Dear Amy,

Your delightful flowers were a very welcome addition to the festival on the 11th. They were very choice and charming and we thought that the best use for them was to make them up into eight pretty sprays or small bouquets for the light-ex-prisoners. They were put in their places at the table and marked with your name.

I wish you could have been there; it was really quite an event and everything was beautifully arranged

Edmund sent a very nice message which I read out.

With so many thanks for all your generous help and sympathy

Ever yours lovingly
