A

DUNCANS FARM,

BILLINGSHURST,

SUSSEX.

Dear Madam.

I am in receipt of your generous letter, but I cannot think of receiving my money back, it would pain me very much, & I am deeply sorry if my want of tact in saying that "through them & them" alone my end will be attained should make you feel it impossible for you to accept my hasty cheque. It was so stupid

Some to have said it, perhaps I thought my Quaker ancestors show they obtained their religious privileges, by making themselves, certainly most perverse obstinate. I do not wish for one moment to throw any stone upon your quiet work, should be glad of any information with regard to it, if so be you thought me worthy

Oh. Again begging you not to pain me by returning the cheque.

Believe me very sincerely

Yours
Smith Bede
