Dearest Pippa

I have just encountered your sad news in the Times.
Never was so fine a generation and its depletion leaves the world so very much the poorer.
I suppose those that are coming on may be as good - but I cannot make myself think so, so I contemplate with sorrow the gap in the company at 51 Gordon Square, and the loss to those that remain there.

With love & sympathy,

yours

Mary S.

this requires, of course, no reply.
