Dear Dr Wilson,

I am enclosing the translation of chapter 2. I have made no attempt at polishing, but it will give you some idea of the work.

I have used throughout
the expression "inspected" & not examined. On page 19 of Mr. Wharton's work the word "undergoing i. e. examination"

But it is only that once in the whole chapter.

"Besitzung" means to look at. I have not found a good word yet for "stem". Next comes
"nucleus" which is not do.

I can quite realize
why they counted £30
for the translation of the book! If you can find someone who will do it for less than £15, will you do so.

I shall probably spend time in Hove when I know like me to translate the book, I must try and break the back of the work during my holidays.

Yours sincerely
Hedda Alston
