

Private

Fawcett

AL / 10

18. Brookside,

Cambridge.

Jan 19.

FAWCETT LIBRARY
27 WILFRED STREET
LONDON, S.W.1.

Dear Sir,

I learn from Miss Becker that you had kindly promised to write to the Pall Mall Gazette in reply to the misrepresentation of the letters of <sup>"A Liberal Delegation"</sup> ~~the~~ "A Liberal Delegation" and "A good Liberal" concerning the circumstances under which the vote of the Leeds Conference was given in favour of women's suffrage. I have reason to fear which gave rise to the correspondence that the editor is not inclined I shall therefore be extremely to insert any letters in reply indebted to you if fairly true to these misrepresentations appearance of your letter, you and it may therefore happen would send me by telegraph that your letter will be suppressed a statement of your impression If this should unfortunately <sup>as an eye witness</sup> of what actually took place; if you will Kindly authorize me to make use of your name. I shall be much indebted to you, but if you prefer it I would not mention your name. As I hope you will be able to send me a rather long telegram I enclose Postal note 2/6. Trusting you will excuse me for thus troubling you

Believe me dear Sir

Yours very faithfully

M J Fawcett