quite frankly as (in the) Journal - L and L London for the Ex. Com. as Aug 17th. I was just reflecting yesterday that it ~~is~~ is a fortnight L-day since I left London. Since that time I have met the Com. of of the I'pool Federalism, spoken at a public meeting, written 3 articles (D. N. West. Gazette & Co) besides coming (London) for the Deputation & the executive meeting on Aug 3rd So I have not been entirely idle.

This morning brings me a request - The Englishwoman ^{for an article} on the Suffrage situation for their September N^o.

I have sent the report of the Deputation in the Manchester Guardian but not in any other paper. I hope it has been inserted in their paper.

I quite forgot to mention when I was at the office that Sir Francis Blake who is to be Sir Edward Grey's successor in Devonshire, has a very good Supper record. He took the chair at a meeting for me at Coldstream a few years ago. His wife (since dead) was very keen. She had militant sympathies but very many people had them: it was before their most notable excesses.

Yours very sincerely
