Dear Mrs How-Martyn,

It was so kind of you to write me such a nice letter of congratulation on my winning a seat on our Legislative Council in the elections last month. Please accept my apologies for the delay in replying, but a severe attack of influenza shortly after the elections has put my correspondence sadly in arrears, & as there were a few hundred to answer, I am having a struggle to catch up.

Thank you also for sending me the pamphlet about the Women's Service Library - I read it with much interest.

Am forwarding under separate cover the election brochure prepared by my committee - which contains a photograph - Am afraid at present I have no copies of the photo itself left - it was taken last year - But have to have some more done shortly - Am afraid I have no copy of an election address, as I spoke from rough notes at the only public meeting held - There were five broadcasts, but at the moment I have only the one copy of each - Am having some more copies typed, & could send one later on -

I am looking forward to the work, & only hope I may prove worthy of this new responsibility - My chief satisfaction is to have broken the ground in this State so that other women may follow -

Yours very truly
Margaret E. W. Tuttle
