Dearest Amy,

Your kind loving birthday letter rec^d this morning has given me great pleasure. So many thanks for it. Do not think of troubling about a birthday present. I have more of every thing than I deserve already. We are so pleased & then that Jack & two Miss Bedales boys have done all the carpentering for the Cambridge Concess. You must write & tell us how it all goes off. Agnes had an enclosed cheerful little card from Elsie yesterday. Well might you would be glad to see it. Dear love & renewed thanks for everything.

Always your lovingly
