My dear Teresa.

This is just a note to say how glad I am to see that you are speaking on July 14th, and shall look forward to seeing - and hearing you speak.

Annie's husband, I hope, will be with me, both at the Stature and at the Coxter Hall meeting afterwards. He has come up from Leebhorst for this celebration ever since Annie died - making it a day of remembrance for Annie also.

Trust all goes well with you.
With kind thoughts and every good wish.
Jessie Kenney
