most of us; while to all, as members of the larger community, the year has been made sadly memorable by the outbreak of a dreadful war. We need all our courage at such times; but if we truly believe in goodness and truth and righteousness we shall not cease to hold on and to press ever forward, dutifully and trustfully. It is just at this time that a band of faithful and intelligent people, such as our Church may be, can best help the people around by a fearless and upright character, and a cheerful use of all wise helps to a happy life.

The gaps in our ranks, to which the Committee's report refers, summon us all to redoubled effort that, as far as may be, they may be filled. In recalling the year's history I am specially glad that a good number of my younger hearers have become Associate-members of the Church. I hope they will soon be joined by others; and that all, old and young, may feel the blessing and help divine in all their life.

Rev. John Park, 12 Earlsfield Road, Wandsworth Minister of East Hill bongregational Church.

9.E.a.

Me Park is a tall and sharely built, probably nearing 60. Thoughtful and rather care worn face, almost that of an ascetic; slight greyish moustache. Refined manner and quiet forcible speaker. Of the 30 years of his ministerial life, 20 have been spent at Wandsworth. He lives in a good house near Wandsworth bommon and received me in an exceptionally well-appointed drawing roomferns, etchings, ormulu cabinet, old china re.

The bongregational bhurch on East Hill has a history dating back to 1572 (See Bhurch Manual, 6) annexed) and is the richest and probably the strongest Free bhurch in Wandsworth.

The people of Wandsworth are mainly lower middle class, and it is by these people the chapel is chiefly attended. They come from the pink barred streets by Wandsworth bommon: from all parts of Wandsworth: a few from West Hill, and also from Earlsfield. As a rule, Luke xxii. 27.

It does not yet appear to me to be the twentieth century—for nineteen can no more be twenty than four can be five—but this is the twentieth occasion on which I have had the privilege of sending you greetings from the pages of the Church Manual. I repeat those greetings now with all heartiness and sincerity, trusting and desiring that during the coming days of 1900 you and yours may receive from the Giver of every good and perfect gift such blessings as are requisite as well for the body as the soul, and that your homes may be made beautiful and brilliant through the presence of the Father of Lights.

As a Church we have suffered more than usual, because so many who were members with us in the body of Christ have been summoned to the higher places, and because others again have removed from our neighbourhood; and we are sorry to lose their fellowship and their prayers, their pure Christian influence and service. Nevertheless the power and helpfulness of the Church have not declined; others have come among us who have tasted the good word of God; and in the Church and the Schools, and the Mission Halls, and in all our manifold enterprises, I am convinced that the truth which forgives and sanctifies and saves has had faithful and effective witness borne to it.

As a denomination we are summoned, not a day too soon, to do great things in view of the twentieth century; and while rejoicing in the generous response which many of you have already made to the appeal for half a million guineas to spread a pure and undefiled Christianity in the land we love, and to make our Congregational principles a power for the saving and healing of our people, I do not doubt that all of you will determine to do your own part in this noble effort. We promised a thousand guineas to to the Central Fund, but while that sum and more has been already promised, it is desirable that many who have not yet responded will do so, remembering that the man who gives for God's sake is the man who gets.

Praying that God may be much with you this year,

I am, yours faithfully,

JOHN PARK.

Statement of Congregational Principles.

First, that "the visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men, in which the pure Word of God is preached, and the ordinances duly administered." (19th Article of the Church of England.) From which it is obvious that the inhabitants of a country, or of a parish, cannot constitute a Church; a Church being a Congregation, not of citizens, nor of parishioners, but of professed believers in Jesus Christ, accepting the Scriptures as the revelation of the will of God.

Second, that in this visible Church, and over it, there are no persons who can claim from Scripture or from early history, arbitrary authority. Its only head is Jesus Christ, and His word alone is the law and rule of its existence. Hence, there is recognised no external interference in its temporal or spiritual affairs, whether that interference proceed from the State, or from a Bishop, from a Conference, or a Presbytery, or any other Christian Church; all these having no superior place or ruling power in its life. "It "appears plainly from the Scripture narrative, that though "the many Churches which the Apostles founded were "branches of one spiritual brotherhood, of which the Lord "Jesus Christ is the heavenly head . . . . yet there "were distinct, independent communities, united by the "common principles on which they were founded, but not "having any one recognised head on earth, or acknowledging "any sovereignty of one of these societies over others." -Archbishop Whately on the Constitution of a Christian Church, § 15.

As regards the offices in the early Church, it is believed they were distinctly two: One, spiritual, filled by the Bishop, or Presbyter, or Pastor (the different words refer to the same person); the other, chiefly temporal, filled by the Deacon. "It is even certain that the terms Bishop and "Elder were in the first instance, and for a short period, "used synonymously, and were indiscriminately applied to "the same order in the ministry."—Dean Waddington's History of the Christian Church, Chap. II., 2. A confession than which no more is needed to show that no such person as the modern Bishop was known in the early Christian Church.

History of the Church.

The history of the present Congregational Church in Wandsworth is linked with the formation of the Presbytery of Wandsworth in 1572, and with the old chapel built that year in rear of the High Street, since replaced by the "Memorial Hall." The old chapel was succeeded in 1860 by the erection of the first part of the present Church on East Hill, chiefly through the exertions of the Rev. P. H. Davison; the nave of the Church as it now stands having been added in 1876, during the pastorate of the Rev. D. Bloomfield James.

During the pastorate of the present Minister, there have been built and opened successively the East Hill Lecture Halls, with Vestries, &c., in 1881; the "Memorial Hall," High Street, in 1882; and the Earlsfield Mission Hall, in 1884, at a total cost exceeding £9,000. These buildings have all been put in trust as the property of the Church at East Hill; but in the Earlsfield Hall a separate Church was formed in 1892, of which the Rev. Henry J. Weatherhead was Minister in 1899 until the end of November, when he resigned on being appointed to the pastorate of the Church at Alton, Hants.

In the year just concluded the Congregational Twentieth Century Fund was taken up with enthusiasm, more than 1000 guineas having been promised, and contributions amounting to £464 15s. 6d. having been already paid.

Membership.

During the year 47 new members have been admitted—27 by profession of faith, and 20 by transfer from other churches. Our losses through death have been 14 (double the average number for several years past), and 14 members have been transferred to other churches; others have left our neighbourhood without seeking transfer, and the net result is a membership in January, 1900, of 601.

SEATS in the Church can be appropriated on application to the Deacons after the Services on Sundays or on Wednesdays. It is very desirable that all who attend the Church, but are not yet seatholders, should take an early opportunity of securing seats, that they may take their share in providing for the necessary expenses of the Church; and in order that all may thus share, a number of seats may be had in the galleries at the small charge of 1s. per quarter.

Treasurer of General Fund: Mr. T. E. FORSAITH, 7, Rose Hill Road.

Secretary: Mr. EDWARD WORSFOLD, 61, Earlsfield Road.

The General Fund, as in former years, has been divided between the four Schools connected with the Church.

Particulars of each School will be found under their separate headings.

As will be seen by the balance sheet, the total receipts for the year have been £101 15s., this sum is larger than that received in any previous year.

Although the Schools have sustained a severe loss by death and removal of some of the old subscribers, the amount has been well maintained by new and increased subscriptions.

The total sum available for division, after payment of expenses, was £77 6s. 5d.

During the year work has been carried on at this School, which we pray may be much blessed.

The Bible Classes under the charge of Miss Toms and Mr. E. H. Worsfold respectively, as well as other senior classes in the school, are in a hopeful condition.

Through the winter Monthly Social Evenings for the Senior Scholars, are held with much success, and bring into contact the teachers and the scholars in the several classes.

The Infant Class has been without a regular teacher for some months, and has suffered in consequence. It is hoped the vacancy has now been permanently filled, and this interesting branch of the school will again be restored to its prosperous state.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence again gave their generous invitation to the two Bible Classes in the summer, and a very happy time was spent at their residence at Esher.

Feeling as they do, this now oft-repeated kindness does much good for the classes, the Teachers are very grateful for the practical sympathy shown to the School.

The School joined with the other Schools in the Annual Excursion to Bookham.

The Annual Prize Distribution took place in the early part of the year, Mrs. Park kindly distributing the books and medals.

A Flower Service was held in the summer, when an address was given by Mr. C. W. Toms, and a Harvest Service in the autumn, conducted by Mr. Rowles.

During the year the School purchased a new library, the old one, which had been read by a large majority of the Scholars, being disposed of to the Eltringham Street Sunday School. Miss Wood and Mr. B. Gerrish look after this branch of the school, and the scholars have already shown their appreciation of the new books by joining the Library.

The Band of Hope, of which a separate account is given, has a large membership, and much good work is done by it, under the able management of Mr. Rowles and Mr. Dowling.

The number of poor boys in the class conducted by Miss E. Toms and Miss Keiller, keeps up, and the School has again to acknowledge the kindness of the Y.M.C.A. for the use of the room in which this class is held.

The Teachers decided that an effort should be made in the School to raise something towards the xxth Century Fund. The Scholars took the matter up warmly and have commenced weekly subscriptions.

There is a branch of the Bible Reading Association to which many of the Scholars belong.

A record amount has been collected from the Scholars on behalf of Home and Foreign Mission, over £36 having been raised during the year.

During the year three scholars have joined the Church and one become a Teacher.

In submitting their Twenty-eighth Annual Report, the Committee desire to thank most earnestly those friends who by personal assistance or by contributions, have helped forward the work of the Society.

A good attendance of members continues, and manifest interest and pleasure are shown in the weekly gatherings. The programmes have been varied, but with the hope that all efforts may lead to a common goal, the extension and upholding of total abstinence. Realising the need of Divine blessing, the meetings are begun with Prayer and Bible Reading. Temperance Addresses, Lantern Evenings, Recitations, Music, and Addresses on Kindness to Animals have been greatly enjoyed. The usual Flower and Harvest Services were held.

The number of members is 131, and the average attendance 83.

The Annual Excursion was made to Riddlesdown, and again the Committee have the happiness to record that beautiful weather made the day a most enjoyable one.

beautiful weather made the day a most enjoyable one.

In the Inter-society Recitation Competition, arranged by the Band of Hope Union, one of our members gained the Third Prize.

The sum of £1 18s. 5d. was collected for the Temperance Hospital, and several of the members attended the Exeter Hall Meeting.

The Committee deeply regret the loss, by death, of Mr. W. Keiller and Mr. C. H. Vince, old and valued friends of the Society.

The Band of Hope will shortly be deprived of the zealous services of Mr. Dowling and Miss Dowling, on account of their removal from Wandswoth. Their very earnest devotion will be most difficult to replace, and the Committee wish to record their deep gratitude for the splendid work which they have done in the interests of the Society.

The Teachers and Officers regret the loss of the services of Mr. Dowling, who is leaving the neighbourhood. The Bible Class, however, of which he was Leader, will in future be taken by Mr. Coffee, and we feel confident that the good work which has been done in the past will be maintained in Miss Fincham still continues to conduct the Young Women's Bible Class.

Registrars: MISS L. COLE, MISS FINCHAM, MISS THOMAS, MR. R. McFarlane, MR. J. McFarlane.

The Eighth Annual Report shows that there are now 70 members on the books, with a weekly average of about 38. The officers regret the loss of the services of Mr.

Dowling, who has been Superintendent for several years.

C 2

We are, however, pleased to say that Mr. Coffee, who was the organiser of this Band of Hope, has kindly consented to again become Superintendent.

Among the various meetings which have been held, a Lantern Entertainment, entitled—"Africa: Egypt to Cape Colony," may be mentioned as having been a great success. A Lecture on Bees proved very interesting and instructive; and a miscellaneous entertainment given by some members of the Stormont Road Band of Hope was also highly

The meetings are held on Thursday evenings, at 6.45.

The average afternoon attendance for the year 1899 was 305. The Teachers have worked faithfully and devotedly during the year and all the work of the school has been well maintained.

The total amount raised during the year for Missionary purposes was £14 2s. 3d., out of which £5 is allotted for the support of a native dispenser in the L.M.S. Hospital in Pekin; and a present in goods was sent out to Miss Price (an old Earlsfield Teacher), at the Zenana Mission, Jaunpur, N.W.P.

The Teachers most generously subscribed a sum of £12 17s. 6d. towards the amount needed for repairs, renovations, &c., at the Earlsfield Church.

Morning School is held in the Mission House every Sunday Morning, under the superintendence of Mr. A. Russell, with an average attendance of 66 and a marked increase of interest. Two Scholars passed the examination of the S.S. Union, and 153 belong to the I.B.R.A.

A successful Parents' Tea was held in February, when 77 Prizes for good attendance were distributed to that number of children. The School joined in the Annual Excursion as usual, and the Infants' Treat was held in July.

A week's Mission for Children was held in October by Mr. J. Tyler, of the Children's Special Service Mission. Much interest was shown and large numbers of children had to be sent away each evening for lack of room. It is believed that a number of children were deeply impressed.

Miss Ussher has charge of the Junior School, and Miss

A. Leggett of the Infants.

Miss Russell's Young Women's Bible Class is a very encouraging part of the work, the numbers continually growing, and there have again been several decisions for Christ during the year.

Mr. H. W. Worsfold's Senior Boys' Class now meets in a separate room in the Board School, and good work is being done.

The Penny Bank (under the charge of Mr. H. Tritton and Mr. H. H. Worsfold) continues to increase in usefulness, there being now 417 depositors. The money is banked in the P.O. Savings Bank. Mr. B. King has undertaken the Treasurership.

The Band of Hope is held every Friday under the leadership of Mr. H. W. Worsfold, with an average attendance of 40.

The Christian Band is held every Thursday, under the leadership of Miss Russell, and is a valuable help to the work of the Teachers.

GARRATT LANE MISSION AND P.S.A.

The Sunday Evening Services at the Mission House continue to be well attended. Mr. H. W. Worsfold and Mr. B. Hennell have charge of these services.

The P.S.A. has lost the valued services of Mr. H. Mungeam, but his place has been taken by Mr. S. Chapman, who hopes with the help of Mr. Tritton to get a hold of the many very rough lads in the neighbourhood who do not attend either school or services.

The Gospel Temperance Society continues to meet every Tuesday, the room being well filled each week and several pledges have again been taken. Mr. R. Ronald and Mr. H. W. Worsfold have charge of the Meetings.

The "Mothers' At Homes" held by Miss Cook and Mrs. Bennett, every Wednesday afternoon, are much valued. The attendance averages 28, with 59 on the books. Mrs. Edwards, senr., and Mrs. Bertram have again kindly made a large number of garments for distribution to the poor, through the Mothers' At Home and the School.

Miss Russell continues the management of the Tract districts, and the fortnightly visits of the Tract visitors are always welcome. The Visitors are Mrs. Collar, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Mulliner, Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. Spencer, Miss Stephens and Miss Yates.

The expenses of the Mission House are raised for the most part independently of the Church, under the Treasurership of Mr. J. Turton Wright. The following is the balance sheet of the Mission:—

Number of Scholars on Books, 509. Average morning attendance, 52. Average afternoon attendance, 334.

The School is quite full, which need cause no surprise in such a crowded district; and, no doubt, with sufficient workers and school accommodation, the number of scholars might be easily doubled.

There is a great opportunity here for the extension of the work of the Lord.

With very great regret we have to report that, owing to Mrs. Calderwood's continued illness, Mr. Calderwood has been compelled to resign his position as Leader of the "Young Men's Bible Class." We would earnestly ask a gentleman to volunteer for this Class, and thus prevent a leakage among our senior lads.

The Annual Prize Distribution was held on February 12th. Mrs. Park kindly distributed the prizes, and, by arrangement with the S.S.U., a Lantern Entertainment, entitled "Half-hours at the Old Manor House," was given for the pleasure of the scholars and parents, of whom there was a large attendance.

The School joined with the other three Schools in July for the excursion to Bookham.

The Infant Treat took place on July 29th, in the field at the back of the Memorial Hall.

The Teachers' Whit Monday outing took the form of a drive to Walton-on-Thames, where arrangements were made for a few hours' stay.

The Infant department is ably managed—the girls by Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Spencer and the boys by Mr. W. Allen and the Misses M. and E. Allen.

The teachers have added a library (containing nearly 400 books) to the School. The interest which this has aroused among the scholars prove that a real need has been supplied.

The interest in the Missionary cause is well maintained. Several special afternoon addresses have been arranged in connection with temperance and missionary work,

There is no lack of earnestness in other departments of School work—the Girls' Sewing Class, the Prayer Union and the branch of the International Bible Reading Association are all working most satisfactorily.

The Band of Hope numbers 98 members, and is carried on in an interesting manner by Mr. E. Lovett and Mr. Matthews, with a committee of all abstaining teachers.

The Sunday Evening Services have been steadily maintained, and we believe, have been duly appreciated and beneficial to the neighbourhood. During the summer months Open Air Meetings have been carried on without intermission and have been very successful.

On Sunday, October 15th, a Harvest Thanksgiving was held, when we had a crowded meeting, the useful gifts being afterwards distributed.

The Mothers' Meeting under Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Westhorpe, is held on Monday afternoons, at 2 o'clock, and is appreciated by many.

On Tuesday and Friday evenings the room is opened for men only, as a Men's Reading Room, with the object of getting in touch with the men of this district and also increasing the attendance at the Sunday Evening Services.

We sincerely thank those friends who have supported the Mission hitherto for the carrying on of this work, and on all our activities we pray that God's blessing may rest, as we strive in the name of our Saviour and for His sake.

MOTTO-" For Christ and the Church."

The object of this Society is to promote an active earnest life among its members, and the "active" members pledge themselves to try to do "whatever their Lord and Master would have them do."

There are 70 Active, Associate, and Hon. Members.

The pivot of the Society is the Prayer Meeting, held over

The pivot of the Society is the Prayer Meeting, held every Thursday evening in the Lower Lecture Hall at 8 o'clock, to which all young people will receive a hearty welcome.

During the summer months, some of the members have conducted Open-air Services on Sunday evenings, opposite the Board of Works Offices. A similar Service has also been held at Hill's Yard on Sunday Evenings.

The "Lodging House Mission" continues to do useful

The "Lodging House Mission" continues to do useful work. Three of our members attend regularly once a week, and a short Gospel Service is held, which is greatly appreciated, and we trust will bring forth much fruit to Christ's glory. In connection with this Mission, a dinner was given on Boxing Day, subscribed for by members and friends of the Society, followed by a concert.

The members and friends are responsible for a People's Service in the Memorial Hall every Sunday evening, at eight o'clock; the attendance is, we are glad to say, fairly good.

Every week, flowers are taken to sick or aged people, families are visited and, where necessary, relieved. Letters of appreciation have been received from time to time. Tracts are also systematically distributed. In the summer 40 poor children were sent away by the Society, for a holiday in the country.

The "Men's Own" Club (started on Fridays at the Memorial Hall, with the object of getting in touch with the men of that district, and increasing the attendance at the Sunday Evening Services held there) is growing in numbers, slowly but surely. There are now more than 30 members on the books, and the refreshment stall has always a regular flow of customers.

Hon. Secretary: MR. BERTRAM KING, 42, Earlsfield Road, Wandsworth Common.

As its name implies, this Society devotes itself to matters literary. Debates and lectures occupy the front place in its proceedings, but social and musical evenings are also included therein.

The meetings are held on Tuesday evenings, in the Lecture Hall, East Hill, at 8 o'clock, during the winter

There are 100 members, and an excellent average attendance; both in numbers and general tone the present Session may be considered an improvement on any previous Session.

There is a subscription of two shillings, which covers admittance to all Lectures, &c., for the whole Session, and any person over 17 years of age is eligible for membership. The Secretary will be pleased to give any further particulars to intending members, or to hear from friends able and willing to take part in next winter's syllabus.

The object of this Society is the help of those Churches of our denomination, which, being placed in country districts, or in the poorer parts of London and other large towns, are unable entirely to support themselves.

Subscribers are asked to state whether they wish their contributions to be sent to the Church Aid Society, which has the care of the country Churches, or to the London Congregational Union, which gives grants to the poor Churches of London. Subscriptions to the General Fund are divided between these two Societies.

The amount collected during the year was (including two Church Collections and Contributions from Teachers and Scholars at the High Street and Eltringham Sunday Schools) £106 10s. 0d., and of this sum £61 10s. 8d. went to the Church Aid Society, for poor Churches in the

The object of this Society, now in its forty-ninth year, is to cut out and make articles of clothing, which are sold to 35

the deserving poor at half the cost of the materials. The meetings for work and for the Sales to the poor are held on the second Tuesday in each month, from 2 to 5 p.m., at the Lecture Hall, East Hill. Any ladies willing to give one afternoon a month, or even to come occasionally, will be cordially welcomed. Other ladies who cannot attend these meetings, but are willing to do needlework at home, can be supplied regularly, month by month, on applying to the Secretary, who will be grateful for such help.

Committee:

MISSES FINCHAM, L. FINCHAM, GOODMAN, K. GOODMAN, WADE, and YATES.

Hon. Secretary and Treasurer:

MRS. BERTRAM KING, 42, Earlsfield Road, Wandsworth Common.

This Society has for its object the making up of all kinds of odd pieces of material into good serviceable garments for the poor, to whom they are given about Christmas time, after being exhibited in the lower Hall.

The Committee regret that the number of garments made during the past year is somewhat smaller than usual, owing to the fact that there was a considerable falling off in the number of parcels of pieces sent them, and beg to make an appeal for such gifts for the coming year.

The Society meets on the third Friday in each month, from 5 to 8 o'clock, at the houses of different ladies, notice of which is duly given from time to time.

The best thanks of the Society are hereby given to those ladies who so kindly entertained them during the past year, and the Secretary would be glad to know of any friends willing to perform a like kindness during 1900.

Mothers' Meetings are held at the Memorial Hall every Monday at 2.30, conducted by Mrs. and Miss Toms and Miss Tritton. There are about 50 members in regular attendance. In cases of sickness members are visited at their homes. In connection with these meetings a Penny Bank and Clothing Club are carried on, the interest being met by subscriptions.

Children's Sunday Morning Free Breakfasts.

This work, which has now been carried on for the past 17 years, at our Memorial Hall, is not entirely connected with our own Church, but is supported by friends of all denominations.

The work was started to reach a class of children who do not attend any Sunday School, and to clothe and feed the needy, and has been increasingly useful year by year.

No personal appeal for financial help is made, but the Lord has always provided sufficient, and put into the hearts of many to give of their time and substance.

The breakfasts are held every Sunday, at 9.30, from November to April, and the attendance this winter has ranged from 120 to 160. After breakfast a short Service is held, conducted by friends both from the Established and Free Churches

Children's clothing will be thankfully received by Mrs. Broad, and donations of money by the Treasurer, Mr. J. Turton Wright, 3, Earlsfield Road, or Mr. Broad, 34, Lebanon Gardens, Wandsworth.

Working Men's Saturday Popular Entertainments.

TWENTY-THIRD SEASON.

These Entertainments are held in the Memorial Hall, High Street, on Saturday evenings, from November to March, and consist of Lectures (with dissolving views), Music, Singing, Recitations, and Readings. The charge for admission is one penny, twopence, and threepence, which amounts defray all expenses.

The Entertainments are conducted by Messrs. Toms and A. Kelly, assisted by a large number of ladies and gentlemen, who kindly give their services. After each Entertainment, Coffee and Bread and Butter are supplied on payment of one penny. The Misses Toms kindly undertake the superintendence of this department.

The attendance shows that the Entertainments continue, as in former years, to be fully appreciated by those for whom they are given.

The Christmas Club has been very successful again this year; 180 geese and turkeys, with 1-lb. currants, 1-lb. plums, as well as apples and oranges (the gift of friends), and onions, were distributed.

those coming from a distance have not moved away from Wandsworth and retain an old connection. They have "gravitated to our church" The district tends downward, and an increasing proportion: of the people are living 2 families in a house.

The minister is the only haid worker. Many voluntary workers, including 160 teachers in the four Sunday Schools, besides y deacons, and a fair proportion of visitors.

The bhurch at East Hell seats 1100 people, and has a hall and vestries attached. Besides this, they have the Garratt Sane Mission at the corner of Bendon Valley seats 100), the Memorial Hall, High St (500), The Eltringham Mission in York Road (see interview with M=Baker p.1). The Board schools at Eltringham Street and Farratt Lane are also rented for school purhoses.

The bongregation at the Sunday services (11 v 6.30pm averages 800 to 900, and are about the same morning and evening, the proportion of working people being greater in the evening.

of these and the Band of Slope &c. sufficient information is given in the "manual."

Their chief mission work in Wandsworth is connected with the Memorial Hall and the most successful meeting there, is the Saturday hopular entertainment, which is crowded. The Sunday evening service is well attended by working people-some fairly well employed, and people who "cannot afford to hay for their religion." No collections are made. Of these heaple, a few become members of the Shurch, but they dont care to come to the Shurch — "imagine they are too hoor."

Social agencies include Siterary Society at the bhurch, and mother's meetings and other agencies at the Missions.

Minister and appointed members of the bhurch visit the sick and poor, - as a rule our own people. Have no right to visit others.

No direct nursing agencies. Socal nursing association is doing good work.

a strong federal co-operation between the different free churches. The Established bhurch holds itself rigidly aloof from all charitable and public co-operation. They avoid us even on the platform. Only one clergyman that will meet with them, the majority are distinctly against the Free Churches.

The bhurch of England is active amongst the heaple, and holds the parish charities, which help them with the poor. The Free Bhurches do quite as much, and if the Scm, and the S. army be included, outnumber the anglicans. The Scm does a very good work- it has 6 mission-aries in the locality.

The Poor Law on the whole (re Out Relief) is well administered.

Police favourable to temperance. Do their work well, but would not initiate any proceedings against publicans. Increase of Drinking but not of serious drunkenness. Decided improvement since the introduction of the School Board system. The Free Churches have just started a branch of the Sondon bouncel for the Kromotion of Public Morality. [See E.F. Bulin 37 norfolk Street] The police only move in response to pressure by public authorities. The object of this new organization being to indirectly move the holice by means of the bouncil and local authorities. Prostitution not markedly prominent. The lowest class of women on Wandsworth bommon. would not attract their young men. Marriages usually at mature age, but do not get the poorer people.

Thrift fair. Children always hay for their excursions. Penny Banks, slate club and goose clubs are taken up well.

Lealth very good.

Housing. Some crowding in the lower part. Local condition on the whole decidedly emproving.

amongst the membership, considerable changes occur. The elder people move away to Sutton and broydon. Slave as many transfers to as away from Wandsworth. "The bhurch is now stronger than ever it was, and they are getting hold of the people." Their difficulty is the Established bhurch, which is so unsympathetic and intolerant. we might be heather" Evangelicals are a diminishing quantity.

> 86, HIGH STREET, PUTNEY, S.W.

My DEAR FRIENDS,

This Calendar will come into the hands of some whom I do not yet know. In the name of the Church I heartily invite you to join in our fellowship and work, and in particular to come to the Social Meeting of the congregation on October 11th. It can hardly be more enjoyable than the few we have previously had, but it will be much more important. For the Deacons are going to bring before you a scheme for the building of a permanent Church, which we want to incorporate in the supplementary account of the 20th Century Fund before November 1st. And in one sense everything depends on the response you make at this meeting. Will you take the matter into your prayers and earnest of thought.

I believe this Winter is going to be the best we have had as a Church. Ten new members are joining us, and this will lift our numbers above a hundred. We want two or three volunteers for our increasing Sunday School, especially one to take a class of very jolly boys. One gentleman is ready if another will join him. I have no fear for the success of the new Temperance Guild.

The Literary and Social Union has begun well with fifty members. But we must aim at continual enlistment among the young people outside, so that the influence of the Church may radiate in healthy and helpful ways further into our neighbourhood.

I have been encouraged by the increasing interest shown in our study of the Epistle of James on Wednesday Evenings. Before Christmas I hope to deal in a similar fashion with the First Epistle of Peter. We shall find a change from this series in the Free Church meetings for which each separate Church is giving up the Wednesday after the first Sunday in each month.

May I ask you not to overlook the opportunities we have of praying together that we may become better and work better. Our prayer meetings are not very frequent, but we want to keep them very real and fresh. If we count upon prayer it will not let us down. It is a means by which God restores our souls for His name's sake. We are looking too for fresh faces in our Society of Christian Endeavour.

On November 1st I shall have completed three years happy ministry here. I want to close the Church meeting early that evening in order to meet specially with those who have joined the Church here for the first time. And during the Tuesdays of that month I propose to hold a class from 8.15 to 9.0 with a view of helping those who are not quite clear as to the meaning of Church membership. Let me add that anyone who wishes to see me is sure to find me in any evening at 10.0.

Yours very sincerely, A. NORMAN ROWLAND.

ASTLEY HOUSE,
HIGH STREET.

January 1st, 1900.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

Writing on New Year's Day I heartily wish you such peace in your home and prosperity in your business as shall keep you free from all occasions of anxiety, mistrust and complaint during the year 1900. One message of the New Year is that none of us should be looking Westward in respect to Truth or Duty. God has yet more light to break forth from His Word, said John Robinson the Pilgrim Father, and that is true even of the Word which he speaks through our personal experience. We must live to the praise of "The mighty God whose matchless power Is ever new and ever young."

We have the right, yes, and the duty, to shake off every sentiment and habit that makes us begin to feel old.

Our Church Anniversary services will be held on February 11th and 12th. The preachers on preceding occasions have been the Revs. J. Morgan Gibbon, Ossian Davies and Henry Harries, all Welshmen. This year Dr. McClure comes, distinguished as preacher as well as headmaster. And on the following evening we shall have the favour of another visit from the Rev. R. J. Campbell, of Brighton.

It is probable you have heard of the proposal which is now before Union Church and ourselves that there should ultimately be an amalgamation between us. There is no doubt that the unity of front and the economy of resources which would result from this would benefit not only Congregationalism but the cause of Christ in Putney.

And if it proves unnecessary to proceed with the original Building Scheme, it is hoped that friends will be willing to contribute two out of the three annual payments they generously intended to make.

In spite of this special fund I am anxious that the Altar forms should not drop out of service. A copy is given to every seat-holder, and can be obtained by any member of the congregation. Any of the Collectors for the four institutions will gladly call on you for a shilling or more every year or quarter.

Our various societies must speak for themselves from the inner pages. But I might mention that the Registrar of the Sunday School has shown me a table of attendance giving figures for the various classes as well as for the whole school. The total average shows an advance on last year from 68 to 91. And this is only a typical case of our general progress. That we may bring more consecration and receive more power during 1901 is the prayer of

Yours faithfully,

A. NORMAN ROWLAND.

MISS A. CARR.
MR. MATHIAS.

MR. STEVERSON.

My DEAR FRIENDS,

A manual means a book to have at hand, and no doubt this will be in your hand in proportion as the affairs of the Church are near your heart. Another year of co-operation and fellowship has surely deepened our harmony and made the very place where we meet more dear to us. But it may be that before long we shall be called upon to prove that our union is essentially one of spirit rather than of place. And we may be sure of this, that whatever change may be before us we can best be prepared to face it by a greater personal devotion to our Master. He will certainly show us His will, as He has done in the past, if we wait for Him together and alone.

I think it is true to say, and the following pages are a witness, that in almost every department of our Church life, we have gone forward during 1899. May we be made worthy for each new responsibility and opportunity that is given! The membership of the Church has now mounted to 114, a net increase of 27 if we reckon up to March 1st, our Anniversary date in 1899. We heartily welcome our new members. And yet we feel that no one can compensate for the recent loss of our beloved friend Mrs. Barrett, whose memory is fragrant for her gentleness and love.

It is a pleasure to note the quickened interest in our Church Meetings, and the creation of the Sunday morning Prayer Meeting, as well as the advance of all the Societies which can speak for themselves. But the outstanding event of 1899 was your response to the Twentieth Century Fund in which you were the first of all the churches in the country. Now we have before us the scheme for our own future extension, and whatever form it may take, I trust in the power of your faith and devotion to carry it through.

Yours ever faithfully,
A. NORMAN ROWLAND.

Church Principles.

Membership of the Church is open to all who love the Lord Jesus Christ, and who are striving to serve and follow Him. Those who desire to become members should communicate with the Pastor without delay.

The following are the principles of Congregational Polity as laid down by Dr. Dale, with connecting notes in italics.

- I. It is the will of Christ that all those who believe in Him should be organised into Churches in order that He may be definitely and fully represented in the world, and that "the Body" may be knit together through every joint of supply. (Eph. 4, 16 marg.)
- 2. In every Christian Church the Will of Christ is the Supreme Authority, Because He is the Head of the Body and the source of the supply, and has promised the presence and help of His own Spirit.
- 3. It is the Will of Christ that all the Members of a Christian Church should be Christians, Because His Will can be known, His aims pursued, His Spirit realised only by those who take Him for their Saviour and Master.
- 4. By the Will of Christ all the Members of a Christian Church are directly responsible to Him for maintaining His Authority in the Church, And if only we are faithful we shall never discredit the democratic ideal which was initiated by the Apostles and is now professedly the principle of our Imperial Polity.
- 5. By the Will of Christ every Society of Christians organised for Christian Worship, Instruction and Fellowship is a Christian Church, and is Independent of External Control, This results from the preceding principles, is based on Apostolic practice, and constitutes a Church which is Free because it is subject to the Spirit of Christ.

As Teachers and Officers of the School, we are glad to be able to report that encouraging progress has been made during the year. The number of children on the books has risen from 115 to 151, of whom 94 are girls and 57 are boys. The average attendance has increased from 68 to 97. The teaching staff has also been strongly reinforced, although we have to regret that Miss Elwin, owing to her frequent absence from the neighbourhood, was obliged to give up her class.

Friends may remember that last year (1898) we were handicapped by want of teachers. The increase in our teaching Staff has largely conduced to the increase in the attendance of our Scholars.

The Bible Class for Young Women is still carried on with encouraging results, three having joined the Church during

Ten scholars entered in March for the examination of the Sunday School Union, and all of them passed.

The Anniversary Services were held on June 25, our pastor preaching in the morning, and the Rev. Alfred Rowland, B.A., LL.B. in the evening. On the following day addresses were given by the Rev. W. C. Loosmore of Streatham, and the Rev. Fred. Barrett of South Africa. The Collections at the Anniversary Services and Meeting amounted to £13 10s.

The Summer Treat took the form of an Excursion to Worthing on June 27th. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were able to take part in it.

The Infants had a separate Treat in a field kindly placed at the disposal of the school by Mr. Rawlings of Merton Road,

The Guild of last year is no longer in existence, but from its ashes there has sprung the present children's society, viz., The Temperance Guild.

It was decided not to confine it to Band of Hope lines alone, but to embrace all the aims and principles that help to fit the young for a noble and useful life.

Dr. Jowett has said "Abstinence when it stands alone is a very thin and niggardly virtue. It shines and puts on its dignity only when it forms one of a radiant band of virtues, mutually dependent upon one another for their glory and their strength."

It is not essential that members should be total abstainers, although it is the first aim of the Society to make them become so, neither is it necessary for them to be scholars in the Sunday School. By thus opening our doors in a wider sense, we have gained outside children who have appreciated the welcome and have become punctual and earnest members. It is a great pleasure to report a good increase in numbers. Whereas last year the total on the books amounted to 46, this year it has sprung to 76, with an average attendance of 40, against 29 last year and 18 in 1897.

The meetings are made as varied and as attractive as possible, temperance addresses, scripture stories with limelight illustrations, play evenings, etc., form the chief items of a well

At the Xmas treat, as in former years, the children instead of receiving presents, brought gifts for distribution amongst their poorer friends at Canning Town, thus causing pleasure both to the giver and the receiver.

Secretary, MISS A. F. BARRETT.

The year 1900 has dawned for us with hope and gladness. During the past year our Society has been working quietly but decisively in the direction of making Christian character the only true qualification for Christian work.

We have had good times, God has been with us, and when a series of meetings leaves such an impression behind it means

The present moment is our opportunity of taking a farewell glance at past endeavours. Looking back we see that during the year we have added to our Roll six Active and eight Associate Members, making a Membership of thirty, with an average attendance of twenty-three.

We do not forget our Invalid Members at the Hospital, to each of whom we sent a Christmas gift.

Last spring we purchased a dozen Bibles for the use of friends at the week-night services.

In August the Society contributed to the Children's Country Holiday Fund, and in September associated itself with the Cripple Work in Putney.

The record of the Year must not close without recording the fact that this Society has promised £1 a year for three years towards the future Church Fund.

The Consecration Meetings taken each month by our minister have been seasons of refreshing and have given an extra incentive to renewed effort.

The Sewing Guild under the superintendance of Miss Annie Hart and Miss K. Farrenden, has done splendid work in making and repairing 211 garments for the poor of Canning Town.

The secret of success and the great charm of the work has ever been the abounding unity which exists here as elsewhere in our Church, and we cannot but rejoice in the steady quiet growth of our Society, and the secret results which cannot be tabulated.

Yet we feel we are only at the beginning of what may be accomplished, and our hearts' desire is that we may continue "to endeavour, by His Grace" to be loyal to our motto

"FOR CHRIST AND THE CHURCH."

This Society has well maintained the excellent promise which it gave at its inauguration last October. The membership stands at over eighty and the average attendance is forty. The programmes have been so diversified as to suit all tastes. There have been concerts and illustrated lectures for those who like to take their pleasure passively, while the evenings devoted to debates and papers have given an opportunity to Members to develope their powers of speech and argument. It is hoped that the Society will more and more fulfil one of its chief aims, viz: to provide a recreative evening for young men and women who are in lodgings or houses of business.

This Society has first of all to mourn the recent loss of its beloved Treasurer, Mrs. Barrett, whose interest and help have been unflagging, and whose presence will be greatly missed.

The Society continues its fortnightly meetings where useful work is combined with the social element. Music and singing as well as reading aloud add to the enjoyment of the gatherings.

Ever since the Bazaar, the work has been for the poor of the neighbourhood, and in December there was a sale of many useful garments. There has also been a contribution of Tam o'Shanters for our soldiers at the front. The attendance has averaged about fifteen, and the Secretary takes this opportunity of suggesting that it should be raised higher by members endeavouring to bring a friend.

For social enjoyment fronk. Has set his face a gamed distinguishing ladies' and women', therebus are well reseld socially.

These to be bed down class distinctions and date has know how he has succeeded.

In connection with the above Fund our Church was the very first to take up the scheme. So generous was the response that on the Sunday when the appeal was made to the congregation, more than the amount asked for from the pulpit was promised.

Of the total amount subscribed, viz, £135 15s (more than half of which has already been received), a sum of 100 guineas has been apportioned as our share to the Central Fund, the balance remaining to be applied to any special Fund that may be raised by the Church hereafter.

Our Choir still maintains the principle that it is not a body separate from the congregation, but includes all the vocal interest and capacity which the congregation possesses. Thus it has no formal membership, but its meetings are open to all who are interested in the musical service of the Church. The Choir is gaining in confidence and ability through its good attendance at practices, and hopes to give two Concerts on its own account before the Spring is far advanced. Miss McGaw has rendered useful service on the piano.

HYMNAL —The Hymnbook in use is the "Congregational Church Hymnal," complete: -containing Hymns, Chants, and Anthems. Copies may be purchased from Mr. T. Mathias, (words only, from 1/-: or with music, from 3/9)

LETTING OF SITTINGS.—Sittings in the Church may be secured on application to Mr. T. Mathias, Mr. H. J. Shearn, or any other of the Deacons, after any Service. No fixed charges are made, and Sittings are allotted according to desire. Everyone is expected to give conscientiously according to ability. It is hoped that none will shrink from applying for Sittings simply because their means are small; out of poverty or out of abundance let each one bring this offering to the Lord of the Church.

The Garrett Lane Mission

M= Richard Riggott BA. I Earlsfield Road. Wandsworth bommon

Mr Payne, the Baptist Minister, advised us to see Mr Piggott, respecting bongregational bhurch at Earlsfield, now without a pastor.

a sturdy, square jawed clean shaven, middle aged man, with a fine forehead and nose, and deeply set dark eyes, M' Riggott is a typical specimen of the hard headed business man; He is partner in a large wholesale tea business and lives in a large, double fronted house, with carriage drive re.

She is, and has been for 20 years, superintendent of the Garratt Lane Mission (at corner of Bendon Valley) and its Lunday school, held in the Board School. The conversation naturally turned first on this work. Here they get the very poor, although the Wardley Street mission reaches a set even poorer than they at Garratt Lane. Some particulars respecting this Mission and Sunday school are given at pp 21-24 of the East Hell Shurch

They are mostly lads who have been in the school, drifted away, and then been picked up again. The Lads blub is attended by 15 to 18 of these young fellows. Temperance Society is weak. Band of Lope gets a rather rougher class than the Sunday School. bhildren come from immediate neighbourhood and from Carlsfield. Penny Bank is successful, takes about £ 120 a year-members are mostly parents of the Sunday scholars. Money is drawn chiefly at bhristmas and the Solidays.

The Mission is a House, the largest room

The mothers 'at Slome' has a small charitable fund.

The Mission seems to be active, and Mr Riggott's influence here is, no doubt, great.

The conversation then turned on the Carlofield Congregational Cherch, and M' Riggott gave me the annual Report attached on next page.

The bhurch was originally a Mission of East Stell bongregational bh; and was an independent church. The pastors have not been quite the right men. One was dismissed, and the other two failures: consequently a place that was at one time a flourishing mission has fallen off considerably. M' Riggott has returned to it, and is now working it up, prior to the settlement of a new pastor.

The School-Shurch holds about 400, and they have a site adjacent on which a larger church is to be built. In addition they have a small? iron mission room in Thornoett Street, chiefly used for children's meetings.

REPORT.

DEAR FRIENDS,

In bringing before your notice this brief report of our work, it is fitting that the first word should be one of thanksgiving to God for His loving-kindness to us as a Church and Congregation. Truly the hand of our God has been upon us for good.

The year that has elapsed since our last Anniversary has been an eventful one, mainly because in it we lost, as our pastor, the Rev. H. J. Weatherhead, who, after four years of difficult and faithful service, responded to a call in December last, to become pastor of the Congregational Church at Alton, Hants. It is with great satisfaction that we hear of his success in his new sphere of work.

We are most desirous that the Church should be regarded as the Spiritual Home for those needing such, and to this end may we urge all who have the interest of our Lord's Kingdom at heart to make the meetings known, and to bring in the thoughtless and careless ones, that the House may be full? It is very gratifying to the Deacons to see the increased attendance at the Sunday services.

One of the most hopeful signs of our work, and one which is full of promise of future blessing, is the fact that the Sunday Evening Prayer Meeting is so well maintained, especially by our young people.

We should be glad if our friends would also resolutely set apart Wednesday Evenings for attendance at the mid-week service.

We are looking to the Y.P.S.C.E. for recruits for our Church, and for Workers in the various departments of service.

With reference to the financial aspect of the work, we are making an effort to raise  $\pm 3$  per week, and should be glad of your support in this direction, either by the weekly offering (envelope) system, or in the usual offertory.

Those of us who have the management of the Church on our shoulders, are deeply grateful to the many friends who so ably filled the pulpit since Mr. Weatherhead left us.

We cannot conclude without expressing our debt of gratitude to our numerous friends at East Hill Congregational Church for the generous financial help they have rendered in defraying the entire cost of Renovation and Repairs of the Church, and for valued assistance in many other directions.

Yours sincerely,
(on behalf of the Deacons,)
F. W. NICHOLLS, Sec.

The Sunday School.

Superintendent—MR. J. SMITH.
Secretary—MR. W. J. STOKES. Librarian—MR. DYER.
Treasurer—MRS. WHITE. Organist—MR. F. OWEN.

Teachers-

Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Dyer, Miss Alice Haines, Miss Martin, Miss E. Minty, Miss R. Minty, Miss M. Nicholls, Miss Owen, Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Smith, Miss Alice Watt, Mr. Webster, Mrs. White, Mr. Young,

We have of late years been very severely handicapped owing to the lack of teachers, and, indeed, are still short of such workers, particularly of the male sex; but we record with thankfulness that the interest in the Sunday School during the past 12 months has been more than maintained.

At the present time there are on the register 246 scholars and 19 officers and teachers, with a fair average of each.

Eight of the scholars have become communicants during the past year, and we trust many others are enquiring "The Way of Life."

Our Free Circulating Library which is now augmented each quarter by loans from the London Sunday School Union Library is becoming increasingly popular, and this branch is well looked after by our Librarian, Mr. Dyer.

A branch of the International Bible Reading Association was commenced about a year ago, and we hope to very greatly add to the existing membership during the current year. Our Society now numbers 56.

The meetings of the Band of Hope which have been suspended during the past winter will shortly be resumed.

We are glad to report that all the scholars who sat for Scripture Examination in March last year were successful in obtaining Certificates, and two of them carried off Prizes out of the 15 awarded by the Wandsworth Auxiliary Sunday School Union. This result is very gratifying. The Missionary Cause is brought under the notice of the Scholars every Sunday in the classes, some of which subscribe regularly to the funds, and in connection with this a Girls' Working Party has been established by Mrs. F. W. Nicholls, who devotes one evening each week to this important work, from which we are hoping to see great results.

Social Committee-

Mr. Webster, Mr. A. Nicholls, Mrs. Pike, Misses A. Haines, and D. Weatherhead.

Our Society, No. 6,527, commenced on September 20th, 1899, with an active membership of 12 and 1 associate member. The pastor became President, and the officers of the Church, together with the Superintendent of the Sunday School, became, by reason of their office, Honorary Members of the Society.

The active members pledge themselves to read the Bible daily, to strive to do what the Lord Jesus Christ would have them do, and to attend, whenever possible, the Weekly Prayer Meeting of the Society, and take some part therein. At the Monthly Consecration Meeting the active members respond to the roll-call by some expression of loyalty to their Lord and Master. The Y.P.S.C.E. engages many forms of Christian work, the main object of the Society being to win young people for Christ, and train them for His service; thus striving to carry out its motto:—

"FOR CHRIST AND THE CHURCH."

Women's Own.

Treasurer—MRS. W. R. CLARKE. Secretary—MRS. PIKE.

The Women's Own has been re-started under the leadership of Mrs. Russell, the meetings are held on Tuesday Afternoons at 3 o'clock, and are much appreciated by the members. It is most desirable that more of our friends should avail themselves of this opportunity of spending a quiet hour.

In connection with the Women's Own there is a Provident Institution and Sharing-Out Society, the object being to encourage thrift. The meetings are held on Monday Evenings from 6 to 7.30, and last year about £170 was shared out to the members. Secretary, Mrs. Furness; Treasurer, Mr. Pike.

Cract Society.

"Do more death; neither sorrow, nor crying, nor pain, any more."—Rev. xxi. 4.

Minister's Letter.

To the Church and Congregation worshipping at Trinity Road Chapel, Upper Teoting.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

Last year was one of much prayer and much prosperity. Mr. Carter's report tells you how much, by God's favour, we were able to accomplish. It would seem almost an impossibility to make an equal advance this year. But such a thought leaves out of mind our Blessed Master and the all-sufficiency of God. This year may be as last, and much more abundant, when God is the source of blessing. Let us make it our great care to please Him, that from us

"He may ne'er depart."

Our high calling, as a Church of the Redeemer, is to witness. "Ye are the light of the world." It is our main business to scatter our beams far and wide. Diffusion, rather than attraction, should be our chief concern. There is no behest, in Our Lord's last charges to His people, so prominent as the one which bids them to witness. As a light without a ray is no light, so a church without a witness is no church. At the root of the word lies the idea of knowledge (witan, to know). We must first "know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings" if we are to witness as we should. Let us, dear brethren and sisters, lay this to heart, that this year we may advance in our knowledge of God and His ways, having as Samuel Rutherford had, "close dealings with God." Then shall we be able to show forth His goodness and declare the name of the Lord.

This greatly simplifies Church life and duty. It relieves us from a score of things which engage and trammel. It liberates us to a splendid field of observation and experience. It settles, once and for all, what is to be, in the main, the method of our influence.

My heart warms within me toward you all, at the remembrance of how willingly and resolutely you have addressed yourselves to the task of supporting our own missionaries in China. It is a far ray we are flinging, but so much greater is the glory to our Lord.

I would not close this letter without saying what gratification it has given me and the Church to receive into our fellowship, during last year, the Rev. H. J. Tresidder and the Rev. R. Walker, both of whom have spent long years in the Master's service, and still worthily bear His name.

With all my heart, I wish you all much blessing in your spiritual and domestic life. May your souls prosper. To the officers I offer my grateful thanks for the readiness with which they always consider my suggestions, and for the generous thought and kindness I am always receiving at their hands.

Faithfully yours,

HENRY OAKLEY.

Admission to the Membership of the Church.

The Minister will always be glad to see, at the close of each service, any persons desirous of joining the Church.

The only condition of Membership is "Repentance towards God, and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ."

Instructions and Requests to Members.

- 1. Members are affectionately urged to attend the stated Week-night Services and the Business Meetings of the Church as far as practicable; and to concentrate a portion of their time and energy on some branch of Christian work.
- 2. It is expected that all Members will regularly contribute, according to their ability, to the maintenance of Public Worship, and to the Societies of the Church.
- 3. Members in affliction, or desirous of Christian counsel, are requested to inform the Pastor or one of the Deacons.
- 4. Members changing their residences are requested to send their correct addresses to the Deacons.
- 5. All Members who have removed to a distance should, as early as possible, seek union with the Church with which they statedly worship.
- 6. Any Member absent from the Lord's Table for six consecutive months, without giving satisfactory reason, is considered to be no longer in Church fellowship.
- 7. Any Member finding another Member in extreme poverty should report the case to the Deacons.

A Bath Chair, for the use of any invalids in the congregation, has been kindly presented to the Church by a lady friend. Application for the use of it should be made to Mr. Buckingham, 146, Trinity Road, or to Mr. Latham, 6, Brodrick Road.

This record has, at some pains, been recently most thoroughly and carefully revised, and now for the first time we rejoice in an active membership of over 200, the exact number being 207. This shows a gain of twenty members during last year, and of 169 who have joined in fellowship since Mr. Oakley commenced his pastorate here. Surely this is a matter beyond all others for which minister and people alike should render praise. During the year nine members followed their Lord in the ordinance of believer's baptism.

Mention was made in our last report of the deeper interest that had been shown in Foreign Missions. Such interest has so far grown and increased that we have now our own missionary as the special messenger of this Church on the mission-field in China. On November 2nd, 1899, at a Church meeting duly convened for the purpose, the following motion was unanimously carried:-

"That this meeting of the Church worshipping at Trinity Road Chapel, recognising the vast need of preaching the Gospel to the heathen, hereby affirms its willingness to do all in its power to maintain our brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse (through the Baptist Missionary Society) in China, the charge thereof being about £150 per annum.'

The passing of that resolution marks an epoch in the history of this Church. We have entered into a serious but glorious undertaking, and we are determined, everyone of us, by God's will, to carry it through. The special valedictory service held on November 30th, to bid farewell to our friends, in which meeting Mr. A. H. Baynes, Professor McCaig and Professor Gaussen took part, will be to many of us one of the most memorable services ever held in our Church.

Another special occasion was December 7th, when thanksgiving was offered that at last our place of worship stood free from debt—free from a weight that had burdened and oppressed for so many years, and free from a penalty of £24 per annum, which can now be devoted to better and worthier purposes. This matter is but briefly mentioned here in order to focus and record the three grand objects achieved in the year 1899, viz.,

a Church with a living roll of 207 members, a Church supporting its own missionary, and a Church free from the incumbrance

Time and space fail one to tell properly of the marked increase in the congregations morning and evening, of prayermeetings better and more regularly attended, of a Sunday School full to overflowing, of a Bible Class ably led and well supported, of a successful Literary Society, and of continued well-doing in every department of Church work.

Some might be inclined to ask whether, in view of such a record of success, we may be deemed to have reached our Ultima Thule or to have attained the zenith of our powers? We trow not. We dare not be satisfied and contented. Nay, rather have we laid upon ourselves individually greater obligations to do more and make further and increased efforts, lest this happy period of success becomes the preface to a time of sad failure. We understand readily enough in business life that no man can with advantage stand still; there must be movement, either progressive or retrograde. Does not this apply equally to our Church life? Hitherto the Lord hath helped us. He will continue to do so if we continue to strive in furthering His cause. We will remember the New Year messages on the first page of The Witness for January, 1900. "Let every unit of our Church be a working power in the salvation of men. Let us be humble, let us pray, that God be with us still, that we live daily in His presence." So doing we may press forward into 1900 confident and assured that "Through the love of God our Saviour All will be well."

Crust Deeds.

The Trust Deeds of the Church are deposited in the Strong Room of the Baptist Building Fund at the Mission House, 19, Furnival Street, Holborn, and can only be removed thence by vote of the Church, with certain prescribed formalities.

The names of the present Trustees are— Mr. WILLIAM SHELLARD LATHAM,

Mr. CHARLES DE SELINCOURT, Mr. JOHN JAMES EVANS,

Mr. GEORGE MANSELL,

Mr. GEORGE BUCKINGHAM, Mr. SAMUEL WOOLGER.

Creasurer's Report.

Once more we have to report "progression" in each department of our financial year, while with an eye to economy it will be noticed that the expenditure has been kept well within bounds. The grace of "giving" has been well maintained, notwithstanding heavy demands from other quarters, and the balance sheet is a cleaner one than we have experienced for some years. The Church, through its officers, thanks all for the ready response and the cheerful giving that have so well and truly distinguished 1899. Blessing others—we bless ourselves. "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

W. SHELLARD LATHAM,

Church Treasurer.

Che Debt Fund.

SECRETARY and TREASURER-Mr. S. WOOLGER.

In presenting the following Report and Balance Sheet, we must go back a few years in the history of the Church to see the source from whence our liabilities started.

The building in which we worship to-day was erected in 1882, at a cost of £3,500, and was opened in 1883, but not free from debt. The amount was, however, very soon reduced to £600.

The Officers of the Church then thought it wise not to put further pressure upon the generosity of their supporters, but to leave the £600 on mortgage, and so allow those who were likely to come into the Church later to share the responsibilities of ownership by contributing towards the cost of the fabric in which they would worship.

Under the pastorate of the Rev. D. Llewellyn two very important improvements were undertaken—viz., the alteration of the interior of the Chapel, in 1887, which cost nearly £200, and, in 1890, the enlargement of the Schoolroom, with the addition of a Lecture Hall, at a cost of £700. Had it not been for these alterations the debt could have been paid off some years ago.

It is nearly three years since the Officers of the Church considered that the time had come when some means should be devised for the discharge of this debt, and an appeal was made for subscriptions to the amount of £150 a year for four years. This met with general approval, and in 1897 the first £150 was collected. In 1898 there was a slight falling off, but in the early part of 1899, it was decided to make a strenuous effort to wipe out the remaining £350 before the end of the year, and a prayer meeting was held to inaugurate this attempt.

Besides a large number of individual subscriptions most efficient help was obtained by means of collecting cards, which were largely taken up in the Sunday School.

The Bible Class and the Christian Endeavour Society were also contributors to the fund.

The 9th of November will long be remembered as a "red letter day," when contributions amounting to more than £70 were gathered in, thus practically extinguishing the debt.*

The money was paid over to the mortgagees' solicitors on December 15th, and our friend, Mr. Carter, has seen that the Deeds are complete and in safe custody. We are greatly indebted to Mr. Carter for his disinterested service in this matter, he having acted throughout without putting the Church to any expense.

The number of scholars on the books is 254, and the average attendance has increased, during the year, from 187 to 198.

In our last year's report we thanked our friends for the sum of £80 contributed towards much needed improvements in our school. In March last these were carried out, and the general appearance and brightness of the room, added to the much more favourable conditions under which the work is carried on, have fully justified the expenditure.

We much regret the resignations of Mrs. Huskisson, Miss R. Mansell, Miss Moss and Miss Scott, who have for so long a period been associated with us as teachers; whilst we have been glad to welcome, as new teachers, Miss Parsons, Miss Twelvetrees and Miss Turier.

Foreign Missions have been well supported, the sum of £21 5s.  $7\frac{1}{2}$ d. having been collected during 1899. This is exclusive of the amount (£15) collected in the Young Men's Bible Class.

Mr. F. E. Lemare reports an increase in the membership of the International Bible Reading Association, which now numbers 200 members.

Eighteen scholars entered for the Scripture Examination held in connection with the Sunday School Union. The subject was "Wonderful Words and Works." All passed, and one—Beatrice Mead—obtained a prize.

The Anniversary and Flower Services were held on Sunday, June 25th, and passed off most successfully.

The Annual Excursion took place on June 17th, when a large number of scholars and teachers, being favoured with fine weather, spent a long and enjoyable day at Upper Warlingham.

Numerous additions have been made to the Library during the year, and it continues to be much appreciated. For the funds to make these additions we are greatly indebted to our energetic friend, Miss Florence Scourfield, who most efficiently fills the position of Officer of Literature.

Above all, we have been glad to notice that the spiritual tone of the School has grown considerably, and that there have been decisions for Christ during the year. Two teachers and six scholars have been received into the membership of our

Mr Arnold Leeming, the Secretary of the "Sunday Morning Service for Children," reports as follows:—

"We are glad to be able to report another year of successful effort. The services held on Sunday mornings before Public Worship have been bright and, we hope, helpful and instructive.

"A good average attendance has been maintained, although there is room for improvement, and we would like to see more of the children who attend afternoon school attending the early school.

"An important alteration has been made in the form of the services. The Committee found, on careful consideration, that the idea of carrying it on as a Junior Society of Christian Endeavour was unsatisfactory, and so the old form of service was adopted. Some of the Junior Committees, however, were retained, such as the Sunshine Committee, whose members decorate the room with flowers each morning, the flowers being taken afterwards to the sick poor of the neighbourhood; the Look-Out Committee, for the introduction of new scholars; and the Prayer-Meeting Committee.

"Our aim is to give the children some slight training before entering the Christian Endeavour Society or the Church; and, looking back, we are thankful to say that we have been not altogether unsuccessful, several of our elder boys and girls having passed into the Endeavour Society as active members.

"We should also like to take this opportunity of thanking all those friends who have so kindly helped us by attending our meetings and giving addresses. Still one more favour would we ask, and that is, that they and all who are interested in the welfare of the children will join with us in praying for the continued success of the Morning Sunday School.

Many signs of blessing have we had during the year. The largest number of new members, and the highest average of attendances hitherto reached, speak of progress; but far better is the deeper interest taken in the subjects of study week by week and the higher spiritual tone permeating the Class; while best of all is the knowledge that some of our number have given themselves to the Saviour, to Whom be all the glory.

PRESIDENT—Rev. HENRY OAKLEY. VICE-PRESIDENT—Mr. J. E. READ. TREASURER—Mr. HAROLD OSBORNE.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY—Miss Walker, 52, Rowfant Road, Upper Tooting.

RECORDING SECRETARY—Mr. J. T. Mansell, 44, Ouseley Road, Balham.

We gratefully record that our Society is larger, more fully equipped, and more responsive than at any earlier period. Our membership is now sixty-three, showing an increase of nine members during 1899. The meetings are uniformly largely attended, and the responses at the Consecration meeting are characterised by high Christian intelligence, and, so far as it is permitted for one to judge another, by sincerity and faith. The strictly spiritual and devotional character of the Society has been earnestly maintained.

SECRETARY—Miss C. GODDARD, 70, Trinity Road, Upper Tooting. Committee—Mrs. Oakley, Miss Mudie, Miss Goddard.

In giving our report this year we have to record some alterations. We regret having been obliged to receive the resignation of our secretary, Mr. Lamb, which he also regrets, but the pressure of more personal claims renders it necessary. We have also to fill one vacancy on the committee through the resignation of Miss Twelvetrees. We are glad to be able to state that these vacencies are now filled up, the one on the committee by Miss Goddard, whilst Miss C. Goddard will take the secretaryship.

Our summer outing took place in the grounds of Park-Holme, kindly lent by Miss Bell. The day was fine and a large number of friends came to show their interest and to enjoy the occasion.

There is a feeling on the part of those most interested in our Band of Hope that the Society was never in a better condition. We have had some interesting and useful addresses, to which the children have paid quiet attention, and the attendances have been uniformly good.

Our financial position is not very flourishing but that will receive attention soon.

This Society was formed on November 23rd, 1898. Fifty-four persons have been enrolled as members. During the year addresses on the total abstinence question have been delivered by the Rev. W. Townsend, Mr. J. Warren, and Mr. D. J. Legg. These addresses were characterised by great earnestness and convincing argument. The first came from the minister's standpoint, the second was based on a City Missionary's experience, whilst the third was the testimony of a layman whose wide knowledge of men generally enabled him to speak with considerable weight. The absence of non-abstaining friends from the meetings is greatly to be regretted.

Christmas Dinners and Winter Relief Fund.

A simple appeal by printed circular, and a word or two from the pulpit, without any personal application, resulted in contributions amounting in the aggregate to £15 2s., or an increase of £3 8s. 6d. as compared with last year, and this at a time when there were so many other pressing claims upon the generosity and charity of the contributors.

As stated in last year's report, a balance of £3 11s. 4d. was reserved for occasional relief during the winter months—past experience, in a peculiarly trying period, having shown the necessity for the retention of some portion of the subscriptions—but thanks to the renewed generosity of Mr. Martin, of St. James's Road, and an exceptionally favourable season, this balance remained substantially intact, and with this year's contributions gave an amount of £18 13s. 4d. to be disbursed.

The system of distribution is by printed ticket upon tradesmen who have served us well for some years. The ticket is signed, and the name of the recipient entered, every care being taken to select, from many necessitous cases, only those who are most deserving.

In addition to the bodily comforts granted through your kindness, it gives our tender-hearted, and yet withal discreet, almoner, Mr. Warren, better opportunity for furthering the self-denying work he has so faithfully undertaken for many years amongst the poor of Battersea.

Following the usual custom, forty tickets each for meat, groceries and coal, were distributed for Christmas Dinners in Battersea, and twelve each in our own district. In addition to these, further tickets have been issued for occasional relief during the winter.

Secretary—Mrs. Nicol, 23, Morella Road, Wandsworth Common.

This Society, which has for its object the providing of clothes for deserving poor, commenced its career in March, 1899. The members of the Society have met fourteen times and 130 garments have been made. Clothing has been forwarded to Mr. Warren and others in our own district from time to time to relieve necessitous cases, but the final distribution took place on January 2nd, when thirty-two women and children, selected from Mr. Warren's district in Battersea, were conveyed by brake to our Lecture Hall. A very substantial tea was provided, after which, through the kindness of Mr. Douglas Woolger, a magic lantern entertainment was given, and finally the clothing distributed. To quote from Mr. Warren's letter of thanks will best explain how much the evening was appreciated:—"I am thankful to say that we all arrived in safety and all the company were delighted; it was quite a red-letter day for them." The office-bearers desire to thank most cordially all those who have helped the Society in its initial effort, and trust that the following year may be still more fruitful in its good and useful work.

We are sorry to find that the secretary has no report for publication this year; and, as there has been neither income nor expenditure, the treasurer has no account, the balance of cash in hand remaining the same as at the end of 1898, viz., £3 17s. 4d. A.D. 1899 appears to have been a "lean year" in the Choir, the members of which have become increasingly "conspicuous by absence." At a time when we have been rejoicing over so much progress in other departments of our Church-work it is regrettable (though very true to life) that there should be this little "rift in the lute." The Choir Committee are, however, making strenuous efforts to repair it, and already there are signs of renewal.

In the meantime we gratefully recognise the devotion to duty of the faithful few who have not deserted Mr. Mudie, but who, through evil report and good report, have remained at their posts. We believe that they have felt constrained by the highest motives to serve the Church of Christ in this way, and we trust that they may soon be joined by others of our members who are qualified by talent and by a like spirit; for then the leadership of our congregational psalmody would devolve upon a choir consecrated to this service—worshipping God not in the melody of song only but also "in the beauty of holiness."

OUR OWN MISSIONARIES—
In China: The Rev. S. Frank and Mrs. Whitehouse,

(supported by the Church.)

In India: Mr. Baroi, native evangelist, Jessore, Bengal. (supported by the Young Men's Bible Class).

In Africa: Wabiakana, native schoolboy, Wathen, Lower Congo. (supported by the Sunday School.)

We have very much pleasure in presenting the report this year, seeing that we have successfully opened a new era. Most of us remember that in the month of April we held a Missionary Soirée. The Rev. J. B. Myers, in the course of his address, suggested that by a small effort we might maintain our own missionary, to which the meeting warmly responded. From the Mission House our minister was introduced to the Rev. S. Frank Whitehouse who was eager and ready to return to China.

the Mission House our minister was introduced to the Rev. S. Frank Whitehouse, who was eager and ready to return to China. Mr. Whitehouse had already travelled extensively in China and had acquired the language. This opportunity of cooperating with our Society commended itself to the officers and Church alike. So ready and cheerful was the response that our minister felt justified in making the necessary arrangements, which were ratified by the Church. Since our friends have become personally known to us and since the inspiration of the valedictory service, we are the more assured that the step was a right one. May we all feel a deeper and more constant interest in the Mission-field and do all in our power to sustain the funds, and to pray that the Lord of the Harvest may give to our missionaries a large ingathering.

"The Witness."

Editor-REV. HENRY OAKLEY.

We consider the journal has rendered a greater service to the Church during this past year than in either of the earlier years of its issue. The Debt Fund has reaped most definitely and largely, and next in order would probably be our Missionary Auxiliary; while there is not a single organisation which has not been more widely known and whose interest has not been more keenly felt by the publication of The Witness. As our membership grows, and the number interested in our Church increases, the service we can render will still be larger.

To say that we regret our balance-sheet is not more favourable does not at all express our feeling; we are bitterly disappointed, and seek in every way to make what amends are possible to us. The claims for the year's work partly explain it, together with incidents connected with the purely business elements of the magazine. If, however, the whole deficit fell upon the Church The Witness might still be claimed as one of the most cheaply worked Church journals, of any pretensions, of which we have heard. But our disappointment is not less by these considerations, as we had hoped for a balanced account.

We thank all our helpers and especially Mr. W. G. L. the

We thank all our helpers, and especially Mr. W. S. Latham, for the costly and highly finished pictures he has enabled us to present to our readers. We have determined, with much reluctance, to reduce our expenditure, that in 1900, at least, there shall be no deficit there shall be no deficit.

The members of the Young Men's Bible Class having expressed a strong desire for the formation of a new Literary Society, a meeting to discuss the question was held on October 9th, Mr. Oakley presiding. After valuable suggestions by Mr. Buckingham, Mr. Read and others, the meeting unanimously adopted a resolution, moved by Mr. Osborne, to form a Literary Society, which should mainly look to debating power while not neglecting recreation. Mr. C. V. Coates and Mr. W. C. Knight were appointed joint hon. secs. By the subsequent departure of Mr. Knight to South Africa this new venture has suffered the loss—for a time at least—of one of its most zealous

The meetiings have so far been successful and the attendance has varied from 35 to 110 members and visitors.

Miss Lamprey. Mrs. Woolger. Mr. J. E. READ. Mrs. J. T. Mansell. Mr. W. Knight. " D. Robertson. Miss M. Read. ,, C. Lamprey.

SECRETARY-Mr. F. E. LEMARE, 99, St. James' Road, Upper Tooting.

GROUND—The Victoria Field.

We may congratulate ourselves that at the close of this, our third season, the Club stands on a firmer basis than heretofore. The membership now numbers 53 and there is every promise of this number being exceeded in the coming season.

As to the financial state, there would have been a balance in the hands of the Treasurer but for the outlay on the awning attached to the pavilion. The benefit of this outlay (£3 10s. 9d.) will extend for several seasons.

We accord our sincere thanks to the officers and many kind friends for their liberal support in the past. With a continuance of this assistance there is every promise of the coming season being even more successful.
