Dear Mrs Colyer,

The lady you speak

I must undergo a change of heart

before she can be a good worker

in our cause.

Certainly there was an old gentleman who appeared to be ill. As the attendant in the dining car told me
he travels frequently
on that line & his condition of ill health is chronic. These railway company's specials in the dining car seemed to understand his passenger's needs. In addition the woman sitting beside me interested herself in him apparently though I do not recollect that she did very much.

I should say that the old man was suffering
from some sort of brain failure. It was impossible for any stranger without medical

training, & know what attention he requires.

Yours sincerely,

Christabel Paulkurn.
