

Dear Mrs. Brackley

Will you please Express to the Executive Committee of the London Society for Women's Suffrage my deep gratitude for their kind tribute to my husband's work?
There was no cause
in the world so dear
to him as the uplifting and freeing of women.

Yours very gratefully
Laura Estlin

In bright memory of James Stuart

entered the higher life - October 12th, 1913

His wife is deeply grateful for each one of the multitude of letters of sympathy, resolutions from public bodies and other marks of kindness received since her husband passed away.

In the words of one of his oldest friends (Professor Scott Holland) she has "the unspeakable boon of being able to give thanks for every fragment of the noble life, lived out, with perfect courage and sweetness, to the very last."

"The journey is done and the summit attained,
And the barriers fall,
* * * * *
And with God be the rest!"

R. Browning.
