Dear Madam,

I could certainly have a letter translated for you into Welsh, & I believe most of the Welsh papers w^d print it - remembers the names of others in N. Wales, I am afraid I know little of South.

I think there is really also a great difference in the people of the two halves of the Principality, in giving the following names, I am not mentioning the most prominent women only those I think w^d be most interested.

Mrs Humphreys-Owen. ^(L.) Glan Severn. Montgomery
Mrs Pryce-Jones. Montgomery. (C.)
Mrs Hugh Lewis. Glan Severn. W. Kenton. (L.)
Mrs H. B. Proctor. Aberdwey. N. Wales. (C.)
Mrs Mac Nare. Penmal Twer. Machynlleth,
Mrs Witherington Stabb. Llanbryn-mair. ^{N. Wales (C.)} Montgomery
+ Miss Lewis. Borth. N. Wales (L.)
Miss Buckley. Vachddulig Hall. Bala
+ Mrs Leigh-Jones. Llanidloes. N. Wales.
The 2 with crosses, I am not quite sure of their

to take an interest in Suffrage, in that part of the world, - but with out
