

NORTHERN RHODESIA 1

Ordinance: Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children (Amendment)

An Ordinance to amend the Employment of Women, Young Persons, and Children Ordinance¹. No. 18 of 1936. Assented to 9th November, 1936.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Employment of Women, Young Persons, and Children (Amendment) Ordinance, 1936, and shall be read as one with the Employment of Women, Young Persons, and Children Ordinance, 1933¹, hereinafter called the Principal Ordinance.

2. The Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the insertion immediately after section fourteen of the following section:

“ 14A. (1) No woman shall be employed on underground work in any mine.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to—

(a) women holding positions of management who do not perform manual work;

(b) women employed in health and welfare services;

(c) women who, in the course of their studies, spend a period of training in the underground parts of a mine; and

(d) any other woman who may occasionally have to enter the underground parts of a mine for the purpose of a non-manual occupation.

(3) For the purposes of this section the term ‘mine’ includes any undertaking, whether public or private for the extraction of any substance from under the earth.”
