My dear Pippa

My leave is not quite settled yet, but I think it will be all right, so cures are reserved for the present.

Your letter this week came two days late having been addressed to Calcutta in a moment of lappritude. The news it contained was most surprising for though

I knew that the popular notion was wrong I never imagined that Ethel Croell was the lucky lady. I now see that if I had had the slightest sense I would have guessed it years ago.
Please give him my heavy congratulations.

Nothing else has occurred so I will now cease. Only 4 months more quite absurd
yrs. loving brother

"I have und your soap for the last 23 weeks since when I consider it to be the Hage de la Hage"

Walter

He considers it to be the HAGE DE LAHAGE!!!
