Dear Miss Strachey

Be very careful about that picketing. A woman in my club told me this morning quite innocently that Mrs. Pankhurst had sent for her, asked her what she would do & when said, she wouldn't do anything to break the law, she told her to go to the Actress's Franklin & give in her name to picket - Which proves the whole business is Parkhurst & may mean any thing -

I told the woman to try

& get out of Miss Rowan what arrangements, if any, have been made with Police & tried to frighten the good lady so that she should be firm with them -

That Dickens's business is up by - & the Irish are highly dangerous.

Yours

G. M. Mace
