My dear,

I have received & have read with great interest the article reprinted from the Guardian of April 11.

I think you also will be interested in the work which this Society is endeavouring to do especially that part of it which relates to S. Africa. We are in communication with Miss Fairbridge Secy of the Guild in Cape Times and member for Victoria East in the Cape Parliament.

I have the honor to be, my Lord

Yours obediently

M. S. Fawcett

of Royal Women in S. Africa, and have sent her 500 copies of Mr. Naville's pamphlet in English and have suggested that she should ~~be~~ get it translated into Dutch. Our associations are prepared to help her to the utmost extent of our power, either by money or literature for distribution among the Dutch inhabitants of S. Africa. We have received advice and encouragement from Sir David and Lady Gill, and we have recently made an appeal for money, by ^{two} letters in the Times, ^{the second of which will} ~~which~~ I hope will enable us to do something worth doing to help Miss Fairbridge's organisation.
Our com^{es} will meet again on Tuesday and I should be very glad to hear from you before that day. if you have any practical suggestions and advice to give us.

I may add that I know Mr. Rose Innes and have had a kind letter from him on this subject.

I may also perhaps be allowed to introduce myself as a cousin of Mr. F. E. Garrett, till lately, editor of
